NO PLAN TO MERGE RAIL OFFICES HERE

Consolidation Plan Will Be Tested in East First, Says Omaha Man on McAdoo Committee.

No action toward the consolidation of railroad ticket offices in Omaha, for the duration of the war, has been taken by the committee in Washington, declares General Passenger Agent Basinger of the Union Pacific, upon his return to Omaha Saturday morning.

Mr. Basinger is a member of Secretary I Adoo's committee in charge of railway ticket offices. Mr. Basinger has been in Washing ton for nearly a month at work upon a general plan that will be applied in a number of eastern cities soon. According to Mr. Basinger, Washngtor will be the first of the larger cities where consolidated ticket of fices will be given a try-out. It will be in charge of a superintendent who will have in his employ 35 ticket sellers and clerks. Concerning the plan of union ticket offices Mr. Basinger said:

Washington a Guide.

"We are working to make the Washington office a sort of a guide which will be followed in the consolidation of the officers elsewhere. It is impossible to say when the consolidation of other offices will occur. We know that the Washington office will be ready for business May I Its Ninth Anniversary and the offices elsewhere will be put in working order as rapidly as pos-

The consolidation plan is simple. In Washington, for instance, if a party calls for a ticket to New York and designates a line over which he wants to travel, the ticket over that ine is sold. If he has no preference he is given a ticket over the line that runs the first train out. There are clerks to explain routes of travel connections and all information that s necessary for the most inexper enced traveler.

"The consolidation of offices in Washington will result in a great savng in rentals. Under the new plan they are all in one room that is perhaps 100 feet long and 20 to 30 feet

Will Deliver Lambs for Use on Omaha's Front Lawns B. C. Rowe, garden expert of the Board of Public Welfare, has arranged with an Omaha firm to deliver lambs or ewes at market price, plus actual cost of delivery, to citizens who will raise them this season. The purpose of this movement is to interest Omahans in raising lambs on their lawns, 'Mr. Rowe points out that these animals are comparatively of no expense and the invest ment yields large returns. He estimates that 10,000 lambs could be cared for on Omaha lawns this season. During the summer these lambs take on from seven to 10 pounds of flesh a month. The need to increase the production of wool is one of the reasons why the extension department of the University of Nebraska, through Mr. Rowe, is urging this movement in Omaha.
