Gate City Has Edge on Rivals in Contest for Caddock-Stecher Match, Says Carl Marfisi.

INSIDE TRACK IN

RACE FOR MAT GO

Omaha has the inside track on the Earl Caddock-Joe Stecher wrestling match, which it is now reasonably certain will be held on July 4.

This is the somewhat startling an-nouncement made by Carl Marfisl. Gene Melady's right-hand man, and it comes right on top of several fabul-ous bids from other cities which seek to be the scene of the approaching mat classic.

There has been an undercurrent of feeling among Omaha wrestling fans for the last three or four months that the Caddock-Stecher match, if held, would not be seen in the gate city. The enormous gate receipts at the Caddock-Zbyszko match, coupled with the news that several cities intended to submit bids for the event, first led to the belief that the match would go elsewhere. Then when Waterloo, the system of th of these huge bids and says Omaha has the inside track on the match. Omaha Logical Spot.

"Omaha is the logical location for this match, no matter what your pre-judices may be," declared Marfisi yes-terday. "Omaha is located right be-tween the stamping grounds of the ri-val wrestlers. Railroads run into Omaha from every direction. Trains bring visitors from a thousand its in the interested territory on e day of the match.

New York can't do that. Des Joines is 150 miles away from Ne-raska, where the Stecher followers old forth. Des Moines has only two illroads, and train service is so lim-ted that only from a very few points an existence of the city on the visitors get into the city on the e day of the match. This also apblies to the other Iowa towns which want the match. Omaha has every idvantage in location over the other tries which want the match and don't breat Gene Melady is an Omaha man ind he wants the match in Omaha."

One Thing Threatens.

Only one thing threatens to take the match away from Omaha. This is lack of a place to hold the match. The auditorium is out of the ques-
