Red Cross Notes

Miss Mae Engler returned Friday from a few days' visit with friends in Lincoln.

Miss Luella Peterson, who underwent an operation at the Birchmont hospital Saturday morning, is resting comfortably.

The state office announces the total membership of the American Red Cross in this state on April 1 as 501,939, which is 42.1 per cent of the population, in accordance with the last (1910) census. This indicates the largest per capita membership of any state in the Union.

The above information has been telegraphed to Central division headquarters at Chicago and the national headquarters at Washington.

State Director Judson announces a conference of the Red Cross second war fund campaign, county chairmen, to be held in this city Monday, May 6. There will be about 100 present. Messrs. Bernard Sunny, director second war fund drive; Bruce D. Smith, general manager, central division, and Lewis N. Wiggins, director bureau of development, all of Chicago, will be present. John Wallace of Des Moines, Ia., will also be present, and Top-Sergeant Baldwin.

A noon meeting will be held at the Chamber of Commerce, after which the general conference will be held.

If you are a really patriotic knitter you will choose the gray yarn when you make your next sweater, instead of khaki or natural colored material, because, while it is now at all so pleasant to work on, the sweaters made from it are warmer and the natural colored yarn makes the best hose.

All knitting is now done through the 93 auxiliaries. The work is done at home, but the yarn is issued through the chairman, done in individual packages enough for each sweater.

All the yarn in the need before hot weather! is the motto of the knitting chairman. If all the yarn is issued now, the work on sweaters will be mostly out of the way before summer's heat makes work on it more difficult.

Because of the congestion in the Red Cross public workshop Thursday evenings girls of the Kountze Memorial church evening class, who made up the largest contingent, have decided to meet in the church building the same evening between the hours of 7 and 8:30 o'clock to do their work. This will enable the public shop to accommodate more women.

Mrs. E. A. Van Fleet is chairman of the auxiliary. Work in the new locations begins this week.

A new scale has been installed at knitting headquarters in the court house. The little instrument registers from one-fourth of an ounce to eight pounds.

There is now but one course for surgical dressings. All who instruct in this work are called supervisors. The instructors' cards and arm bands no longer have any significance.

L. W. Trester, director of Junior Red Cross work, has returned from an extended trip through the western part of the state.

Some confusion has followed the mailing of notification cards to those whose membership has not yet expired because they bought additional memberships during the Christmas drive. The clerical error may be corrected if a card is mailed to Gould Dietz, director of the Omaha chapter, stating the date of membership expiration.

Plans are being formulated by Garfield circle No. 2 for the Memorial day ceremony of decorating the water in honor of the men who have died in the United States navy service. Members of the navy recruiting station will assist in the service. Arrangements will be discussed at the meeting Friday at 8 p. m. in Memorial hall.

The Garfield Red Cross circle will meet at the Young Men's Christian association. It will be part of the French section.

To Show French War Pictures. "The Battle Fields of France," in a series of pictures taken by the French government, will be shown by M. Fandoz, special commissioner, under the auspices of the Alliance Francaise, in the Fontenelle May 9 at 8 p. m.

At a luncheon at the Fontenelle Saturday members of the committee on arrangements discussed plans for the event. Those present were:

Mesdames— Mesdames—
A. M. Borglum, Arthur Crittenden,
Henry Deery, Smith,
Edgar Booth, George McIntyre,
George Voss, C. N. Dietz,
E. A. Morahan, Jr.
Misses—
Gertrude Young, May Mahoney.

Off for Summer in California

Mrs. Bozena Grotte and small daughter, Alice, are planning to spend the summer in California. They will leave the first of the week for Los Angeles, where they will take a cozy apartment that they may spend the hot months near the cool ocean breezes.

Gabby Flits About Gathering Chatty Bits for Her Following

By GABBY DETAYLS.

GABBY almost believed she had discovered the meanest girl in Omaha the other day, but she repented of her decision in just a minute.

Over in the corner drug store, where all the world of Seventeenth and Farnam eats ice cream, Gabby met two of the prettiest Red Crossers in Omaha, Miss Martha Gyger and Miss Julie Koehler.

"She has $10,000 in her purse which she is taking to the bank," Miss Gyger confided in a whisper.

"I didn't know there was so much money in the world," exclaimed Gabby in envy. "Won't you buy the drinks, Miss Koehler."

"Nay, nay," responded pretty Julie. "Tis the Red Cross funds!"

LITTLE Gertrude Kountze is growing up. Her mother, Mrs. Luther Kountze, realized it with a rather sudden start at their recent stay in Excelsior Springs.

Gertrude was watching the children at the matinee dance at the hotel. She's such an active little person that she seldom takes time to do much in the small dancers wore silk stockings. Gertrude had never had any.

"Don't you think, mother, that it would be nice for me to have silk stockings with my pumps?" she said, and glancing at her mother's trim ankles. "Couldn't you lend me a pair of yours?"

"Of course, Gertrude got the silk ones. They fit without a wrinkle, and although mother sighed, as mothers do when their little sons go into long trousers, her friends agree that she has been very successful to keep her young daughter "a little girl" as long as she has.

