WOMAN'S SECTION OF THE BEE

Conducted by Ella Fleishman

THE SEAL OF THE WAY OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PRO

Society

B) MELLIFICIA

Omaha Girl Graduates Miss Dorothy Weller will graduate June 6 from the National Kindergarten school in Chicago. Mrs. Harry Weller and Miss Marian Weller will attend the exercises.

Miss Mary Fuller will graduate from Miss Bennett's school in Mill-brook, N. Y., and Miss Marjorie Ca-vers from Miss Finch's school in New York.

The Omaha girls graduating from Vassar college will be Miss Erna Reed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Reed, and Miss Lorine Davis, daughter of Dr. John C. Davis. Miss Virginia Crofoot, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Crofoot, will in Washington, D. C. Miss Margaret Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Williams, will finish at Wheaton college, Norton, Mass. Mrs. Williams will attend the graduating exercises.

Miss Harriet Walters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walters, will graduate from the Kemper school at Kenosha, Wis. Mrs. Walters left Friday evening to attend the graduating exercises, which will take place Tuesday evening.

Seymour Lake Country Club.

presents a very pretty appearance fair, including: with new draperies and lighting fixtures. Three hundred and fifty people enjoyed the festivities and danced Hanighen. until a late hour. Friday evening has been designated as the regular weekly dinner-dance party.

The Seymour Ladies' Golf club will Celta Larson hold its initial meeting Wednesday, Mr. Jack Holmes, when a dutch treat luncheon will be Edward La Croft, short business session and a nine-hole golf contest. Mrs. Allen Dudley, president, and Miss Mable Melcher, secretary, are arranging the details.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McCarthy have bought the J. E. Bednard Possession Collection Society served at 1 o'clock, followed by a have taken possession. Others who have moved to their summer homes at the club are: Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Knapp, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wood-bridge, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Mangum, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Holcomb, Mrs. Julius Steinberg, Commissioner and on their club property.

The gentlemen hold responsible positions with Armour & Co., and will have charge of the company's interests in Buenos Aires, Argentina, and San Paula, Brazil.

At the Country Club.

luncheon Wednesday at the Country Angeles, Cal. Her guests will include: Grace Slabaugh, Norma McKenzie. Mabel Allen, Margaretha Grimmel, Eleanor Austin and Mrs. George for the parish Tuesday evening at Cross classes, but are not graduate Liberty hall. Eleven useful prizes nurses. will be given.

Benefit Party.

Notes of Interest.

turned from Excelsior Springs.

cago and Columbus, O. Eugenie Whitmore left Wednesday white tulle. The neck was square for California.

Mrs. Henry H. Lovell returned Million of Harden college, Mexico,

Mrs. Ward Burgess is expected home next week from New York. Mrs. C. E. Crain is spending a few days in Denver, but will stop in Omaha before returning to her home in Springfield, O. Captain G. R. Gilbert of Fort Riley is home on a week's furlough. Sydney Meyer left Friday for New York, where he will spend two weeks.

Miss Hazel Hascall and Miss Leon Siebolt are visiting in Kansas City, where they are the guests of Miss Hascall's uncie, Mr. Jack Hascall, and Mrs. Hascall, formerly of Omaha, and of Miss Siebolt's sister, Mrs. Earl Fredericks, and Mr. Fredericks.

Mrs. S. V. Chase came the first of the week to be with her daughter. Mrs. R. B. Howell.

The Smith College club will meet Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harold Evarts. Plans for the luncheon to be given for the Smith graduates on their return will be discussed at the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey P. Thorsen of Chicago have arrived to spend the month of June with Mrs. Thorsen's summer. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hamilparents, Mr and Mrs. Will McBride. Beginning Mounday, June 3, the reading and reference departments of the main library, Nineteenth and Harney streets, will close at 8:30 p. m. All other departments will continue to close at the same hours as during the winter months: Circulation department at 8:30 p. m. and children's department at 7 p. m. The South Side branch library, Mrs. Smyth. wife of Judge Conwith her mother, Mrs. Russell HarriTwenty-third and M streets, will stantine J. Smyth of Omaha, now livson, returned to her home on Thursopen at 10 a. m. and close at 6 p. m., in- here. Saturday at 10 and 8:30,

Party To Celebrate Eightieth Birthday

In honor of the 80th birthday anni-

Messrs and Mesdames-G. Gates. Er Frank Linder. I. Mesdames-Maggie Gates.

