

SOUTH SIDE WAUSA HOGS FOR RED CROSS SOLD ON SOUTH SIDE

Two Carloads Disposed of for $4,535, Commission Men Handling Donation Free of Charge.

Two loads of hogs, donated by farmers in the vicinity of Wausa, Neb., were sold on the South Side market Friday, the proceeds of $4,535.34, going to the home chapter of the Red Cross.

One load of 63 head was collected through the efforts of Jens Olson, after a canvass of two weeks. The shipment weighed 15,140 pounds, and was sold by the Wood-Oswald Commission company to Morris & Co. for $16.35 per 100 pounds, netting $2,406.95. A load of 65 head, collected through the efforts of Jens Olson and Swan P. Hult, weighed 13,300 pounds, and was sold by the Bowles Commission company to the Cudahy Packing company for $16.30 per 100 pounds, netting $2,128.38.

The commission companies dispose of all Red Cross shipments without charge for service.

Business Men's Class of Grace Church to Meet Saturday

The business men's class of Grace Methodist church will meet Sunday morning at 9:45 o'clock. Subject for discussion, "How Americanized Naturalized Citizens?" leader, E. R. Leigh. The pastor will preach at 11 o'clock on "Rejecting Christ, but Appropriating His Garments." There will be no evening service on account of the baccalaureate sermon to South High school graduates in the high school auditorium, which will be preached by Rev. S. H. Yearian of St. Luke's Lutheran church.

Dice Game Leads to Knife Encounter on South Side

A quarrel over a game of craps resulted in Andrew Koroleski, 4501 South Thirty-second street, attacking Anderson Knight, negro, 2823 North Twenty-seventh street, with a knife and inflicting a slight wound below the heart, Friday afternoon. A charge of gambling was filed against Knight, who, after being attended by a police surgeon, was released on bond. Koroleski was booked on a charge of cutting with intent to wound.

Call for Veterinarians.

Local exemption board No. 2, South Side city hall, has received a call from the government for 10 veterinarians and men experienced in handling horses. The men will be placed in immediate service at good wages.

Benton's Son Auto Victim.

Lieutenant Charles D. Benton, who was killed in an automobile accident at Gettysburg Pa., was a son of Edwin H. Benton of South Side, of the Traders' exchange.

Strict Rules for Grading Corn Products Laid Down

Strict regulations for grading corn products were announced Friday by the federal food administration for Nebraska. No licensed handler of foodstuffs will be permitted to quote or sell goods which do not conform to the new rules. The new regulations standardize the various corn products and establish definite differentials for various sized packages of corn meal, grits and hominy. The texture of all products must be determined by sifting with hand sieves, and moisture tests by official methods of the American Association of Agricultural Chemists.

Omahan at Camp Taylor Gets Furlough for Making Speech

When Top Sergeant Charles L. Mattson, former Omaha real estate man, now in the Omaha Ambulance company at Camp Taylor, Louisville, Ky., made a speech at the Mother's day meeting of the 309th sanitary train, the commanding officer was so pleased that he asked the Gate City man what he could do for him. "Grant me a furlough so I can go home and see my mother," said Mattson. The request was granted. Mattson's speech on "Mother" was printed in the Camp Taylor paper.

Columbian Public School Raises American Flag

Patriotic exercises accompanied the raising of a new American flag at the Columbian public school. The flag was raised by Maxine Boord, dressed as a Red Cross nurse, and Frank Smith, costumed as a Boy Scout. "America," "The Star Spangled Banner" and "Keep the Home Fires Burning" were sung by the entire school as part of the program. Doris Second and Helen Hartman gave recitations. The whole school gave a salute to the flag and the seventh B class recited "Your Flag and My Flag."

Funeral Service Held for Joseph Bolker, Hotel Man

The funeral of Joseph Bolker, 60 years old, who died Monday, was held Tuesday afternoon at the residence, 1023 South Twenty-first street. Interment was in Golden Hill cemetery. Mr. Bolker died suddenly, following an attack of heart disease. He had lived in Omaha 13 years, and was engaged in the hotel business. He is survived by his widow, four sons, Abe, David, Mike and Alex. Bolker, and one daughter, Miss Ida Bolker.

Bakery at Hastings Shut For Time for Food Violation

For baking bread without using the required amount of substitutes, C. Jungerman, owner of the Elite bakery, Hastings, Neb., was ordered yesterday to close its doors until next Monday morning. The order became effective at 6 p. m. Friday. The order was made by J. R. Corey, county food administrator, upon advices from the Omaha office of the food administration.

Brief City News

Have Boot Print 10—New Beacon Press. Fry Recovering—Thomas A. Fry is recovering from the effects of a surgical operation.

Omahan at Camp Mills—John W. Wilkenson of Omaha, who enlisted in the army a year ago is at Camp Mills, Long Island, N. Y.

Gr A. R. Post Meeting—The regular meeting of the U. S. Grant post, Grand Army of the Republic, will be held at 8 o'clock next Tuesday night.