SHADES of our forefathers and the one horse shay! In this progressive age the young Lochinvars dash up to the door of their lady love's home in all kinds of gasoline chariots.

A pretty little pink-cheeked lassie who attends Central High school is "dated up" for weeks ahead for she never lacks cavaliers. Much to the consternation of her family the boys insist on calling in the afternoons as there do not seem to be enough evenings in the week.

The other day two of the young chaps raced up to her door on motor-cycles just as number three veered around the corner in an automobile. It doesn't seem to be a case of the best man winning, but the speediest in this case.

IN these days of thrills and starting war news we are becoming so blasé that the things that would have once jarred our equilibrium move us not at all.

Mr. and Mrs. Waite Squier parked their electric in front of the Boyd theater the evening of the Maude Powell concert, and in some unknown way the car caught on fire. The manager asked from the stage that the owner of the electric please step outside, and in a moment or two Mr. Squier left his seat and went out. A friend who was sitting behind Mrs. Squier leaned over and asked: "Did you know that your car is on fire?"

Mrs. Squier just settled back comfortably and replied: "Thank goodness, it's insured."

GOULD DIETZ evidently holds just as important a position in the present save-the-world-from-autocracy system to some people as does General Jack Pershing or Secretary Baker, or someone else high in military affairs, judging from some of his telephone calls.

Recently a greatly excited soprano voice floated over the wire to the Dietz home. Mrs. Dietz heard this: "I can't find Mr. Dietz; I've phoned his office and the Red Cross and the Masonic temple and I don't know what to do. It's very important. When will he be home?"

Mrs. Dietz said she didn't know and asked if she couldn't take the message or in some way help in this terrible emergency. The excited one replied: "Why, don't you know the kaiser won't stop until he gets to the Missouri river? I tell you it's awful, and Mr. Dietz's got to get busy and stop him!"

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Rogers left Wednesday for Boston to see their son, Samuel E., 2nd, who is with the 301st field artillery at Camp Devens, Mass., and is preparing to enter the fourth officers' training camp next month.

Dr. Lee W. Edwards, 24th and Farnam, wishes to call the public's attention to the Chiropractic talk on Page 3-B.

The Vacuum Pipeless Furnace

Is a Solution to the Heating Problem in Many Homes. And Better Yet the Vacuum SAVED FUEL.

We can install the Vacuum Pipeless Furnaces in either new or old houses, without cutting the walls or weakening the construction.

Now is the time to see about it. Only one large radiator required for both hot and cold air; no pipes.

All heat goes to the rooms; no heat wasted in basement or between the walls, as in the case of a pipe furnace.

The Vacuum burns any kind of coal, coke or wood. The first cost is much less than a pipe system.

Send us a rough plan of your house, or, better yet, let one of our men come and see your problem, then we can tell you if it can be heated satisfactorily by the Vacuum principle.

Capital Society Lets Down Bars Twixt Rank of Army Officers

Washington Bureau of The Omaha Bee, 1811 G Street.

WASHINGTON society just now is a curious mixture of the professional and the amateur, the rich and the poor, the foreign nobility and the peasantry, and commissioned and noncommissioned officers. But not the brilliant and the stupid, as there is no profitable place in the great work of today for the stupids. All this is due to the war. Never before has it been possible for commissioned and noncommissioned officers to hobnob together, to be equal guests at the same table. But the lines are all down now and all old rules are broken. Only last Sunday one of Washington's most distinguished hostesses, a woman of great wealth, with one of the handsomest homes in the Sheridan Circle district, had a little luncheon at the Chevy Chase club, and one of the guests was a good-looking sergeant of the U. S. A. On the return of the hostess from the club she brought in a few of the guests in her machine, including the sergeant, and stopped to make a call upon another distinguished hostess in another beautiful home. As they were leaving the last named place they met the Sunday afternoon beau of the cook as he rounded the walk from the servants' entrance. The beau was a first lieutenant of the U. S. A., and—Oh, cruel fate!—the sergeant, calling upon the mistress, was obliged to step aside for and salute the lieutenant, who was escorting the cook out for a walk!

Women's War Work.

Mrs. Saltzman, wife of Brigadier General Charles McK. Saltzman, who was stationed one summer in Omaha, is quite the busiest of the army women in the war work. She is the head of the signal corps branch of the army emergency committee. In fact, it was she who organized the branch. General Saltzman is assistant chief signal officer. The chief is Major General George O. Squier.

Mrs. Ben Wood, who has hosts of friends in Omaha, spent a week at the Shoreham, running down from Englewood, N. J., where she has been with her son-in-law and daughter, Captain and Mrs. W. H. H. Cramer, of Denver. The former is in the training camp near Englewood. She has been very much entertained among her Washington and old Omaha friends. Mrs. Pratt, wife of General P. B. Pratt, U. S. A., retired, had a small tea for her early in the week, with a number of well known Omaha women among the guests. Some of them were Mrs. Russell Harrison, Mrs. Fort and Mrs. Green. General and Mrs. Pratt have a lovely apartment at 1869 Wyoming avenue. Mrs. John G. Bourke of Omaha, who has an apartment at the Dresden, is making a short visit in Omaha.

