

WOMAN'S SECTION OF THE BEE

Liberty Bond Prize Contest

Only two more days until the close of The Bee's Liberty loan contest for the best fifty-word paragraphs written by school children, explaining why third Liberty loan bonds are a good investment.

Nine prizes—four of them, $50, $25, $15 and $10, offered by T. C. Byrne, state chairman of the Liberty loan committee, and five additional prizes offered by The Bee—will be awarded.

Following are some Nebraska school children's contributions:

Good Investment.

By Everett Thompson, age 14 years, Primrose, Neb.

We should purchase third Liberty bonds, first to help win the war. We cannot hope to win without money to supply the needs.

It takes money to feed so many soldiers and buy equipments. While we are fighting the kaiser with our money, we make a good investment for ourselves.

Not For Personal Gain

By Karl Schmitt, Jr., age 12 years.

Why we should buy Liberty bonds. Every truly patriotic American citizen should own a Liberty bond. Not for personal benefit, but to help our country, our government, and allies as well.

This is a serious proposition we are facing; we must do our best, especially now, to free the world of autocracy and make it a democratic place for all.

Everywhere we go we find a patriotic spirit and hear the talk of Liberty bonds, War Saving Stamps and Red Cross work. I do hope to own a third Liberty bond soon.

Uncle Sam Needs Money.

By James Fowles, Aged 15 Years, Jungmann School, Seventh A; Miss Hickey, Teacher.

We should all buy Liberty bonds because Uncle Sam needs our money to win the war. This is the third time he has asked us to buy Liberty bonds which we bought last Tuesday. We should be very glad to know that we are patriotic and that we are standing behind him. All of us can't go across the water to help fight the kaiser, but we can help by buying Liberty bonds.

We Must Buy Bonds.

By Caroline Hrbek, Aged 14 Years, Jungmann School, Sixth B; Miss Hickey, Teacher.

If you're an American wake up and see Germany's barbaric work. Help stop it by buying a third Liberty bond. Here you save Old Glory's life; our Sammies' lives, sailors' lives, and our own lives. Buy a bond and save us from being the Kaiser's slaves.

Third Liberty Loan.

By Rose Voitach, Aged 14 Years, Jungmann School, Seventh B; Miss Hickey, Teacher.

The bell is ringing once more for a third Liberty loan. Some people say, "Oh, I have done my bit. I've bought the first and second Liberty bonds." But don't let us think that we are patriotic and that we are standing behind him. All of us can't go across the water to help fight the kaiser, but we can help by buying Liberty bonds.

Help Our Boys.

By Frances Kubat, Aged 12 Years, Jungmann School, Sixth B; Miss Hickey, Teacher.

Every one should buy a Liberty bond to help our boys "over there" who are fighting for humanity, democracy and liberty. Buy a Liberty bond; help to pull down the kaiser's banner of lies. Be a true patriot to your country and help Uncle Sam.

Just Loan It.

By Louise Korisko, Aged 12 Years, Jungmann School, Seventh A; Miss Hickey, Teacher.

Americans, wake up! You know we are now engaged in a great world war. If you want our country to win, buy bonds of the third Liberty loan of $100. Don't be stingy, buy liberally. Buy a bond and help your government. You don't have to give it, just loan it. So please buy a bond right away.

Helps Democracy.

By Olga Riba, Aged 11 Years, Jungmann School, Seventh A; Miss Hickey, Teacher.

Good success to the third Liberty loan! Help do its part and be successful. What does the third Liberty loan mean? You know how the money helps the nation. It also helps the soldiers in the cause for democracy. May it play its part in winning the war.

Keep Old Glory.

By Genevieve Struthers, Aged 12 Years, Seventh Grade, Craig, Neb.; Miss Harriet Lockheed, Teacher.

The Pilgrims came to America for liberty. They had to fight a long hard war with England for eight years. Now freedom they have given to us. And now if we wish to preserve this freedom and keep Old Glory floating above us, we must buy Liberty bonds.

Saves Sammies.

By Augusta Steppan, Aged 12 Years, 411 South Twenty-third Street, Omaha.

Miss Agnes Walsh, Teacher.

Help save our Sammies that are endangering their lives on the fighting lines for your country and ours. Help your country, if you can't, however, help right yourself here to give the dainties and pleasures that are habits and are unnecessary. Buy a bond.

Will Promote Children's Horse Show for the Red Star Benefit

GERTRUDE KOUNTZE.

Omaha attracted so much attention by its work for the Red Star animal relief and by its big Liberty parade that the National Red Star Magazine is issuing a regular Omaha edition.

The above picture of Miss Gertrude Kountze, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Kountze, mounted on her pony, formed the Red Star feature of the parade. The official Red Star poster, picturing Uncle Sam with his arm about old Dobbins, was placed on the side of the white blanket, and red stars ornamented the corners.

Little Miss Kountze is planning a children's Horse show, to be given in the near future, the proceeds to go, of course, to the Red Star.

Women Write New Words to Tune Of "Marching Through Georgia"

Three women are among those who responded to the call of a Fort Omaha soldier, issued through The Bee, for new patriotic verses to be sung to the tune of "Marching Through Georgia."

Mrs. W. G. Smith of Doniphan, Neb., wrote the following:

Marching to Germany.

"The bell is ringing once more for a third Liberty loan. Some people say, 'Oh, I have done my bit. I've bought the first and second Liberty bonds.' But don't let us think that we are patriotic and that we are standing behind him. All of us can't go across the water to help fight the kaiser, but we can help by buying Liberty bonds."

CHORUS.

Hurrah! Hurrah! We're marching to Berlin. Hurrah! Hurrah! We'll fight until we win. Our soldier boys are ready now to fight on land and sea.

To help save the world for de-mocracy.
