BIG SOMBREROS NO LONGER WORN BY WESTERNERS

Bruce McCulloch, in New York. Misses White Stetsons as Omaha Stockmen Hit Great Metropolis.

Bruce McCulloch, editor of the Journal-Stockman, who accompanied the delegation of Omaha live stock men to the annual convention of the National Live Stock exchange in New York, with Mrs. McCulloch is spending a vacation in the east. A letter from him yesterday says:

"New York is no live stock town and stockmen are rather scarce. In the crowd at the hotel, however, the stockmen seem to size up very favorably with the natives. There is a change that has been coming over the business during the last quarter of a century. There is not a big white Stetson hat in the lobby, and a stranger would never surmise that the crowd included nearly 200 stock dealers from all sections of the country.

Patriotism in Gotham.
"New York is so much nearer the war in every way than Omaha, we could not but mark the difference. Recruiting is going on all over the city where crowds congregate, and the War Savings stamps, Red Cross and other patriotic drives are being pushed every hour of the day and night.

"Another reminder of war time came when the delegation took a little trip around the city in an excursion boat. We were warned that we must not have either field glasses or cameras, and later learned the reason when our boat passed the Brooklyn navy yard, the yards where submarine chasers are under construction, and several big camouflaged battleships, cruisers and transports were lying at anchor.

Baggage Is Inspected.
"At Buffalo there were a dozen or more badly maimed Canadian soldiers that appealed very strongly to the crowds about the depot.

"At Niagara there were United States troops guarding the American end of the international bridge and Canadian troops on the Canadian side. Not only our baggage but our persons were subjected to the scrutiny of the United States and Canadian officers. It was a distinct shock for two or three of the party to be questioned as to their nationalities, and as to whether they were within the draft age.

"Tonight we are going to a 'shore dinner,' in other words, a clam bake at old Coney Island. It looks like a fine evening."

South High School Boys to Vote Upon Military Drill

Questionnaires sent out to South High school boys and their parents by Principal Edward Huwaldt for the purpose of obtaining a census of opinion as to whether military drill should be instituted in the school, has resulted in a squad of 40 boys being organized and receiving regular drill under the leadership of F. R. Vosacek, of the science department. The boys will drill in civilian clothes for the remainder of the semester, but uniforms will be provided, and a large number of boys are expected to be added to the ranks at the opening of school next September.

Tagg is Honored Twice.

W. B. Tagg was unanimously re-elected president of the National Live Stock exchange at the final session of the three-day convention held in New York last week. The next national convention will be held at Pittsburgh.

A SHAMPOO WORTH TRYING

It is not necessary to shampoo your hair so frequently if it is entirely and properly cleansed each time by the use of a really good shampoo. The easiest to use and quickest drying shampoo that we can recommend to our readers is one that brings out all the natural beauty of the hair and may be enjoyed at very little expense, by dissolving a teaspoonful of Cantocura, which can be obtained from any druggist's, in a cup of hot water. This makes a full cup of shampoo liquid, enough so it is easy to apply it to all the hair instead of just to the top of the head. This, when rubbed into the scalp and onto every strand of hair, chemically dissolves all impurities. It is very soothing and cooling in its action, as well as beneficial to both scalp and hair. After rinsing out the lather so created, you will find the scalp is fresh, clean and free from dandruff, while the hair dries quickly and evenly, developing a bright luster and a soft fluffiness that makes it seem very heavy.—Adv.

ITCHING ECZEMA CAUSED AGONY.

Burning Intense. Face Disfigured. In Five Weeks Cuticura Completely Healed.

"I was troubled with eczema which started in a mild pimply form. It grew worse until my body, head and face were a mass of sore eruptions. The itching and burning was so intense that I irritated it by scratching, until my clothing aggravated the eruption. I suffered untold agony and my face was disfigured. A friend told me to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and I began to use them. In five weeks I was completely healed." (Signed) F. M. Twinn, 316 S. Second St., Columbus, O.

Cuticura Soap cleanses and purifies and the Ointment soothes and heals. Sample Free by Mail. Address postcard: "Cuticura, Dept. H., Boston." Sold everywhere. Soap 25c. Ointment 25 and 50c.

SOUTH SIDE HITS FAST PACE IN RED CROSS CAMPAIGN

The machinery of the big Red Cross drive on the South Side started in perfect running order early Monday. While few figures were available late Monday, captains of committees reported gratifying results in the territory covered. An enthusiastic response greeted the canvassers everywhere, and heads of committees predicted the South Side will have gone over its quota of $26,000 long before the week ends.

One of the largest contributions of any one firm was that of Swift & Co., who subscribed $7,000 as its quota of $250,000 allotted to the whole Swift organization. This was separate from employees' contributions. The uptown office contributed $100.

The Armour office force of 185 employees announced a 100 per cent subscription Monday noon.

At the morning service at Wheeler Presbyterian church four young women wearing Red Cross costumes received contributions amounting to $200.

All of the schools are carrying out plans for the canvass of the pupils. At South High school every teacher is pledged to canvass 25 pupils, and the pupils themselves will canvass the homes in their own block, which do not have children attending school.

Auto Poker is Omaha's Latest Game of Chance; Police Are Perplexed

Ever play auto poker? No? Well, ask the corner policeman about it. Auto poker has jarred his equanimity until he is a much puzzled, perplexed and perturbed man of the law.

Auto poker, according to the Omaha police, just now is in the zenith of its glory. Stroll about the Lincoln school in the twilight and watch a bunch of boys, their hands full of nickels and pennies, gambling at auto poker.

One lad will select an approaching automobile. His competitor will take the next one. They read the numbers on the back of the machines. In the numbers there may be a pair of fives, while three sevens may be on the car following. Imagine the rest.

But how are police going to arrest auto poker players when there is no gambling paraphernalia in sight?

More Hogs Given by Nebraska Farmers to Red Cross Fund

Two loads of hogs from Nebraska communities were sold on the South Side market Monday, the proceeds of $1,396.46 going to the home chapters of the Red Cross.

A load of forty-six head from Niobrara, consigned to the Bowles Live Stock Commission company, weighed 8,800 pounds, and was sold to Armour & Co. for $17 per 100 pounds, netting $1,484.50. A load of 70 head from Gothenburg, consigned to Lou Bick Commission company, weighed 17,250 pounds and was sold to the Cudahy Packing company for $17.10 per 100 pounds, netting $2,911.96.

The commission companies donated their services in handling the shipments.
