Miss Regina Connell Is "Recording Angel" In Board of Health

Every day new avenues of work are opening up for our girls. Stenographic work ceased to be a novelty some time ago and when we consider library training, canteen service, clerical work and all the different branches of the Red Cross, to say nothing of driving trucks, making hay on the farms and planting war gardens, the word "service" seems to be the watchword of their lives.

It remains for the "Goddess of Liberty" to attempt something new and entirely different, in the line of activities. In the office of her father, Dr. R. W. Connell, in the Board of Health, Miss Regina Connell may be found with a puckered brow and ink fingers, carefully recording the births of the month on the records. Miss Connell says the last few days of the month are very busy ones for her, for she is so busy with other war duties that she is forced to postpone this work until the last of every month.

She tried to enlist one of her friends the other day to help her, for the task is really more stupendous than one would imagine. Some really amusing things come up even in such dull things as state statistics and the pretty "recording angel" tells an amusing tale or two about the work. Much to Miss Connell's surprise, two slips were found recording two births in one family. Thinking that the physician had made a mistake Miss Connell telephoned him and found that twin babies had come to a certain twice-blessed home.

High School Play.

The Girls' Student club will give a colonial play, "Girls of 1776," Friday night, in Central High school auditorium. Proceeds from the play will be equally divided between the fund to send a delegate to the national convention of Student clubs and the Central High scholarship fund. This latter fund is used to help needy students through school by providing funds to pay for filing work done by pupils after school. The performance will start at 8 o'clock.

Kratz-Marshall Wedding.

The marriage of Miss Lila D. Marshall and Mr. Lloyd G. Kratz of Nelawka, was quietly solemnized Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Marshall, 2408 North Twenty-eighth street. Only intimate friends of the family witnessed the ceremony.

School Concert.

The French department of Central High school will give a concert May 7 in the school auditorium to raise money to complete the purchase of a victrola and records for the French department. The program has been arranged by Miss Mary Alice Landis and will include vocal solos by Miss Phyllis Tebbens; piano solos by Miss Edna Taylor; and dances by Miss Mildred Jack. French victrola records will supplement the program. The entertainment is one of a series being given by the department.

Dinner Abandoned.

The informal dinner party planned in honor of De Wolf Hopper by Mr. and Mrs. Louis Nash Wednesday evening had to be abandoned, as Mr. Hopper found it impossible to keep any social engagements, his stay in the city was so short.

Tea for Visitor.

Mrs. S. L. Cooper entertained at an afternoon tea at the Blackstone today in honor of Mrs. S. S. Askew of Wray, Colo., who is the guest of Mrs. Porter Askew.

Personals

Mr. John Kuhn leaves this evening for Excelsior Springs to be gone for three weeks.

Mrs. S. S. Askew of Wray, Colo., who has been the guest of Mrs. Porter Askew for the last two weeks leaves for her home tomorrow.

Jesse Lowe, jr., George Christie Lowe and Allie Pratt Lowe returned east on Sunday. Jesse Lowe, jr., going back to their home in Beardstown, Ill.; George Lowe to Van Rensselaer Polytechnic school, Troy, N. Y.; and Allie Pratt returning to Northwestern university, at Evanston, Ill. Mrs. Jesse Lowe and youngest daughter, Sarah Elizabeth Lowe, will remain in Omaha at the home of Miss Fannie Pratt, Mrs. Lowe's sister, until the colleges close in June.

Mr. Fritz Bucholz, who has been employed at Hog Island for several months, has enlisted in the navy and expects his orders very soon.

Mrs. John S. Brady, who underwent an operation at the Wise Memorial hospital Saturday, was moved to her home Tuesday.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Hal Brady are now at Atlanta, Ga., where Lieutenant Brady is in charge of the army warehouse in that city. Lieutenant and Mrs. Brady were in the city for a few days last week, owing to the illness of Mrs. John Brady.

Women Replacing Men

In Crossett, Ark., a lumber town, women have taken men's places in the lumber camps, wearing overalls while at work.

The government can conscript the slacker, but can only appeal to the patriotism of the person who wastes food. Their voluntary effort is the only thing asked of the women of America.

Have Several Vests

By GERTRUDE BERESFORD.

WHITE broadcloth with a vest of lemon sports silk of rough weave develops this charming suit. Two narrow belts of white cloth hold the vest at the waist line and end in two gold buckles. Blue gabardine would make this suit particularly adapted to spring wear with several adjustable vests. One of white cloth, another of pique and a third of natural pongee would make a delightful variety in a spring costume.

Liberty Bond Prize Contest

School children all over Nebraska are vying with each other to give the best 50-word reasons why one should invest in third Liberty loan bonds. The contest, for which $100 in prizes is offered by T. C. Byrne, state chairman, closes May 1. Five additional prizes are offered by The Bee.

Here are a few of the best reasons:

Helping Uncle Sam.

By Barbara Rouse, Aged 13 Years, 4214 South Twenty-second Street, Omaha, South Lincoln School, Eighth A.

Once more Uncle Sam calls to us, both rich and poor, to put our hands in our pockets and help raise the third Liberty loan. We cannot all go to war, but we can deny ourselves enough to buy Liberty bonds. Come, buy bonds.

Do Not Let Kaiser Rule.

By Ann Pershall, Aged 11 Years, Sixth B, Windsor School, Omaha, Miss West, Teacher.

Awake, patriots, from delusive dreams of peace. Keep the Germans from our shores! Do not let the Kaiser and autocracy rule our nation of liberty! Buy bonds willingly! Remember, in all these years of peace, Uncle Sam has given you all you possess. Now fill his pocket.

Today's Watchword.

By Elvera Turnquist, Aged 13 Years, Eighth B, Walnut Hill, Miss Gross, Teacher; 1415 North Fortieth Street, Omaha.

Today's watchword, "Buy a Bond." We must back our boys and the allies up in this fight for democracy. Surely democracy must overcome autocracy. "So come across or go across."

"Our fathers welded well The sword of Bunker Hill. 'Tis up to us to get The sword of 'Junker' Bill."

Reasons Why You Should Buy a Liberty Bond.

By Loran Graham, Aged 15 Years, North Bend High School, North Bend, Neb. Seventh Grade, Teacher, Miss Sovereign.

Don't let the Huns do to the rest of the world like they did to Belgium. Don't be a slacker. Don't be like the Hun. Give the Hun the heavy load that he has to carry with your money till you have nothing left but Liberty bonds.

Strive and Win.

By Marian Graham, Aged 14 Years, Sargent, Neb., Lone Cedar School, Miss Sophia Perrin, Teacher.

Must we, citizens of America, sit here with our hands folded and let the Sammies be sacrificing their lives for us? Not then show Uncle Sam we can help buy Liberty bonds. Show him we are striving and going to win.

Liberty Bonds.

By Viola C. Davis, Monroe, Neb., Fifth Grade, O'Kay School District, 22, Aged 19 Years, Miss Ina Mahood, Teacher.

Everyone who loves Old Glory should buy Liberty bonds to finance the war. Let's put our shoulders to the wheel and show the Best of Berlin that the people who live in the "land of the free and the home of the brave" are loyal to their flag.

Make Dollars Fight.

By Marjorie Corey, Aged 11 Years, Sixth B, Windsor School, Omaha, Neb., Miss West, Teacher.

Many Americans think that by saluting the flag, cheering our Sammies and hating the Kaiser they are doing patriotic duty. But that's not all. We must make our dollars fight. Put a Liberty bond behind every dollar and our brave Sammies will do the rest.

Do Our Share.

By Louis A. Walden, Aged 11 Years, Junior Four-Minute Saver, at Jefferson School, Sixth Grade, North Platte, Neb., Miss Sylvia Watts, Teacher.

We cannot all shoulder guns to retain the liberty our forefathers died for. But we can do our share by buying Liberty bonds to finance our government. This is easy compared to what our noble Sammies are giving. So buy bonds and our brave Sammies will do the rest.

We Must Conquer.

By Florence Seward, Aged 12 Years, Omaha, Neb., Lake School, Sixth B, Miss Compton, Teacher.

We are in the greatest war in our history and we must win at all cost! Germany is trying to make all the nations of the world slaves, but we must not submit. Help conquer the most treacherous nation in the world. Buy Liberty bonds.

Do Your Bit.

By Richard Scholts, 4210 Nicholas Street, Omaha, Neb., Aged 14 Years, Central High School.

Wipe out this curse of un-speakable horrors—Germany! This nation which has lost all some of right or wrong, and is further from God than any other nation, heathen tribe ever was. Help the righteous cause. By United States Liberty bonds.

Good As a Bomb.

By Willard Rodgers, Aged 13, Windsor School, Eighth A, Omaha, Neb., Miss West, Teacher.

If you were in Germany and had a bomb, would you hesitate to use it to kill the Kaiser? Of course not! Each Liberty bond you buy is as good as a bomb and in the end will effect the same way. If you can't go across, come across.

Back Boys in Khaki.

By Nioma Rynn, Aged 14, Ninth Grade, Scotia, Neb., Miss Fredrick, Teacher.

