NEW YORK STOCKS.

New York, May 29.—Taking the impend-ng holiday with its many possibilities regarding the foreign situation into account. the traders proceeded warily in today's stock market, seeming to favor the con-structive side. Dealings were comparatively moderate, but more than ordinarily diversi-

Irregularity at the outset was succeeded by general strength which industrials shared invariable degree with equipments coppers, shippings, oils, motors, fertilizers, and numerous miscellaneous issues. Utilities were at all times heavy, however, on the suspension of the Interboro Consolidated dividend.
