Wielding the Hammer

By FRED S. HUNTER.

THIS business of bidding bug seems to have bitten its way into the wrestling ranks. The Willard-Fulton fight having been knocked down to the highest bidder, along comes an auction block stunt for the Stecher-Caddock wrestling match.

Cedar Rapids has offered $40,000. Jack Curley has gone up to $50,000 for New York and Oscar Thorsen of Des Moines says he'll top any figure offered.

These may be bona fide bids but there is a suspicion an expert combatant is at work. Fifty thousand here and there, along comes an auction block stunt for the Stecher-Caddock wrestling match.

Soft Pedal. MERELY by way of suggestion would it not be expedient for all hands interested in the approaching wrestling classic to tune down the musical melange of high-powered bids down a bit? Only by promising to pay the gladiators in Liberty bonds and donated 12 1/2 per cent of the gross receipts to a war charity and one or two other little things did Colonel Miller succeed in putting his circus over. So it is not barely possible the cold legal and moral scrutiny will be turned toward the mat joust if the belligerent bidders continue to flood the telegraph wires?

Courageous Jess. WHEN Colonel Miller announced the Twin Cities, where only 10-round bouts are permitted would be the scene of the million-dollar quarrel, Jess Willard immediately began to pound out the mournful melodies on the old steam caliope which had done such good service on parade days.

When Jess was sorely disappointed because the fight wasn't to be 20-rounds—or more. Yes, well he Jess was as mad as Looney Ludendorf when the general staff refused to permit him to lead the first attack of the German offensive in person.

Spirited Competition. In Novelty Bowling League. The teams of Miss Housman, Mrs. Stanton and Mr. Howard went into the lead last night in the Novelty league with 1,497 pins. Miss Housman leads with 519 and Mr. Edison leads for the men with 620. The second round will start Thursday night.

Indian Defeat St. Louis. Cleveland, April 23.—The Indians bunched their hits off Gallia today and defeated St. Louis, 5 to 2. The Indians bunched their hits count for runs most of them coming with men on the bases. Combs pitching his first game of the season, was scored upon in but one inning, the fourth. Slizer walked and scored ahead of Gedeon when the latter hit for a home run to left.

Pitcher Seay Dies of Wound at St. Joseph. St. Joseph, Mo., April 23.—Patrick Seay, several years ago a pitcher for Milwaukee in the American association and St. Joseph in the Western league, died in a hospital here tonight from gunshot wounds received during a quarrel yesterday morning. A suspect is being sought by the police.

Pugilist Fined and Barred From Ohio for Stalling. Toledo, O., April 23.—Willie Langford, Buffalo, negro pugilist, was fined $100 and barred from further participation in Ohio rings at a special meeting of the Toledo boxing commission today. Langford was found guilty of stalling in his 12-round bout with Jack Blackburn of Philadelphia here last night, in which he was out-pointed in every round.

Cicotte Tries to Fool Lajoie; He Does—Not. During a fanning bee a few nights ago, Rippy Williams and Ray Chapman had interesting tales to relate.

Secretary McAdoo Says— Half-soled breeches and half-soled shoes are better of honor. I wear them myself and am glad to recommend them to you.

Kansas U. Team Defeated By Sluggers From Ames. Lawrence, Kans., April 23.—Six errors by Kansas players and opportune hits by Iowa sluggers were the deciding factors in the baseball game between Kansas University and Ames Agricultural college which the visiting team won 8 to 2.

PLAN FOR FIGHT IN TWIN CITIES STRIKES A SNAG

Safety Commission Would Forbid the Contest While the United States Is at War.

St. Paul, April 23.—The feeling persisted in the twin cities tonight that the proposed championship fight between Jesse Willard and Fred Fulton would not be held in St. Paul on the Fourth of July.

Active opposition from several organizations and the announced determination of leaders of these forces to enlist state-wide support, was regarded as the chief cause for pessimism. It was believed that this opposition was responsible for an intimation that the safety commission would forbid the fight while the United States is involved in war.

The safety commission today listened to arguments and then took the matter under advisement. Col. J. C. Miller, promoter of the contest, was quoted today as declaring that he would give $20,000 if he could shift his fight burdens to other sloufhts.

Frankie Britt Knocked Out by Lew Tendler. Boston, April 23.—Frankie (Young) Britt of New Bedford was knocked out by Lew Tendler of Philadelphia in the third round of their 12-round boxing match here tonight.

Frankie Britt was knocked out by Lew Tendler of Philadelphia in the third round of their 12-round boxing match here tonight. Britt landed a left hand uppercut that sent Britt to the ropes. Britt recovered himself and was about to cross the ring when Tendler with another uppercut to the body floored Britt for the count. The men are lightweights.

Orpheum—That the serious is the comical may be paradoxical, but it nevertheless is true. Star at Barnes, the monologist, singing comedian and entertainer par excellence, at any rate believes this to be a fact, and his belief crystallized into realization by the enormous success of his last show. He is reaping over at the Orpheum this week, at the expense of those who have been targets for General Dantel cupid. He has harassed the weakness of the swain to a chariot of mirth and is driving it over the top of public approval.

2,000 Actors Volunteer To Go to France and Entertain Soldiers

New York, April 23.—More than 2,000 actors at a meeting called here today for the purpose of interesting them in the movement to provide entertainment for the American soldiers in France, responded to the call by volunteering their services in a body.

Many of the most famous stars telegraphed their desire to serve. The secretary of the National Vaudeville Artists association said that of 14,000 members of his organization more than 9,600 had already volunteered.

George M. Cohan announced that the Y. M. C. A. would furnish uniforms and transportation across and back and would care for the players while abroad.

There is one entertainer of the first water who has the greatest indifference in the world as to whether or not he has a cold. The artist in question is Thomas "Brogan" Snyder whose very essential role in "Some Show" is confined entirely to faulstomies—in fact, no lines that an author could write could be one-half so funny as the silent comedy Mr. Snyder plays into Edmond Hayes' act, "The Piano Movers" at the "Gayety" this week. Joseph Barrows wrote all the lyrics and music for the cast.

In the Silent Drama. Sun—William S. Hart, Robert Edson, Gladys Brockwell and a cast of screen players are presenting at the Orpheum again today and for the remainder of the week "The Bandit and the Preacher." Hart as the bandit and Edson as the preacher make a well balanced pair, who are the main participants in a healthy scrap that is exciting and full of action. The story is one that will please and the direction has brought out the important points with splendid conception. Other good pictures are shown.
