

SOUTH SIDE RED CROSS HOGS AND SHEEP SELL FOR $267,318.98

Nebraska and Iowa Farmers' Generous Offerings Sold in South Side Market; Come From 90 Counties.

Following out a movement started three months ago by patriotic farmers in the vicinity of Genoa, Neb., whereby each farmer in a community was asked to donate a hog, a calf or a sheep to be sold for the benefit of the local Red Cross chapter, $267,318.98 has been realized from these sales on the South Side market.

Ninety Nebraska and Iowa communities have sent in contributions, a few making a second donation. The commission companies have disposed of the consignments without charge for services.

South Side Donates.
While complete figures of the Red Cross fund on the South Side were not available late Saturday night, Chairman Everett Buckingham, in charge of the Douglas county drive, said he would not be surprised if $60,000 had been received in cash and pledges.

B. E. Wilcox, chairman of the eight districts comprising the main business section, said Saturday that the South Side's quota of $26,000 had easily been doubled, with the returns from several districts yet incomplete. Reports from the packing houses indicate that close to 100 per cent subscriptions would be obtained from the plants and offices. Armour & Co., in addition to the firm's contribution of $5,000 announced approximately the same amount from employees, with the canvass still incomplete in several departments.

Large Donations.
The Cudahy Packing company, in addition to the firm's $5,000 contribution, reported approximately $3,000 from the plant, and the canvass still in progress.

Swift & Co., announces approximately $3,500 from plant and office employees, in addition to a company contribution of $7,000. Figures at the Morris plant were not available, but will be announced Monday.

At the Stock Exchange building $7,066 was reported from the commission firms and employees and the Journal-Stockmen and employees. The trader's exchange and employees had subscribed $3,000, the Union Stock Wards company and employees, $7,100, and the Railway Live Stock offices and allied interests, $500.

Bease Theater Program.

Omaha Boy Wins First Prize in Contest For Best Liberty Loan Bond Paragraph

Morris Block, 1811 North Twenty-Second Street, Receives $50 Prize From Chairman T. C. Byrne.

Morris Block, 1811 North Twenty-second street, Omaha, won first prize of $50 in the state contest among school children for the best paragraph telling why Liberty bonds should be purchased.

Willard Rogers of the Windsor school, Omaha, won second prize of $25. The third prize of $15 went to Eileen Olsen, Herman, Neb., and the fourth prize, $10 to Louis A. Walden, North Platte, Neb.

The contest started with the third Liberty loan drive, April 6. State Chairman T. C. Byrne offered the four prizes. The contest was open to all school children, the only condition being that the paragraphs should contain less than 50 words and that they should be published in the local paper before being submitted to the competition committee, appointed by the federal reserve bank in Omaha.

The prize winning paragraphs were these:

FIRST PRIZE, $50.
By Morris Block, 1811 North Twenty-second Street, Omaha, Aged 13, Kellogg School, Eighth Grade, Class A. Miss Read, Teacher.

Buy Liberty bonds in order to defeat autocracy and show the Hun the right has conquered over barbarism; that autocracy will succumb to democracy; that we will fight until the last man, and sacrifice the last American dollar, but will not bend under the tyrant's yoke.

SECOND PRIZE, $25.
By Willard Rogers, Aged 13, Windsor School, Eighth A, Omaha, Miss West, Teacher.

If you were in Germany and had a bomb, would you hesitate to throw it at the Kaiser? Of course not! Each Liberty bond you buy is as good as a bomb and in the end will affect the Kaiser the same way. If you can't go across, come across.

THIRD PRIZE, $15.
By Eileen Olsen, aged 11, Herman School, Seventh Grade, Herman, Neb., Mrs. Smith, Teacher.

Think of our boys "over there" who are willing to die for their country. Then can you still be selfish? Won't you help "Liberty of value. "If you don't get all the satisfaction you think you ought to get, you get your money back."

bell" ring again? This appeal is made to loyal Americans. Just loan your money; you don't need to give it. Down with the "Beast of Berlin!"

FOURTH PRIZE, $10.
By Louis A. Walden, Aged 11, Junior Four-Minute Speaker of Jefferson School, Sixth Grade, North Platte, Neb.

Miss Sylvia Watts, Teacher. We cannot all shoulder guns to retain the liberty our forefathers died for. But we at home can help do our share by buying Liberty bonds to financially back our government. This is easy compared to what our noble Sammys are giving. So buy bonds, and more bonds.

No Time For Extravagance

The Money Wasted "Over Here" Would Save Lives "Over There"

"Red Cross Week" begins January First and ends December Thirty-first this year and every year until the war is won.

Liberty Bonds are on sale every minute in every day everywhere. The man or woman who adopts the "I'm glad that's over with" attitude and is not systematically doing all in their power to help finance humanity's war, would be paying tribute to the Kaiser today—if the boys in the trenches were as recreant to duty as some of the stay-at-homes.

Many people who plead inability to contribute, have contributed freely to THEIR OWN VANITY AND SELFISHNESS, and others are contributing to grasping greed when they pay two dollars for imaginary "reputation" or "social prestige" for every dollar they pay for actual dental service.

Every dollar spent needlessly takes food out of the mouths of our soldiers and starving Europe.

If you people who have had estimates made by high priced dentists will bring that estimate to my office, I will GUARANTEE to save you enough to make liberal contributions to the Red Cross, or to buy Bonds—and also guarantee that the dental service will be as good or better than you would secure elsewhere, at the higher cost.

The ECONOMY of my service is in the QUALITY of my work—not alone in the price.
