All Four Games Are Won by Margin of One, Cleveland Obtaining Its Runs at Start.

Philadelphia, May 18.—Cleveland squared the series by defeating Philadelphia today, 3 to 2, all four games having been decided by the margin of one run. Cleveland secured all its runs at the start and the Athletics fought an uphill battle which fell just short of tying the score. They had the bases filled in the seventh, in which inning Bagby replaced Morton and held the locals hitless except for a single by Pinch Hitter Oldring in the ninth. Score:

ONLY TWO OMAHA MARKSMEN PLACE IN .9000 CLASS

Henry McDonald and George Redick Make Charmed Circle: Hoagland Crack Leads the State.

Henry S. McDonald and George Redick were the only two Omaha marksmen to cut any swath in the field of trap shooting during the 1917 season, according to the annual review and official averages of conestants in registered tournaments just issued by the Interstate Trapshooting association.

McDonald and Redick were the only 90 per cent shooters Omaha boasted. McDonald's average was .9322 and Redick's .9188. With the exception of J. T. Hollingsworth, McDonald and Redick were the only Gate Donald and Redick were the only Gate city scattergun experts to shoot at more than 1,000 targets at registered tournaments during the season. Mc-Donald was the busiest of the two with a record of 2,200 and Redick's mark was 1,750.

Tappan Leage State.

C. C. Tappan of Hoagland was the high average shot of the state for the year. He marked up an average of .9511 in shooting at 1,475 targets. One or two others beat him, but they shot at only 100 or 200 targets in regis-tered shoots, so cannot be classed as

C. L. Waggoner of Diller did some fancy shooting, making an average of .9482 in shooting at 2,550 targets and Ed Varner of Adams was right behind with an average of .9423, shooting at 2,150 targets.
