Brooklyn Held Down by Twirler, Who, in Spite of Philadelphia's Errors Is Never in Danger.

Philadelphia, April 22.—Oeschger twirled his first game of the season today, blanking Brooklyn, 3 to 0. No two of Brooklyn's hits came in the delphia's three errors he was never in the first inning, but Tesreau held the visitors in check. Score: danger except in the eighth, when he issued two bases on balls. This was the only time Brooklyn had more than one man on bases. The locals bunched six of their seven hits off Grimes in the first and third innings.

Oeschger started the scoring in the third with a single to right. Score:
