

ORKIN BROS. OPEN
NEW STORE MONDAY

One of Most Attractive Clothing Quarters in West; All Departments are Nearly Completed.

Orkin Brothers will move into their new store in the Conant hotel building, Sixteenth and Harney streets, after waiting several weeks in order that it would be in as complete condition as possible.

Having agreed to vacate the old store at 1519-21 Douglas by May 25 J. L. Orkin stated there was but one thing he could do, and that was to move and to ask the indulgence of the public for the incomplete condition of their new store.

JULIUS ORKIN'S
RED CROSS GIFTS
SELL FOR $1,300

Contributions to the Red Cross war fund were slackening up in an almost noticeable manner Saturday during the last few hours of the drive there was no doubt about it. So two busy Red Cross workers Miss Mary Coll and Mrs. Margaret Judson, who had labored during the entire week, decided to "liven" things up a bit.

Mrs. Mollie Pease Dies
At Home in Omaha

Mrs. Mollie Pease, 30 years old, wife of A. W. Pease, sales manager for the Jay Burns Baking company, died at 6:30 Saturday evening at her home, 640 North Forty-second street.

"King of McCook Bootleggers" Abdicates Throne for 60 Days

Lincoln, May 25.—(Special).—The king of McCook bootleggers has abdicated his throne, according to a message received this morning by Governor Neville from that city which reads:

Chiropractic

Question—"What can you do for Neurasthenia?"

Answer—Once the nerves are relieved of pressure, nature will do all that is necessary to restore the body to a normal condition.

Neurasthenia usually begins with occipital headache and mental depression, making it hard to concentrate the mind. This is accompanied with sleeplessness and general irritability.

The patient may complain of a cranial restriction or of a pressure upon the vertex of the head—besides these symptoms there is a feeling of spinal weakness, and in some cases ringing in the ears and dizziness, with various cardiac and gastric neuroses.

Hundreds of people have come to me knowing that Chiropractic adjustments has cured case after case exactly like your own.
