ROURKES LOSE SECOND GAME OF SERIES TO FOE

Marty O'Toole Suffers One Bad Inning and Wichita Wins, 3 to 1; Coy Hits Home

Marty O'Toole suffered one bad inning yesterday. That one bad inning Koestner, p beat the Rourkes. Wichita won 3 to 1. The fatal stanza was the sixth. Mr. Carey opened the spasm with a single to right. Joe Berger followed with t double to the same spot. McBride's sacrifice fly to Holderman scored Then came the dirty work. Mr. Coy was the agent. He slapped the pill over the rightfield fence. It was the first home run of the year on the local lot. The homer scored Berger ahead of Coy and gave the Wolves the fray.

That one round was Marty's only bad one. The rest of the time he hurled good ball. At no other time did Isbell's crew even threaten. But, alas, Elmer Koestner also was pitching good ball. Elmer was a little wild, but he always steaded in the Holderman Hits Double.

In the fourth the Rourkes managed to sneak over one run. After Defate whiffed, Holderman dropped a Texas leaguer to center. When Wolfe hesi-tated on the play Doc scooted to second, making the blow a double. Cal-lahan popped out, but Kelley laced a single to left and Holderman came Wichita has won both games of the series here. Inability of the Rourkes to hit the Wichita brand of pitching has resulted in the two local defeats. The Wolves wind up their series to-night. It will be ladies night. The game starts at 6:30.
