PHILADELPHIA

Chicago, May 19.—Chicago won the odd game of the series from Philadelphia today when they shut out the visitors, 3 to 0, in the final game of the series. The game was a pitching duel between Tyler and Hogg, with the former having the shade because of the ability of the locals to make their hits count. When the easteners threatened to score on three occassions, fast double plays frustrated their chances. Score:

By FRANK QUIGLEY.

Climatic conditions in every thing were nearly as good as if tailor made yesterday and the fans paid their respects to amateur manipulators of the pill by turning out in circus crowds at the various parks. As customary the largest crowd was at Riverview park. Approximately 4,000 adorned the bleachers and side lines. The next largest crowd was at Thirtysecond and Dewey avenue. At the pay-as-you-enter enclosed parks where the stars of this burg dish up their wares, the attendance fell below the expectations of the directors.

Carl Stengel, who is pastiming with the Brandeis troupe, is not the only Omaha player who wears spectacles while playing base ball. Carl was the sole proprietor of said distinction for many moons, but now he has com-

In the American league the Sample-Harts and Florence Merchants are still knotted for the roof. Next Sunday one of them is due to slip, because they bump each other. The McCaffrey Motor gang had their row with the Sample-Harts sewed up until the final chapter, when the Harts served the real stuff instead of samples. Four runs and the game were nailed in the ninth, inning. The final count being 8 to 7. James Mirasky of the Sample-Harts bagged one for the circuit, with one of his partners-loafing at corner two. Four teams are tied for position two in this league. The Florence Merchants and Trimble Bros, were trotting along even until the last round when the Merchants got busy and hauled in six runs. Three baggers by Nufer and Lane

1.000 helped some. That brawl between the Dresher Bros. and Daily News, which gave the crown of the Inter-City league temporarily to the News crowd was protested by the clothiers. The umpire's roof was a trifle cloudy relative to what decision to make when a batsman strikes at a ball that hits him, as a consequence he called a Dresher gent out on the second strike. The directors ordered the game to be replayed, so these two teams will fight again for the sky position. Yesterday the Daily News band stayed at the top after a tight squeeze with the Krajicek Jrs., the final count being 5 to 3. Edward Trummer of the McCaffrey Motor Co. bounced on one for a trip around the paths. Conlan of the Ramblers was about as active as Douglas Fairbanks. He collected two home runs.