Prudent saving in war times is a hostage for opportunities of peace. Play safe by starting an account with Nebraska Savings & Loan Ass'n, 211 S. 18th St. $1 to $5,000 received.

Fined on Booze Charge—W. H. Post, Seventy-fourth and Blondo streets, Benson, arrested May 19 and charged with illegal possession of liquor, was fined $100 and costs in police court.

Omaha Man Honored—Rev. Robert F. Leavens, pastor of the Unitarian church of Omaha, has been elected to the council of the alumni of Dartmouth college, Hanover, N. H. Rev. Mr. Leavens was graduated from the college in 1874.

Motor Car Stolen—Not more than five minutes after Mrs. George Ross, 6532 Florence boulevard, left her automobile standing in Thirteenth and Farnam streets a thief made away with it. It was the second car stolen from her in less than six months.

Newsboy Disappears—Thomas DeMartino, 15-year-old newsboy, who disappeared from his home, 1406 North Seventeenth street, several weeks ago, is being anxiously sought by his parents, who have appealed to the juvenile authorities for assistance in locating the lad.

John Ware Sentenced—Following his plea of guilty to breaking and entering, John Ware, alias Will Squires, was sentenced by Judge Redick in district court Friday to from one to three years in the penitentiary. Ware stole a suit of clothes, a pair of shoes and underwear from John Martin, 1723 1/2 Cumling street, on May 11.

Wife Granted Divorce—Judge G. A. Day in district court Wednesday denied the petition for divorce of Fred N. Peterson against Catherine Peterson, and acting on the cross-petition of Mrs. Peterson, granted her a divorce decree. Peterson failed to present evidence. Mrs. Peterson was granted the restoration of her maiden name, Catherine Fay.

Approves Proposed Amendment—The executive committee of the Chamber of Commerce, on motion of the committee on Americanization, approved the proposed amendment to the state constitution, depriving aliens of the right to vote and granting the vote only to full-fledged citizens who were born in this country or who have taken out their second papers. Barker Goes to Pen—Charles Barker, on his plea of guilty, was sentenced by Judge Redick in district court Friday to from one to seven years in the penitentiary for the theft of an automobile owned by the city. The charge against Barker was filed by Joe McDonald, superintendent of garbage. McDonald again reported his car stolen Wednesday and it is still missing.

Important Changes in Train Service—Via Chicago & Northwestern Railway, effective Sunday, June 2, 1918: For Chicago, trains will leave daily as follows: The Pacific Limited, 2:00 a. m. (instead of 1:20 a. m.); Chicago Express, 7:30 a. m.; Atlantic Express, 12:30 p. m.; Omaha-Chicago special, 6:00 p. m.; and the Overland Limited (no extra fare), 9:40 p. m. (instead of 8:30 p. m.). From Chicago trains will arrive Omaha as follows: Chicago-Omaha special, 8:30 a. m. (instead of 7:20 a. m.); Overland Limited (no extra fare), 9:10 a. m. (instead of 7:20 a. m.); Colorado Express, 3:30 p. m.; and the Pacific Limited, 1:00 a. m. (instead of 12:10 a. m.). Nebraska division, No. 1, will leave Omaha at 9:00 a. m. daily (instead of 8:29 a. m.); No. 5, Long Pine local, will leave Omaha 2:10 p. m. (instead of 2:15 p. m.). For further particulars apply at ticket office, 1481-1493 Farnam Street, Tel. Douglas 2740.

Police Find Woman and Gun, But Second Woman Escapes

Reports of three shots fired in the home of Mrs. Mabel Murphy, 616 North Seventeenth street, Friday night, brought an emergency squad of detectives to the scene. They found Mrs. Murphy sitting quietly in the house with a revolver in her hand. Neighbors told detectives Mrs. Murphy fired the shots at an unidentified woman who was seen to escape before police arrived. It was not learned whether the "woman" was injured. Mrs. Murphy said she fired the gun accidentally. She was arrested and booked for investigation. She denied that another woman had been in the house.

Lester Rubin Accused Of Stealing Automobile

Lester Rubin, 2224 Cass street, was brought back to Omaha Friday night from Sioux City, where he was arrested by authorities there on a charge of grand larceny. He is alleged to have stolen an automobile belonging to A. Meicher, 1516 Leavenworth street, May 14. Rubin told the police he drove the car to Lincoln, where, he said, it was stolen from him. He returned to Omaha, he went to Sioux City where his arrest followed upon advice of Omaha police.

Joyriders Allowed to Go.

A party of unidentified joy-riders met with near imprisonment Friday night when a proposed taxi ride was interrupted by a squad of detectives at Eighteenth and Chicago streets. The officers found two men and two women engaged in discussing loudly the itinerary of their joy-ride. They were released.

