

M'ADOO DEMANDS ACTION AT ONCE ON REVENUE BILL

Democrats Thrown Into Consternation by Ultimatum and See Vacations Go Glimmering.

Washington Bureau of The Omaha Bee, 1811 G Street. Washington, May 24.—(Special Telegram.)—Secretary McAdoo today gave his ultimatum to Chairman Kitchin of the ways and means committee that a new revenue bill was imperatively necessary, and he suggested that the machinery should be started at once to get such a bill through the house at the present session.

Consternation reigned among democratic leaders and there never was such a scurrying to cover as was displayed by those who but a short time before had solemnly asserted that a new revenue measure at this time was wholly unnecessary, in view of the treasury conditions, and that the country could easily get along until December, when additional revenue legislation could be passed.

Look for Summer Homes. Congressmen whose families are in Washington began planning for summer homes, for they all saw an early adjournment go glimmering with the announced determination of Secretary McAdoo not to put off further revenue legislation until the next session.

Hearings on the new revenue bill will begin almost any time, the clerk of the ways and means committee stating that it would be wise for people desiring to be heard on the new measure to get ready to come to Washington at a moment's notice.

As for the democrats, they are the sorest lot of individuals imaginable, for they had looked forward to at least three months in their districts repairing fences and setting themselves square with their folks at home. Now, with revenue legislation facing them, they have not got the heart to predict when the session will end.

Work on Omaha Pump. R. B. Howell of Omaha, who has been in Washington for several days in the interest of the water works, received word from the priority board that work on the 30,000,000 pump so urgently needed at the Florence plant, which is now under course of construction at Trenton, N. J., had been resumed and that it would be pushed to completion with all expedition. Mr. Howell also was assured that amonnia for the ice plant also would be expedited.

Prof. O. V. P. Stout, head of the engineering department of the University of Nebraska, has been commissioned a major in the engineering department of the emergency war branch of the quartermaster's department and has been assigned to duty in this city. Major Stout has been on duty at Camp Lee for a short time.

Ray Stroud, Omaha boy and veteran of several months fighting in the front line trenches, is back in Omaha at the home of his mother, Mrs. Rachel Stroud, 2125 North Thirteenth street. He did not come alone, but brought with him a pretty English girl, whom he met and won when she attended him in an English hospital where young Stroud was recovering from wounds received in the battle of Vimy ridge.

While coming home the ship on which Mr. and Mrs. Stroud were passengers was attacked by a German submarine, but luckily escaped.

AMERICANS ABOARD TRANSPORT KILLED BY GERMAN TORPEDO

The second was the Tuscania, which was sent to the bottom off the north of Ireland February 5, with a loss of life totalling 101.

The only other serious attack made on American transports occurred last June when vessels carrying some of the expeditionary units under a convoy commanded by Rear Admiral Gleaves, narrowly escaped disaster in the mid-Atlantic.

That German submarines are operating off the south coast of Ireland is evidenced by the sinking of the steamer Inniscarra of Cork with loss of life.