Erne Holmes. I., Fenestock. Edward Schreiber. Mesdames-Peterson. H. A. Rechert, Loretta Larson. Fred Anthony.

From Washington Bureau of The Omaha Bee, 1311 G Street.

far as the congressional set is con- appointment The seeker after the gift Mrs. Dean Ringer, Mr. and Mrs. cerned, since congress has been given that is "different" is sure to be pleased for blouses, separate skirts, hosiery Julius Lyon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Parratt have returned from Fremont, where they have resided for the past two years, fathers until they can go home. They pany's beautiful Oriental shop at 1318 No MATTER how hasty the wedare building a large double house are all worn out this week with the Farnam. There are lamps, distinctive No ding, it is the prerogative of Jack Dugdale, a favorit. in the Cross war fund, the drive for which value to any home. Oriental art—the those exquisite, filmy, lacy, frilly younger set, has enlisted in the navy and will be missed from the club parties this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. Said and Mrs. A. S. Midlam, who have Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Midlam, who have the scene of the windup of the Distance of the Windup of th been identified with Seymour Lake trict Red Cross committee, and the to browse about in this interesting crepe-de-chine and Phillipine hand-Country club since its organization, Belasco theater was the scene of a shop. sailed Saturday for South America. Red Cross benefit given by the officials and clerks of the Panama commission.

The president and Mrs. Wilson, accompanied by their usual little family party, occupied their box at the latter benefit. A large and picturesque Mrs. Jay D. Foster will entertain at corps of Red Cross collectors were on hand there, the most important one club for Miss Zadelle Smith of Los of all being a tiny tot, 5 years old, Hazel Sylvia McKinley, dressed ex-Misses Adelyn Wood, Lois Howell, actly as her elders of the corps, in a nurse's costume of cool grav gingham, with white collars, cuffs and aprons, and short gray veils, with the bright red crosses stamped upon the front of the caps and on their aprons. These are the clerical forces of both The women of Rose parish will give government and civil life, who have the first of a series of benefit parties taken the course of training in Red

The tiny nurse was asked for by in a gown of white satin, made with and style-difference. Mr. H. P. Whitmore and Miss a demi train, and a bodice of soft and decolette, outlined with rhine-Mr. and Mrs. Elmer J. Neville and stones, which edged the sleeves, which fanning it constantly with a program. the season.

Saunders Family to Omaha.

Mrs. Alvin Saunders and her grand-"ranching" again this year as he did for summer weather. last summer, with the earnest hope

Mrs. D. C. Stapleton of Omaha who has now one of the handsomest of the Massachusetts avenue homes in Washington, has had some guests with her most of the time during Mr. Stapleton's absence in South America. He is expected back in another week or 10 days, and then they will make some plans for getting away to the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hamilton, of Omaha went to New York last week after a visit with Mrs. Stapleton. Mrs. Jack Barber of Phoenix, Ariz., sister of Mrs. Stapleton, has been with her for several weeks, and constantly entertained by the Stapletons' friends here. She went on to New York today to visit before day returning home. Entertain for Mrs. Barber.

enterlained at a luncheon day. Mr. Williams spent the last weekfor Mrs. Barber last week and Mrs | end with his family. His mother died a France

DEAR WOMEN:-The leafy month We wish you had longer to stay. fresh-air fashions of summer time which have been blooming in the With wedding bells chiming shop windows, are now appearing on Quite well we're opining

I overheard a woman, who had been attendant at several of our previous For war wedding parties summer club openings, remark that she had never seen so many, truly interesting styles, as were shown at last Saturday's evening dance. "The

The formal opening of Seymour

Lake Country club with a dinnerdance Friday evening was a most

The honor guest has resided in denoted with the spirit of today in the daughter of the late Judge Rector gandies, with flowing sleeves and everything she needs for her trous.