Chief Justice Morrisey of the state of Nebraska is in Washington for the week at the Willard. Ex-Senator Allen of Nebraska is also there. They were entertained at dinner on Wednesday evening by Representative and Mrs. Ashton C. Shallenberger of Alma, in Congress hall, where the Shallenbergers live.

Mrs. E. Richard De Young, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Booth, has returned to her home in Denver

TODAY'S BEAUTY TALK

You can enjoy a delightful shampoo with very little effort and for a very trifling cost, if you get from your druggist a package of Canthrox and dissolve a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water. This makes a full cup of shampoo liquid—enough so it is easy to apply it to all the hair instead of just the top of the head. Your shampoo is now ready. Just pour a little at a time on the scalp and hair until both are entirely covered by the daintily perfumed preparation that thoroughly dissolves and removes every bit of dandruff, excess oil and dirt. After rinsing, the hair dries quickly with a fluffiness that makes it seem heavier than it is, and takes on a rich luster and a softness that makes arranging it a pleasure.—Advertisement.

"WHEN YOUR KIDNEYS FEEL LIKE LUMPS OF LEAD"

CLEAN TEETH NEVER DECAY

Green's PHARMACY

J. HARVEY GREEN, Prop.
One Good Drug Store
16th and Howard, Douglas 846.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sores, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it is no longer irritating, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink.—Adv.

ARE WEAK NERVES AND LACK OF PHYSICAL STRENGTH HOLDING YOU BACK IN LIFE?

You Must Have Plenty of Iron in Your Blood if You Want the Power and Energy to Win, Says Physician.

When the crushing grip of worry, trials and care saps your vitality and keeps you from the full enjoyment of home, social and business life—take Nuxated Iron and watch it! It is strength-giving, up-building, effective—it will increase the strength and endurance of weak, nervous run-down folks in two weeks' time in many instances.

THOUSANDS are held back in life for want of sufficient iron in the blood," says Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly physician of Bellevue Hospital (Out-Door Dept.), New York, and the Westchester County Hospital, in commenting on the relation of strong nerves and physical endurance to the attainment of success.

"A weak body means a weakened brain; weak nerve force means weakened will power, and like the race horse beaten by a note, many a capable man or woman falls just short of winning because they don't back up their mentality with the physical strength and endurance to combat obstacles or withstand severe strains. Lack of sufficient iron in the blood is no strength-giving, that fit of despondency, that dizzy, fearful feeling—these are the sort of signals nature gives to tired, listless folks when the blood is clamoring for strength-giving iron—more iron to restore the health by enriching the blood and creating thousands of new red blood cells.

"In my opinion the greatest cause to the health and strength of American people today is the alarming deficiency of iron in their blood. Iron is absolutely essential to enable your blood to transform the food you eat into muscular tissue and energy. It is through iron in the red coloring matter of the blood that life-sustaining oxygen enters the body. Without iron there is no strength, vitality and endurance to combat obstacles or withstand severe strains. Lack of sufficient iron in the blood has ruined many a man's career and utterly robbed him of that virile force and stamina which are so necessary to success and power in every walk of life.

"Therefore, I strongly advise those who feel the need of a strength and blood builder to get a physician's prescription for organic iron—Nuxated Iron—or if you don't want to go to this trouble, then purchase only Nuxated Iron in its original packages and see that this particular name (Nuxated Iron) appears on the package. If you have taken other iron products and failed to get results, remember that such preparations are an entirely different thing from Nuxated Iron, which has been used and strongly endorsed by many physicians formerly connected with well-known Hospitals, the Hon. J. C. Shaw, former Presidential Cabinet Officer, former United States Senator William E. Mason and Charles A. Towne, former member of Congress, distinguished United States Army General (retired), Judge Atkinson of the United States Court of Claims, at Washington, and others.

In regard to the value of Nuxated Iron, Surgeon General of Chicago, William R. Kerr, said: "As Health Commissioner of the City of Chicago, I was impressed many times to recommend different medicines, mineral waters, etc. Never yet have I gone on record as favoring any particular remedy. But, in the case of Nuxated Iron, I feel an exception should be made to the rule. From my own experience with it, I feel that it is such a valuable remedy that it ought to be used in every hospital and prescribed by every physician in this country, and if my endorsement shall induce anemic, nervous, run-down men and women to take Nuxated Iron, and receive the wonderful tonic benefits which I have received, I shall feel greatly gratified that I made an exception to my life-long rule in recommending it."

Dr. Schuyler C. James, Visiting Surgeon of St. Elizabeth's Hospital, New York City, said: "I have never before given out any medicine which has proved so beneficial to every purchaser of it who will send your name to my address at the following address: Dr. Schuyler C. James, Visiting Surgeon of St. Elizabeth's Hospital, New York City, and all other good druggists.—Advertisement.
