

CROWN PRINCE'S ARMIES STOPPED AT RIVER MARNE

French and British Facing German Onslaught Outnumbered Five to One, Yet Line Is Held Intact In Orderly Retirement; Enemy Unable to Foresee Where Foch Will Strike.

(By Associated Press.)

With the French Army in France, June 1.—Attempts of the Germans to cross the River Marne have met with vigorous resistance and failed. The troops which made the effort retired from the river bank.

The French and British troops facing the German onslaught numbered about one-fifth of the great enemy army. Although the Germans have thrown back the allies, they have not been able to create a breach in their lines.

The gradual retirement of the French and British has been executed with considerable skill. The Germans have never been certain where they were likely to meet with strong resistance.

PUSH SOUTHWARD.

For the moment the enemy is aiming chiefly at Chateau-Thierry and the Ourcq valley, which he is attempting to reach from two directions. His troops are seeking to force their way southward from Fere-en-Tardenois through Oulchy and Neuilly-St. Front. At the same time he is striking to push from the northward, near Soissons, in the direction of Vierzy.

The French inflicted terrible losses on the enemy near Soissons.

Allied aviators are coming prominently into action. There were many aerial encounters yesterday. Bombing squadrons dropped explosives on the enemy's troops in movement and at concentration points.

The formidable nature of the German effort may be gathered from the absolute identification of nearly 50 of their divisions, or about 675,000 men. There certainly are a number of other divisions in immediate support.

The divisions taking part in the offensive which have been added most recently belong to the volunteers' army. All of them were engaged in the March battle and afterwards were sent to the rear to be fitted out and to receive special training.

Enemy Increases Strength.

The enemy is increasing continually the number of troops engaged in the battle. The general idea, when the offensive began, appears to have been that each enemy division should occupy a front of only 2,000 yards. Since that time the line of battle has been extended, and in order to maintain the density of the attacking army, further units have been brought from the rear and thrown into the fight.

The time and place of the return blow by the allies seems to be puzzling the German commanders, who are endeavoring to secure strong points for pivots.

The task of strengthening the retreating divisions of the allies, where this is necessary, was placed in the hands of the local reserves. It has been carried out exceedingly well under the most difficult circumstances.

Paris Being Shelled.

Paris, June 1.—Paris is again under German fire today. The bombardment by long range guns was resumed this morning.

LYNCH HELD UNDER MANN ACT CHARGE

panion, and is therefore not technically within the Mann act.

Ninety-five True Bills Returned. Ninety-five true bills were returned out of 117 cases called for hearing, 22 being dismissed. Thirty of the indictments charge violation of the Harrison drug act, by the illegal sale or purchase of "dope" for other than medical purposes. Twenty-four bills charge violation of the espionage act; nine violations of the Mann act; 15 larceny of freight cars; the remaining 17 being of a miscellaneous character.

Few of the indictments were made public by District Attorney Allen, who deemed it advisable to hold the others until after the indicted persons are arrested.

Mr. Allen declared the suppressed indictments involve several prominent citizens of Omaha and relate to seditious acts or speech.

Catholic Priest Named.

The Rev. William Windolph, Catholic priest at Creighton, Neb., was held under the espionage act. Many seditious utterances attributed to the priest were contained in the true bill returned by the grand jury.

The majority of our soldiers are cowards," the priest is reported to have said. "They did not want to go to war; all they do is to follow the crowd; they did not want to go to war, but they didn't have the courage to say so. War was started by a few rich men in New York City."

The American government is rotten and officers of the government from the president down are not honest. As a proof of this we have President Wilson who promised to keep us out of war and then as soon as he was elected declared war on Germany.

Abuse of President.

John Harshfield, Porter, Lincoln county, Neb., was also indicted for seditious utterances.

Among other offenses Harshfield is said to have applied vile epithets to the president and cabinet and threatened their lives.

"I hope the men going to France will all be killed," Harshfield is reported to have said, "I am a member of the greatest league in the world, the Non-Parlance league, and I say what I please, where and when I please. I have ammunition and guns enough on my place to kill a regiment, and we are not afraid to use them."

C. C. Mickey, Omaha socialist, was included in the violators of the espionage act. He is accused of having circulated a pamphlet "The Price We Pay," a publication already pro-

When, Where and How to Register

Who Must Register: All male persons (citizens or aliens) born between June 6, 1896 and June 5, 1897, inclusive, except officers and enlisted men of the regular army, navy and marine corps, and the national guard and naval militia while in federal service, and officers in officers' reserve corps and enlisted men in enlisted reserve corps while in active service.

When: On Wednesday, June 5, 1918, between 7 a. m. and 9 p. m.