The honor guest has resided in denoted with the spirit of today in the daughter of the late Judge Rector gandies, with flowing sleeves and everything she needs for her trous.

Thorne's 1812 Farnam should be a cate and beckoning in color, some one appropriately remarked about the the bewilderingly pretty colored or turn, with the surety of obtaining which are arrivals of the week at F. W.

Thorne's 1812 Farnam should be a resided in the bewildering in color, some one appropriately remarked about the the bewildering in color, some one appropriately remarked about the the daughter of the late Judge Rector gandies, with flowing sleeves and everything she needs for her trous. brilliant affair. The club house has been redecorated and remodeled, and been redecorated and remodeled, and sleeveless coatees and sweaters, brilliant affair. The club house has been redecorated and remodeled, and sleeveless coatees and sweaters, brilliant affair. The club house has been redecorated and remodeled, and sleeveless coatees and sweaters, brilliant affair. The club house has been redecorated and remodeled, and sleeveless coatees and sweaters, brilliant affair. The club house has been redecorated and remodeled, and sleeveless coatees and sweaters, brilliant affair. The club house has been redecorated and remodeled, and sleeveless coatees and sweaters, brilliant affair. The club house has been redecorated and remodeled, and sleeveless coatees and sweaters, brilliant affair. The club house has been redecorated and remodeled, and sleeveless coatees and sweaters, brilliant affair. The club house has been redecorated and remodeled, and sleeveless coatees and sweaters, brilliant affair. The club house has been redecorated and remodeled, and sleeveless coatees and sweaters, brilliant affair. The club house has been redecorated and remodeled, and sleeveless coatees and sweaters, brilliant affair. The club house has been redecorated and remodeled, and sleeveless coatees and sweaters, brilliant affair. The club house has been redecorated and remodeled, and sleeveless coatees and sweaters, brilliant affair. The club house has been redecorated and remodeled, and sleeveless coatees and sweaters, brilliant affair. The club house has been redecorated and remodeled, and sleeveless coatees and sweaters, brilliant affair. The club house has been redecorated and remodeled, and sleeveless coatees and sweaters, brilliant affair. The club house has been redecorated and remodeled, and sleeveless coatees and sweaters, brilliant affair. The club house has been redecorated and remodeled, and sleeveless coatees and sweaters, brilliant affair. The club house has been redecorated and remodeled, and sleeveless coatees and sweate smart fashions which are typical of the realm of sports, the clique of tennis and golf."

Yes, despite war-time activities, summer styles are even more varied and beautiful than in ante-bellum days. France, to whom we still look for our loveliest of fashions, though obliged to look economy straight in the face, has sought her inspiration from the depths of centuries of art, and used her cleverest and best tricks in creating these summer time fash- to choose a complete trousseau right ions for us.

CUMMER plans and early get-a- L bride! Did you ever stop to ways have most of them been think that the gift you buy, and where ing. set aside in disappointment so you buy it makes for happiness or disstrenuous work of the second Red and artistic which will add decorative every bride to have a few sets of > on the shelves and counters of the voiles at 75c a yard, while voiles and tissues in stripe and plaid effects-so voguishly stunning in the new dark colors, at 50c and $1 a yard. Then net.

