Druggists Here Have Something New for Colds

Applied Externally, the Body Heat Releases Ingredients in Vapor Form

COLDS GO OVER NIGHT CROUP IN 15 MINUTES

The Manufacturers Have Authorized the Local Druggists to Sell Any of the Three Sizes, 25c, 50c, or $1.00, on 30 Days' Trial.

Since its introduction here a short time ago, the new treatment for cold troubles, known as Vick's VapoRub, has aroused a great deal of interest among local people, especially among mothers with small children.

Local druggists report that numbers have taken advantage of their 30 days' trial offer to see if a 25c jar of VapoRub really will relieve these troubles externally, without having to "dose" with nauseous internal medicines.

For croup, coughs, chest colds, sore throat or bronchitis, apply VapoRub well over the throat and chest, covering with a warm flannel cloth. Leave the covering loose around the neck so the vapors arising may be freely inhaled.

In addition, VapoRub is absorbed through and stimulates the skin, taking out that tightness and soreness in the chest. For head colds, catarrh, hay fever, or asthmatic troubles, VapoRub can either be applied up the nostrils or a little melted in a spoon and the vapors inhaled.

You have to try this treatment to realize its remarkable effect in all cases of cold troubles.—Adv.

Brims Are Broad

Advice to Lovelorn

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX.

Not Exactly Fair to Him.

Dear Miss Fairfax: I have been going about with a young man now in the navy. Now, you know, Miss Fairfax, the pay of a sailor is not much, he wanted me to accept an engagement ring from him, but I thought that the money in the bank would be far better than to give him the money that he would have spent on it.

It seems to me that this boy's mother is being most unfair to him. But I only know one side of the story—yours, as you tell it. It is a splendid idea for you to teach this boy to be saving and for the two of you to build together toward your future home.

Be Fair to Her.

Dear Miss Fairfax: I was introduced to a young girl whom I now love very much and she in turn loves me. We became engaged two months ago. My friends tell me that I was too hasty for this young woman is in a very peculiar circumstance.

Personally, I would have no doubt as to what alternative I should choose, but I am becoming perturbed at the advice of my friends.

Poverty and adverse circumstances need not make a girl "bad." Even if this were a very weak and inclined to choose the wrong path in life, you faith in her might be the very thing to save her and help her in making her fight.

How can I make myself popular, able to carry on some sort of a conversation?

The Art of Conversation. Dear Miss Fairfax: I am 13 and love some, having no friends of either sex, as I am not attractive or interesting, but quiet and bashful.

What you need most is to forget yourself. Spend an hour every day reading good news and editorials. Just do it because you think that is part of your education.

Can you suggest some way I may be sure of a happy marriage? Dear Miss Fairfax: You poor, youthful, little cynic! A good many marriages are failures; that doesn't mean that the institution itself is a failure, but that the people who are into it aren't the right kind of partners.