Our country is again calling for money. You have another chance to help in the great struggle for Liberty. Buy a 100 cent American, show it. Buy a third Liberty loan bond. Back our boys in khaki. They are doing what they can; do what you can.

Help Lick Kaiser.

By Pearl Griffin, Aged 15, North Bond, Neb. Miss Sovereign, Teacher.

Buy a Liberty bond. It will help Uncle Sam and help lick the Kaiser. Uncle Sam would like to see a Liberty bond in every home. Soldiers need food, clothing and ammunition. You can help buy it for them if you will only do it. Don't be a slacker.

No Bullets.

By Wallace Graham, Aged 13, Sixth Grade, High School, North Bond, Neb., Miss Sovereign, Teacher.

Don't let the boys in France run out of ammunition. Buy a Liberty bond. The people would not lend the government enough money to buy any. The enemy was coming; the men first Liberty. Buy the Liberty bond. The commander of the other army said: "If the fire another volley, retreat." So the enemy won!

To Save Allies.

By Shirley McConnell, Aged 11, Sixth Grade, Pender, Neb. Miss Smith, Teacher.

Buy a Liberty bond. It will help Uncle Sam and help lick the Kaiser. Uncle Sam would like to see a Liberty bond in every home. Soldiers need food, clothing and ammunition. You can help buy it for them if you will only do it. Don't be a slacker.

Why We Buy Liberty Bonds.

By Shirley Stokes, R. F. D. No. 2, Herman, Neb. Miss Carlson, Teacher.

I think we should buy Liberty bonds to help the soldiers and Red Cross nurses who have to go to France and fight the Kaiser. If nobody in the United States would buy bonds what kind of a war would this be? I don't think it would be a very good one, do you? Buy bonds.

Buy Liberty Bonds.

By Edith Peterson, Aged 12, District 29, Omaha, Neb. Miss Peterson, Teacher.

Wake up, ye peace-loving people! Buy your share of the third Liberty loan so that we may conquer the terrible beast of Berlin that has been eating up the world. Don't let Uncle Sam need them just as you and I may help to establish justice and peace forever.

The appointment of Miss Katherine Wallas as deputy chairman of the London County council marks the first occasion on which a woman has been elected to this position.

IF EATONIC FAILS YOU LOSE NOT A SINGLE PENNY

For I Personally Guarantee and Will Pay for a 50c Box If Eatonic Tablets Do Not Quickly Remove Every Trace of Indigestion, Heartburn and Sour Stomach.

—H. L. KRAMER.

STOMACH WEAKNESS

I, H. L. Kramer, am the man who gave Cascares to the world. I now make public announcement of my latest success. EATONIC Tablets, for the benefit of the millions who are suffering from indigestion, dyspepsia and stomach ills, unaware that a great modern remedy has been discovered to prevent them.

The knowledge of what EATONIC is doing will be good news to a great many people—probably ten out of every dozen—who suffer needlessly from stomach weakness in some form. By using EATONIC Tablets regularly after meals, they can now find easy escape from their troubles.

Druggists all over the country say that EATONIC is proving even a greater success than my first great remedy. Results in thousands of cases prove that dyspepsia, indigestion, heartburn, sour stomach, painful bloating, nausea, fullness after meals, belching of gas, etc., quickly disappear with the use of EATONIC Tablets after meals.

The peculiar virtue of EATONIC is its remarkable power to almost instantly neutralize the excess acids that cause gases to collect in the stomach and disorder the digestive processes. By thus removing the cause of stomach trouble, the painful, disagreeable effects naturally disappear.

My own confidence in EATONIC Tablets is without limit. I am so absolutely convinced of their marvelous power that I do not hesitate to urge a trial by every man or woman who experiences the distressing, painful and frequently dangerous effects of a bad stomach.

In fact, I regard it as my duty to utilize to the fullest degree my personal influence, as the responsible originator of EATONIC Tablets, to induce a wide-spread use of this modern stomach relief. To my mind, the big, important step is the trial test; for my experience proves that the very first box of EATONIC Tablets invariably convinces any one that indigestion, dyspepsia, heartburn, bloating, flatulence and sour, gassy stomach are no longer necessary, even after the heaviest meals.

Therefore, I make this guaranteed offer: Buy a large 50c box of EATONIC Tablets from any drug store. Take it according to the simple directions. If you are not fully convinced that EATONIC is, indeed, the marvelous digestive aid that thousands claim for it, just send me the empty carton—addressed, H. L. Kramer, 1018 S. Wabash Ave., Chicago, and I will at once send you the money you paid the druggist.