>
> Time and chinon scarts are not their Gitt Shop and department of the silk interior decoration, where some very high-grade lamp shades were being chines, which are silkily sheer, like butterfly wings-these come in dots and small floral patterns at $1, and

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stewart have re- and Mrs. Wilson detained her in their wardrobe is the one who will create has simple flower arrangements to Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stewart have re-arned from Excelsior Springs.

box for some little time, chatting and box for some little time, chatting and Mrs. Brandon Howell left Wednes-laughing with her. She was quite the laughing and pinned a distribution of the most pleasing impression of give the rooms that atmosphere of his of the evening and pinned a distribution. Thorne's Un-Farnam Street Shop has hit of the evening and pinned a death Thorne's Up-Farnam Street Shop, has only the family and a few friends are day evening for New York.

Mrs. Robert Bradford leaves Tuesday to spend the summer in Californit.

hit of the evening and pinned a day of the family and a few friends are upon the president's coat before she upon the president's coat Mrs. N. B. Updike and Miss Hazel mastered the art of handling her materials are gabardine, basket weave, orate as one may wish. Drides and Mrs. N. B. Updike and Miss Hazel mastered the art of handling her materials are gabardine, basket weave, orate as one may wish. Mrs. N. B. Updike and Miss Hazer mastered the art of the art of the prides are things to be updike returned home last week, needles with skill, without looking at pique and Ottoman cloth. You'll be always remembered" if arranged by after spending several weeks in Chi- her work. She was lovely that evening delighted with their good tailoring this florist.

THE bridal bouquets in colonial silks for evening affairs. touch of color. Her mother and sister ist, at 1804 Farnam, creates are ex-sat just behind them in the box, and quisite bits of art. And oh! I wish to risk our beautiful draperies and surprise the recipient.

time by Mrs. Russell Harrison, with warm days are upon us. Lucien whom Mrs. Saunders has spent the Stephens' Shop for Men, 1901 Farnam winter, and they will of course go to street, has a brand new suspender the Saunders farm for the remainder which will make these days far more of the summer. Young Mr. Harrison, enjoyable—it's called the "Vestoff In- are very good, indeed. who has been refused for service in the army on account of his failure to pass the physical examination, will go has a new line of good-looking hats so are Cossack and other styles that tiful luncheon in her honor on Tuesday in the splendid country home

"Stone Ridge" near Bethesda, Md.

Captain Charles Hamilton United States army, nephew of Mrs. D. C.

Stapleton, is visiting in the Stapleton

Judge and Mrs. Smyth left this week for Omaha, where they will spend the greater part of the summer.

heir daughter. Miss Katherine

Smyth, went to New York on Tues-

Mrs. Harry A. Williams, jr. of Norfolk, who, with her three little daughcome just now.

that he may get strong enough to Stapleton gave a large tea in her month ago in Norfolk. Mrs. Harrimonor on Saturday. Tuesday evening son took an active part last week in Mrs. David K. McCarthy gave a theater party followed by supper with the silent sentinels on F street. She dancing for her, and Mrs. George E. is a member of the Red Cross unit Hamilton, wife of one of the leading of Mrs. William C. Gorgas, wife of the bankers of Washington, gave a beausuregon general, United States army.

INFORMAL ENTERTAINING The Misses Gladys and Daphne Peters will entertain at a tea Tuesday to work for the summer. afternoon at their home. Mr. Harry Byrne enterained a dinfrom Los Angeles, Cal., to spend the summer with her son, M. Clarey. ner party at Happy Hollow club Saturday evening when his guests in-cluded Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Byrne of Lincoln and Miss Edith Hamilton. geant Blackett, who had a successful

Ten thousand women of New York City are to be enlisted in a women's police reserve corps.

Polish girls of New York have enters has spent the past two months rolled in a corps of Polish Amazons to aid in the recruiting of Polish-Americans for the Polish army in

Lets go shopping with Polly

Has come o'er the hilltops to-And today we all sing it While wedding bells ring it Off to war.

fly."

verandas of homes and country clubs. You've much "up your sleeve" to disclose

> For maids and their hearties Unfold like the leaves o' a rose.

