to choice steers were around steady with sesterday's decline, but the indications were that the bulk would sell anywhere from

15c to 25c lower. Choice beef reached as high as $17.45 and the good to choice gen-erally from $16.50 to $17.25 and from that on down for the medium and half fat on down for the medium and half fat grades. Butcher stock opened up around steady to a dime lower, but on the heavy supplies indications were that prices would be considerably shaded from last week. Last night's rain gave con-siderable stimulous to the stocker trade and with the rather good supply on hand sales were generally strong to higher than last week.

Chicago, May 21.—Weakness developed in the corn market today owing mainly to absence of any aggressive buying. Closing prices were unsettled, 1½c het lower to a shade advanced with May, $1.57% and July, $1.42% to $1.42%. Cols finished %c off is %c up, and provisions down 12c to 22c.

About the only demand for corn came from local traders, whereas commission houses were moderately active sellers and were able to force reaction after every upturn. A somewhat generally accepted opinion that a week of favorable weather would result in the bulk of the planting being completed in the big atates tender to curtail purchases. Soaking rains which fell in Nebraska were regarded as a great benefit, although likely to cause delays in planting. On the other hand fears of cold weather damage to the oat crop in Canada led to the most important rally of the day in corn values, but the effect nevertheless on the corn market was soon over and stread break ensued.

In the cats pit nearby deliveries were strong in sympathy with advances at Winnipeg and as a result of congestion in the May option here. July was governed by the weakness of corn.