Could I give you stronger proof of my absolute faith in EATONIC Tablets? Can you in fairness to yourself, refuse the proof of the merits of EATONIC at my risk, and refuse to get rid of your stomach misery? If I could emphasize my words—make my advice stronger—I would do so, because I am intensely earnest when I tell you that EATONIC Tablets—and they alone—are the final and perfect solution of the "Great American Misery"—Bad Stomachs.

Don't doubt—don't question or quibble—BUT ACT! For your stomach's sake—for comfort, health and success in life—make a start with EATONIC Tablets today and begin to realize what a good stomach means to you.

Advice to the Lovelorn

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX.

Wants to Do Farm Work.

Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: Having read your very excellent advice to others, I feel that you could help me in my present dilemma.

I am desirous of going out on a farm and assisting some hard working farmer's wife and feel that I could do this very satisfactorily, as I have spent all my time since finishing school with my mother helping her with the work around the house and various other things.

Now, don't draw the impression that I want to go somewhere and be a household drudge, for I do not. I want to go where I will be treated as a sort of companion and at the same time assist with things around the home. Now the people are expected to work, work, and then work some more. I am perfectly willing to do this, but not in a stuffy office. What I want to do is to be somewhere where the people are not always judging you by the clothes you wear and where they believe in retiring before 12 and 1 o'clock at night.

Now, you may think it strange that I should be writing you this letter and making this request, but I truly want you to tell me where I could go in order to file for such work as I have written you I am willing to do.

Do not think that this is a passing fancy of mine, which will wear off in time, for it most certainly is not.

Of course I would not care to go anywhere without asking any questions. The place I go to must be respectable and clean and the people must not object to my going to a Protestant church once in a while.

Dear Miss Fairfax, kindly advise me as to whom I should turn for help in obtaining this place, as I truly want to be of some real service to some one in this world beside myself.

Trusting that you will not consign my letter to the waste basket without answering it, I am, very sincerely yours,
ELIZABETH MILLER.

If you will write to Miss Caroline Stricker at the Central High school she can give you the information you desire. I am sure that you would enjoy farm life, but it means hard work, early and late.

Sixteen.

Dear Miss Fairfax: I have been reading your advice to the lovelorn for a long time and now I come for advice. I am a girl of 16. I am in love with a boy of 18. I love him dearly. My folks permit me to go out with him, but he does not seem to care for me. How could I draw the boy's attention towards me? He only

Dear Miss Fairfax: I am 19 and engaged. A few days ago I received a letter from a friend of my fiance (a married man) saying that I should break off the engagement and the wish of my fiance and return the ring without asking any questions. Now, Miss Fairfax, do you advise me to return the ring or wait until my fiance calls at my home and offers an explanation? He has proven that he loves me, so I cannot make out what it all means. CYNTHIA.

I am heartily out of sympathy with your accepting any "commands" from this friend of your fiance. Either you or some member of your family ought to write a dignified little letter to the man you were planning to marry. Tell him that you feel he owes you an explanation of his conduct; that the letter from his friend puzzled you, and that as you are unaware of anything that has come between you, you cannot conceive why he could have let an outsider write you a letter that hurt you so. Tell him that you have not thought of trying to hold him against his will or of attempting to make him do anything he no longer desires to do. Ask him to either write to you or come and explain his sudden change of heart; tell him that since he wants to be free, he shall be free, but that you feel strongly (and know that after thinking it over he will agree) that it is only fair for you to know what has changed him so. You have "rights" in the matter.

Dance Together.

Miss Beatrice Fairfax, Omaha Bee, Dear Madam: A man and his wife formerly devoted very much to each other attends a public hall for the purpose of enjoying the music and looking on, agreeing with each other that they will not take part after entering the hall. She or he without consulting the other dances with another party, leaving the other, sitting, true to their agreement, hurting the other's feelings very much. Is this perfectly all right or should the one that danced have consulted or asked for permission to dance, and is it not correct for the offending party to make apology for so doing?

It would have been very discourteous for the gentleman to have left his wife sitting alone while he danced with someone else. But, instead of spending such an unpleasant evening, why didn't they dance together?

EVERY WOMAN EVERY MOTHER EVERY DAUGHTER NEEDS IRON AT TIMES

To help strengthen nerves and put color into her cheeks

There can be no beautiful healthy, rosy-cheeked women without iron. The trouble in the past has been that when a woman needed iron they used iron in many instances which often corroded the stomach and did more harm than good. I always insist that my patients take only organic iron—Nuxated Iron. This purer form of iron is easily assimilated, does not blacken nor injure the teeth nor upset the stomach. It will increase the strength and endurance of weak, nervous, irritable, careworn, haggard-looking women in ten days' time. Many instances I have used it in my own practice with most surprising results.—Ferdinand King, M.D.