June with her roses

day

And other fair posies

Sweet month o' fair flowers

And rose scented bowers speak her and her wedding day. The only $7.85. Brandeis Stores have made a special effort this season, to obtain the very There are colored bead chains to daintiest, the very quintessence of wear with every costume, lovely things! I know-for I've been doing lots of shopping this week for brides, and I found it so satisfactory in this one store. Never have silken undergarments been more lovely than those which the bride of this June Dinner gowns of black lace are may choose. Gloves, handkerchiefs, picture hats or tiny bonnets, suits and skirts, sports apparel and smart shoes TO YOU who would give to the and silk stockings—are all at Brandeis' bride! Did you ever stop to for the dear bride's enchanted choos-

"Navy blue" is much in demand embroidered underthings. Envelope chemise, in both tailored and lace BOLTS and bolts of the most entic- trimmed styles in wash satin, or a ing fabrics you ever saw are piled good quality of crepe-de-chine, dainty "Lucilles," which in reality are chedress goods section at Thompson- mises, though they pose as allied Belden's waiting for someone to come bloomers and camisoles. Then there along and transform them into sweet, are nighties, pettibockers and camiairy, summer frocks. All of the flower soles-all just too adorable for words! colors are shown in fine English And best of all, unusually reasonable.

Tulle and chiffon scarfs are bor- their Gift Shop and department of WHETHER the wedding be a for-mal church affair, or one of those exquisite embroidered voiles at $1.25 hasty marriages, which take place when the bridegroom is graciously granted a few days furlough by an in-Much tulle is used for hat trimming, dulgent government, flowers are always an essential part of it. Lee Larthe president, and he reserved his five-dollar bill for her basket. He tubable skirts in her summer rangements. If a quiet home affair, he rangements. If a quiet home affair, he cial pride and delight in designing store them to their original lustre these. things a bit "different" to happily and beauty. Let me advise you to call the Pantorium should you wish any work of this kind done, for they left Washington yesterday for the Saunders home in Omaha. They will, soon observing "restlement of the Saunders home in Omaha. They will, soon observing "restlement of the Saunders home in Omaha. They will, soon observing "restlement of the Saunders of t Saunders home in Omaha. They will, soon observing "vestless days," for Douglas 963 and their automobile will be there in a jiffy.

Bead bags in bright, glowing colors are worn outside the skirt.

And even the old tune The "Here Comes the Bride" In such times as these Has changed just a bit o' it's Now hurried up marriages Dispense with carriages For they are o' things long To save you a trip gone by For it's automobile time Or some other wheel time Or maybe the groom's "on the versary of Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Gates, a delightful party was given in her honor at her home last Sunday after-honor at her home last Sunday after-a veritable flower garden," she said, "and old-time quaintness seemed to be attire! How gratifying it must be, brought us much happiness, but a day cate and beckoning in color," some thus gowned in the simplest white bound to bring undiluted joy. The usual attention, for it looked for all VISITED a newly enlarged department in Orchard & Wilhelm's this week in connection with nese embroideries and brocades-being converted into shades which in point of beauty resembled French party gowns; in fact, the makers were putting the same thought and effort into their work as the couturiers put into theirs. I noted some very beautiful new motifs being used-Egyptian, Chinese and Dresden effects. These were put in for their own manthey could be persuaded to sell them price from $1.10 to $11 a yard.

A white organdy frock is pretty trimmed with band; of yellow.

Young girls are wearing flowered tracting considerable attention from striped silk poplins, swagger English FASHION'S JUNE BLOSSOMS passersby who stop to gaze in a plaids in rubberized mohair come at ABLOOM IN THE SHOPS, window of Albert Edholm's Jewelry $12.50 and $14.75. There are some Mr. and Mas. Elmer J. Neville and stones, which edged the steeves, which family returned home last Thursday from a winter in Florida and Califoriose was pinned at her belt, the only touch of color. Her mother and sister touch of color. Her mother and sister touch of color. Her mother and sister to risk our beautiful draperies and karat gold frame forms the setting for the color of the color o Tuesday from a week's visit with Miss Bolling kept the back of the family of President John W. president's head cool all the evening, you want something really out-of-the. Off-times they are made of materials brooches are very unique and attractordinary in flower arrangements, be which will not stand washing, and ive. Children and grandchildren will Mo. Mrs. Million is a sister of Mr. It was one of the hottest nights of sure to see Mr. Bath. He takes spe- should be dry cleaned in order to re- reverently handle souvenirs such as > Remember, I'm always happy to help you out with ideas and to do your shopping for you.