Don't wear a veil to cover up skin trouble. Resinol makes sick skins well. Is your appearance marred by unightly patches of eruption? There is no need of enduring such discomfort because, unless it is due to some serious internal condition, Resinol Ointment is almost sure to clear the trouble away—promptly, easily, and at little expense. Resinol Soap should usually be used with Resinol Ointment to prepare the skin to receive the Resinol medication. It is a delightful soap for the toilet, bath and shampoo. Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment are sold by all druggists.

Omaha Masons to Confer Degrees on 125 at Ansley

The following 32d degree Masons leave Saturday night in a special car over the Burlington route for Ansley, Neb., headed by Zoro D. Clark, where on Sunday they will confer degrees from the 19th to the 32d degrees inclusive on a class of 125 candidates:

Frank C. Patton, inspector general; Zoro D. Clark, commander; John R. Stine, master; Kadosh; Edgar N. Bowles, James H. Stine, A. M. Smith, Claud Talbot, Joseph Davis, Carl E. Herring, Samuel Levy, Arthur Sturges, Theo. E. Peterson, A. A. Holtmer, Earl R. Stiles, George W. Plattner, B. F. Thomas, John E. Simpson, Fred C. Rogers, T. L. Combs, E. L. Hoag, Sam J. Leon, Theodore W.

McCullough, Arthur Rosenbloom, Fred Eckstrom, George Spetman, Arthur C. Pancost, John W. Disbrow. Theo. E. Peterson left last night to make the preliminary arrangements. The delegation will return Monday forenoon. Enlistments Close Saturday. Saturday is the last day that men who are to register, June 5, will be accepted for voluntary enlistment in the army. Men over or under draft age will be accepted as hitherto. Killed in Aerial Dive. Montgomery, Ala., May 31.—George H. Lacoske, aged 24, cadet aviator, was killed at Taylor field this afternoon, when his plane went into a nose dive. The plane fell about 200 feet.

Confessed Wife Beater is Given Ninety-Day Sentence. When Tony Johns, 3024 Grover street, admitted in police court Friday morning that he beat his wife "because he was mad" about something, Police Judge Madden imposed a jail sentence of 90 days upon him.

BUY A TON TODAY

BUY A TON TODAY

NO MORE Anthracite Coal

WEST OF THE MISSISSIPPI RIVER

The Fuel Administration, owing to war conditions, has given orders effective at once that no Pennsylvania Hard Coal will be allowed to be shipped west of the Mississippi River.

A SUBSTITUTE FOR ANTHRACITE

Dietz Egg and Nut Coal from our new Mine No. 8—47-ft. Vein, will work to perfection in Hot Air Furnaces, Hot Water Heaters and Hard Coal Base Burners. Properly regulated drafts will keep the fire going all night in the coldest weather.

No Soot No Smoke No Clinkers
Very Little Ash

PUT YOUR COAL IN NOW

You can get it NOW. Get it in your cellars while cars are plentiful. Sixty days from now cars will be scarce. The mines will be snowed under with orders and unless you are PREPARED you will suffer for fuel this winter.

BE WISE LOOK AHEAD BE PREPARED

DIETZ NO. 8 COAL

The Sheridan Coal Co.

L. D. KNIFFIN, Manager, O'Rear-Leslie Bldg., Kansas City, Mo. E. C. MATTOX, Manager, Dietz, Wyo. GENERAL OFFICE, 14th Floor, General Sales Agent, W. O. W. Bldg. Omaha, Dietz, Wyo.

IMPORTANT Consumers should place their Coal Orders NOW, so it can be delivered direct from the car, thus saving handling twice and helping the labor situation

Dietz Coal Can Be Obtained From the Following Dealers:

- A. L. Bergquist & Son.
- Bowman-Kranz Lumber Co.
- Boyer-Van Kuren Lbr. & Coal Co.
- Brandwell-Roberts Co.
- Ely Drakulich.
- Enterprise Lumber & Coal Co.
- Farmers' Lumber Co.
- Henry Foley.
- Goodell & Co.
- G. E. Harding Coal Co.
- Harmon & Wash.
- Havens Coal Co.
- Hopper Brothers.
- E. Z. Howell & Son.
- George F. Howell Coal Co.
- Peter Lenagh.
- McCaffrey Brothers.
- F. A. Marshall.
- P. Murphy.
- Omaha Lumber & Coal Co.
- Victor White Coal Co.
- Partridge-Thomson Co.
- Peoples' Coal Co.
- Platner Lumber Co.
- Platner Lumber & Coal Co.
- Reynolds Coal Co.
- Rivett Lumber & Coal Co.
- Shakelford & Dickey.
- South Omaha Ice Co.
- Union Fuel Co.
- Victor White Coal Co.
- Krettek Brothers.
- New Council Bluffs Coal & Ice Co.
- O'Neill Brothers.
- Phillips Brothers.
- Bluffs City Lumber & Coal Co.
- Droge Elevator Co.
- Farmers' Lumber Co.
- Fenlon-Wickham Coal Co.
- Victor Jennings.

Council Bluffs

BUY A TON TODAY

BUY A TON TODAY