Military Weddings

Miss Lenore Williams has chosen June 1 as her wedding day, and at eight noon at Trinity cathedral her marriage to Lieutenant Irving Benolen will take place.

The bride's only attendant will be little Miss Elizabeth Collar, who will scatter rose leaves in her path.

Many a lovely bride has passed up the broad aisle of the stately cathedral, but this wedding promises to be the most striking one seen for many a day with our fighting men in attendance.

There will be no reception afterwards, but the white satin bride and the silver-banded bridegroom will receive the congratulations of their friends at the church immediately following the ceremony.

A military wedding took place Saturday morning when Miss Frances Koller, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Koller, became the bride of Lieutenant Edward Welch.

The bride and her bridesmaid, Miss Marguerite Welch, wore tailored suits of blue and with small hats. Their corsage bouquets were of pink sweet peas.

Mr. Francis Welch attended his brother as best man.

Immediately following the ceremony the young couple left on a short honeymoon "somewhere in the United States." They have taken an apartment at the Anslow, as Lieutenant Welch is an instructor at the balloon school.

Mrs. Welch is a graduate of the Omaha High school and Lieutenant Welch was graduated from Creighton before entering the service.

Announcement is made of the wedding of Miss Jeannette Sargeant of New Bedford, Mass., and Lieutenant Robert A. Drake of Franklin, N. H., now instructor of artillery observation at Fort Omaha, which took place Saturday at 1:30 o'clock at a church in New Bedford.

The bride is a graduate of Smith college. Lieutenant Drake has been at Fort Omaha for the past seven months. At the end of the month the young couple will come to Omaha, where they will live in the apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Kiddoo, who have gone to Washington.

The wedding of Miss Margaret Day of Los Angeles and Private Russell Cooke of Fort Omaha took place Saturday morning in First Christian church. Rev. Charles E. Cobbey read the marriage lines.

The bride wore a French blue suit with a white lace hat, a corsage bouquet of pink sweet peas completing her costume. Miss Viola Herbert attended the bride and Sergeant C. D. Kane was best man.

Mrs. Cooke will remain in Omaha while Private Cooke is at the balloon school.

Country, Field and Happy Hollow Clubs Open With Dinner-Dances

THE summer club season is on! One has visions of breeze-swept porches, soft music, the sound of dancing feet, pretty girls and white-flanneled, blue-coated men. The rolling green of the golf links calls many and the click of the bowling balls is music to the ears of the tired business man.
