ANDREWS OUT FOR CONGRESS IN FIFTH DISTRICT

Former Auditor for National Treasury Announces His Candidacy and Gives Statement of Principles.

Hastings, Neb., May 20.-W. E. Andrews, former auditor for the United States treasury, today announced his candidacy for the republican nomination for congress for the Fifth district. In his statement to the voters of the district, he says in

"In all our discussions during the campaign, we should assert and reassert our firm determination to win the war, in which we are now en-

Win the war! Win the war!! Win the war!!! "Previous republican preparedness along certain lines has made it possible to win this war. When Abraham Lincoln and the republican party, through the valor of the "boys in carried the republican principals of 'national sovereignty and unity to victory in the sixties, they prepared the way for the mobilization of more than one hundred millions of people with almost countless billions of wealth, behind the nation

"In 1896, the republican party declared for the continuance of the existing gold standard.' That declaration was carried to victory who advocated the doctrine of 'free coinage,' or '16 to 1' with bitter hostility to the gold standard.

'If the theory of '16 to 1' had prevailed, the nation would have been forced irresistibly to a silver basis like Mexico, thus making it impossible to finance the present war at fifty cents on the dollar. In this connection note the wording of your liberty bonds, 'payable in gold.' Nonpartisan Basis.

"The war should be conducted on a strictly nonpartisan basis. Our con-stitutional commander-in-chief, without regard to party politics, should have constantly at command all necessary authority, power and resources to prosecute the war with the high-est pssible degree of efficiency and I pledge myself to support this should be promptly ratified at the research special session of our legislature. It should have been ratified at the recent special session.

Internal Questions, Profiteering. Profiteering should be rigidly prohibited. When limitations are placed upon the prices of food products, cor-

"When congress declared war against Germany, it became the imperative duty of every American citizen to support that declaration with unwavering loyalty. Every man's loyalty should be determined by his down individual words and deeds and not by his blood, ancestry or nationality. Our loyalty to our country and a cause should, and surely will compt us to make a surely will be had the says this clients and constitution on a tender, ache con stops of the corn stops soreness at one and so the corn stops soren ality. Our loyalty to our country and its cause should, and surely will, prompt us to make every possible provision for the safety, health, comfort and equipment of our boys in the army and navy at home and abroad Peace Through Victory. "We seek an honorable peace through the victories of our army and navy whereby representative government, 'a government of the people, by the people and for the people,' shall be triumphant over ionarchy, tyranny and cruelty. After the War.

"After the war grave problems will demand solution in the wise adjustment of our national and international affairs. We should begin to solve them now by the election of a ican congress.

"We will have an enormous public debt to pay. Since the civil war the democratic party has increased the interest, bearing debt to meet ordinary expenses in times of peace as well as in times of war, but the republican party reduced the interest bearing debt of the civil war from $2,232,000,000 in 1865 to $585,000,000 in 1892 and to $400,000,000 approximately in 1912, and the annual intermately in 1912, and the annual interest charge from $146,000,000 in 1865 to $23,000,000 in 1892.

"After the war millions of men will return to the pursuits of peace and become producers instead of consumers and destroyers. In Europe especially they will be compelled to work at any price in order to live. The products of their labor must sell at me price somewhere, probably here because over there they will have but little with which to buy. How can we defend our markets and laboring ople against misfortune? A republican tariff will give ample protection, but democratic free trade would open floodgates of utter ruin. Re-the period of the "dark ages," 893-7, and remember that a democratic tariff had blought the nation to the verge of industrial paralysis at the opening of the present European Arbitration.

'Let us renew our urgency for an sternational court of arbitration as n agency for the settlement of in-trinational differences without ap-eals to violence and war. We emloy the principles of reason and justice through our state and federal ours in the adjudication of differences between citizens of our county. Why not apply the service of y. Why not apply the same prin-ples through an international court arbitration in the settlement of ifferences between nations, and thus void the horrors of war?"

Governor to Auction Off Wool From Sheep on White House Grounds

(From a Staff Correspondent.) Lincoln, Neb., May 20.—(Special.) -Governor Neville with all his many accomplishments will add to them that of auctioneer. During the week he will auction off iwo pounds of wool from President Wilson's flock of capitol grounds sheep. Notice of the auction is given in the following announcement from the executive offices:

"The president and Mrs. Wilson have presented to the American Red Cross, the shearing from the White House sheep, with the request that this wool be auctioned in each state during Red Cross week for the benefit of the campaign fund.

"I have been requested, as governor, to receive bids, both mail and telegraphic, from the entire state during the present week. Nebraska's share of the White House wool is approximately two pounds. The names of bidders and the amount of the bids received during the previous day will be published in the state papers each morning. The money so raised will be turned over to the Red Cross, and shall be known as the "President's War Fund." All bids should be addressed to the Governor, Lincoln, Neb."

Corps of Physicians and Nurses Leave Omaha for Scene of Disaster With Clothing and Supplies.

Norfolk, Neb., May 20.—(Special Telegram.)—Up to late this afternoon, the death toll of the terrific tornado that swept the farming section of northern Nebraska, as told exclusively in this morning's Omaha Bee, had mounted to 14 persons, and later reports are expected to swell this number.

Scores were injured, many of them seriously, and the damage to property and live stock cannt be estimated at this hour.

Telephone lines were blown down and details of the storm's disaster are filtering in slowly.

The greatest damage was in the vicinity of Bloomfield and Crofton, where rescue parties from Crofton and physicians, nurses, bedding, clothing and supplies from the Red ross in Omaha now on their way. Reports here indicate that farmers whose property was not destroyed, and repair homes not totally destroyed.

By Taking Tanlac. One of the distinguishing features of the introduction of Tanlac throughout the country is the large number of prominent men who have felt it their duty to disregard precedent and come forward with their unqualified endorsements of the medicine because of the benefits they have derived from its use.

The latest addition to the list of prominent endorsers is the name of Hon. Benjamin F. Whittington, judge of Rolston Court, South Omaha. In relating his experience with Tanlac Judge Whittington said:

Sleep failed to rest me and I felt tired, languid and worn out all the time. I was pale and not only felt badly but I looked that way. I had been in this condition for a year and was becoming worried because nothing seemed to reach my case. "I had fallen off twenty pounds in weight as a result of my troubles, but I have gained it all back by using Tanlac and have never felt better in my life. I decided from what I read in the papers about it to try it and I felt like a new man before I finished my first bottle. So I went right back for another and so on until I took five bottles and now I haven't an ache or a pain and am feeling great. And eat, my gracious! I eat like a farm hand, all I can get, I never saw anything like it. I sleep like a log and get up in the mornings thoroughly refreshed and feel brimful of vim and energy all day long. All the time I was taking Tanlac I was doing three men's work and improving at the same time. Now this is just what Tanlac has done for me and I gladly give this statement for what it may be worth to others who are trying to find relief."
