

BRINGING UP FATHER

OMAHA WINDS UP STAY AT HOME BY BEATING SAINTS

Take Daniels' Men Into Camp, 10 to 3; Makes Seven Victories in Nine Games on Local Lot.

Bill Jackson's tribe wound up their very pleasant stay at home yesterday afternoon by licking the spots off the unsaintly Saints from St. Joseph, 10 to 3, in another windstorm battle. This time the wind caressed the cheeks of the Rourelets instead of the phoney Saints.

Harry Gaspar, celebrated as a photographer and occasionally as a pitcher of base ball, was the victim. Harry's trouble occurred in the fifth inning. Harry aged greatly in this stanza. It made him almost as old as Cliff Curtis, his sprightly comrade. Six runs made the Roureks.

It was a very wild, weird inning. It all started when Donica dropped a windblown single into center field. Hanford bunted. Gaspar tried to catch Donica at second. And oh, how he threw it. Result: Donica on third, Hanford on second.

Gaspar Errs Again. Defate's single scored Donica and Hanford galloped to third to come home on Holderman's sacrifice fly which Marr dropped. Defate, however, got caught at second. Then Callahan hit one to right, sending Holderman to third. He scored when Lingle beat out a bunt and Gaspar, after holding the pill a while, decided to throw it. It was a bum throw. Kopp singled to right and Callahan and Lingle scored when Bachant let Watson's throw get away from him. Kopp went to third on Bashang's hit and scored on Jackson's squeeze bunt.

Two in Second. Omaha scored two in the second on a walk to Defate, Holderman's sacrifice, Lingle's double and Kopp's single. An error by Bruebaker, Lingle's sacrifice and Kopp's double scored one in the fourth and in the eighth Bashang's triple and Jackson's long sacrifice fly counted one.

Kopp held St. Joseph safe at all times and was never in danger of losing the fray.

Lincoln Cleaners Sunday. The Brandeis Stores and Lincoln Cleaners and Dyers will be the attraction at Rourke park Sunday.

Notes of the Game. Omaha has played nine games at home and has won seven of them. Tolerably good, tolerably good.

ATHLETICS WIN FROM INDIANS; TIED IN NINTH

Muff Permits Cleveland to Even Up, But Clarence Walker Drives in Victory in Last Half.

Philadelphia, May 16.—After a muff that allowed Cleveland to tie the score in the ninth, Clarence Walker drove in the winning run in the latter half of the inning, and Philadelphia won, 6 to 5, after two hours and 23 minutes of wild base ball. Fourteen errors were marked up.

The Athletics obtained a three-run lead on a fumble by Wambsgans, three stolen bases and three wild throws by Catcher Peters. After his fourth wild throw, Peters was spiked by Shannon and had to retire. First Baseman Williams went behind the plate and Wood played first. Kopp and Geary of the Athletics, who left the team last night, changed their minds after a talk with Manager Mack today.

AT THE THEATERS Promises of the Press Agents. Orpheum—"Camouflage," Henri DeVries stirring narrative of a den of counterfeiters, the headline attraction at the Orpheum, together with the two big time feature acts, Foster Bell in his character study, "The Days of '61," and Will O'Connell in "The Corner Store," described as a hilarious rural comedy.

Empress—A husband's desire to serve his wife, the wife strenuously opposing his wish, is the story of the patriotic drama called "The Coward," in which Lillian Kingsbury, Ned Dano and company feature the play. The production is a gem of performers whose work makes the sketch stronger. Aside from its value as a most interesting play, it is a play which perfectly the question, "Is a man's first duty to his family or his country?"

In the Silent Drama. Strand—An Arctarctic picture with Elio Ferguson as the star will be shown at the theater today and balance of the week. The second feature will be "Charley Maligne from the 'Song of Songs,' a play which attracted wide attention when presented several months ago. The connection with the screening of "The Song of Songs" is the fact that Frank Losee, who now appears as chief support of Miss Ferguson, in the film "The Last of the Mohicans," played the character on the stage, but owing to sudden illness could not fulfill his engagement. Crawford Kent, who played with George M. Cohan in "Broadway Jones," again came with Mr. Kaufman's company in the new Arctarctic picture, Comedy and Strand Paths News also shown.

Hipp—Jewel Carmen in the William Fox play, "The Bride of Fear," will be offered patrons of this theater today and Saturday. It is a story that affords her a most varied acting she has taken full advantage of. A typical Fox cast is in her support and it is said that great attention was given to detail.

Muse—George Walsh, the Fox "Bibbitt" thunderbolt, will be at the Muse today and Saturday in "Brave and Bold." Would you like to have your breath almost taken away from you? Then you care to forest your daily worries and your business? Then don't think of missing this one. Also the sixth episode of "The Last of the Mohicans."

Hamilton—Followers of motion pictures should not miss the attraction with the announcement that Jack Pickford will be the attraction at this theater today in "Tom and Huck," a picture that affords her a most varied acting she has taken full advantage of. A typical Fox cast is in her support and it is said that great attention was given to detail.

Lothrop—William Farnum in a William Fox play, "The Man See Red," will form the attraction at this theater today and Saturday. It is a story of the sea, and of how a sailor follows his sister's betrayal around the earth that he might wreak his vengeance on him. A splendid cast is in his support, which includes, among others, Jewel Carmen.

Suburban—William S. Hart will bowl forth here today in a Triangle production, "The Patriot." Hart descends from the American forces and the Emperor's army arranged with the Mexicans for a massacre, when through the love of a little boy, he changed his mind, becomes a boy's American hero and saves the day in a spectacular manner. Saturday will be Margarita Fisher in "The Primitive Woman."

Brandeis—Former Ambassador James W. Gerard's "My Four Years in Germany" continues to thrill appreciative audiences at the Brandeis theater. The photoplay loses no opportunity to impress the spectator with the supposition that the Sarajewo incident was accidental, but coolly and carefully planned by the German emperor and his advisers. Two of the most important scenes of the picture are Mr. Gerard's visit to the prisoners' camp at Wittenberg and that in which he is given his passport. Mr. Gerard's refusal to sign on the dotted line, and his statement that before going he would stay in Germany until he had secured "supplies one of the most exciting incidents."

Empress—A worthy addition to the photoplay program in the Empress theater for the last half of the week is "Our Fighting Ally—The Tank," an official government picture, showing the British tank in Camp Dix, N. J., giving a complete demonstration of the uses to which these engines of war are put at the western front.