Where: At office of local board having jurisdiction where the person to be registered, permanently resides, or other place designated by that local board.

How: Go in person June 5 to your registration place. If you expect to be absent from home on June 5, go at once to the office of the local board where you happen to be. Have your registration card filled out and certified. Mail it to the local board having jurisdiction where you permanently reside. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope with your registration card for the return of your registration certificate. Failure to get this certificate may cause you serious inconvenience. You must mail your registration card in time to reach your home local board on June 5. If you are sick June 5 and unable to present yourself in person send some competent friend. The clerk may deputize him to prepare your card.

Information: If you are in doubt as to what to do or where to register consult your local board. Penalty for not registering: Failure to register is a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment for one year. It may result in loss of valuable rights and privileges and immediate induction into military service.

Chiropractic

The question is often asked me: "What can you do for my lame back?" Chiropractically, I always look for the cause. Stiff back, lame back, sore back or backache may be caused by overwork, but frequently it is a symptom of some deeper seated trouble. In fact, I can find tenderness in the back linked with many different diseases.

When we speak of "lame back," we most generally think of the common form known as lumbago or muscular rheumatism.

Plasters, liniments, woolen cloths, various baths, electricity, serums and what not have been used to combat this misery. No doubt, you have tried them all and still you suffer—all because there are nerves pinched which could be relieved by the proper adjustment of the vertebrae.

Case No. 875 on my record shows lumbago of five years' standing. The correct adjustment of two lumbar vertebrae gave permanent relief.

No matter what your ailment may be, don't become discouraged. If you will call at my office, I will cheerfully tell you if Chiropractic is applicable to your case. Free literature explaining this wonderful method is yours for the asking.

Consultation is free at my office. Adjustments are $1 or 12 for $10. Office hours, 9 a. m. to 6 p. m., other hours by appointment.

FOUR HUN PLANES BROUGHT DOWN BY AMERICAN PILOTS

With the American Army in France, June 1.—Two German airplanes, in addition to the two previously reported, fell victims to American pilots in Thursday's air fighting on the front northwest of Toul, according to reports from aerial observers for the artillery.

These observers say that the machine with which Lieutenant James A. Meissner of Brooklyn collided on that day, tearing the wing of the American airplane, fell to the ground after the collision.

They also report that the machine which Lieutenant Edward Rickenbacher attacked as the German airman was pursuing Meissner in his damaged machine, also fell after Rickenbacher had made a long dive after it.

HONOR FOR Foe Uniform Hides Heart of Italian NOBLE ENEMY

Headquarters, Italian Army, June 1.

There is a narrow pass on the mountain front of the Grappa which has given the Italians a lot of trouble. It is a rocky defile with cliffs rising sheer a thousand feet on either side. Through this narrow passage it was necessary for the men to go every day in handling supplies. But as they passed they were picked off one by one by an Austrian sharpshooter in a cavern near the top of the cliffs. Here he had been lowered from the enemy lines along one side of the cliff, and here food was lowered and the deadly fusillade kept up day after day.

It recently was observed, however, that a strange change came over the operations from the cliff. The shots rang out as usual whenever an Italian soldier went through the pass. But, singularly, no man ever fell. The shots always went wide of the mark. The cunning of the sharpshooter appeared to be at an end. This continued for days, with the Italian going back and forth safely, and the aimless and idle shots ringing out from the enemy post in the cliff.

Italians Raid Spot.

The Italians finally made a dash to clear out the place, their batteries pouring shots into the cavern while a scaling party entered it from one side. In the lead of the climbing party was Lieutenant Guglielminetti, and as he rushed into the cave he saw a singular sight. Stretched on the ground was an Austrian soldier dying from an Italian bullet wound. But though an Austrian soldier in the gray-green uniform of Austria, the wounded man raised himself on his elbow, drew a tiny Italian flag from under his coat, and in a faint voice exclaimed: "Vive l'Italia!"

The dying man had only time to whisper his story. He was Giorgio Avanzini, nephew of the socialist deputy, Avanzini, representing the city of Trent in the Austrian parliament. Like all the people of Trent and the Trentino, he was an Italian by instinct, though forced by the political situation of Trent under Austria to enter the Austrian army. As such he found himself in the Austrian lines at the top of the cliff, and he had been detailed for the dangerous task of being lowered to the cavern to pick off Italian soldiers as they passed. Being under observation he kept his rifle going, but Avanzini took good care that no shot found its mark in an Italian soldier.

Avanzini's body was lowered to the Italian lines, and the soldiers whose lives he had spared joined in giving the honors of war to a man wearing an enemy uniform.