> Be sure to state price, size and as many details as possible when writing to me, and kindly enclose stamp for a reply. Purchases will be sent C. O. D. unless accompanied by a check or Money Order. POLLY THE SHOPPER.

WEST AMBLER

Mrs. E. W. Miller of Lincoln, Neb.

who has been the guest of Miss Marie

Mrs. Frank Potter and son, Clare

have returned from Hastings, Mr

Potter and Vernon remaining there

Mrs. M. J. Clarey arrived Saturday

Mrs. W. R. Blackett, wife of Ser-operation at the Nicholas Senn hos-

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hensman leave

Mrs. M. A. Freeman, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. A.

Webber, left for her home at Griswold, Ia., on Monday.

Tuesday evening for a visit with relatives at Carter and Creighton, Neb.

pital, returned home Wednesday.

Carlson, left Monday.

Omaha Bee.

Shops strive hard to please And whether her gown be of white

Bright satin, or serge Why "There Goes the Groom" She's sure to emerge In what she well knows is "just right."

> So here is a tip For nothing I say Makes me feel quite so gay As in outfitting brides In a hurry.

liant colored silk skirts, and other thus gowned in the simplest white the services coatees and sweaters, brilwhether she's to be a war bride, and are so fascinatingly pretty that they're blue for a sash, seemed to attract unfrock, or whether it's to be a grand shades—the loveliest you eyer saw!— the world as though it had stepped church wedding and her gown must are primrose, orchid, lavendar, turout of Grandma's "Lady's Godey out of G "shine richly white in the church's half quoise, apricot and Quaker gray. But Book," with its beruffled fichu, and light," there are trousseaux which be- the biggest surprise is the price- the tiny succession of ruffles on the skirt. And I was surprised when I went upstairs and saw a similar model, to learn how reasonably priced of the many corset models in her are these lovely summer-time gowns. All the exquisite flower shades are represented and the styles are varied. I love those with sashes-the very kind we used to like to wear with our great joy of accomplishment. Women girls.

bags at The Alla Shop, 218 South has a lot of those useful straw petaca workmanship. or envelope bags, in which you may carry your lunch, your Red Cross apron or what not-35c to 75c, unfashionable for sports coats. trimmed; 75c to $1.25 trimmed.

evidence on black satin frocks.

WHAT the serge dress was to the frock is to the summer wardrobe! It's denied. Herzberg's Women's Toggery, 1517 Douglas, has some very smart new rocks in foulard, charmingly allied with Georgette, which are fond of individuality in dress. One model which appealed to me as being gem-like in its character, has a threemade. It was quite fascinating to sit and watch the many lovely fabrics—of the underbodice peep from 'neath a covering of the Georgette, which is ornamented with miniature red buttons and gold loops.

> A waistcoat to match the hat is a smart idea.

As OUR good friend Riley says, inch cloth for $3.25-a 54-inch cloth "When God sorts out the weather for $4.50, each with six napkins, I ufacture of lamp shades, but I believe and sends rain, why rain's my choice." The new raincoats at F. W. Thorne's, to the home craftsman; they range in 1812 Farnam, are emphatically such South Eighteenth Street. There are long for wet weather. "Silverrane" bride happy. which comes in lovely shades of oldrose, blue and gray, is a new rain-A REVIVAL of the miniature picture proof fabric of dressy appearance. The of Georgette crepe. very neat raincoats priced at $5.95.

Blue cornflowers make a very under-arm stain by the use of Pers- dozens of tres jolie things the dear pirigiene, an astringent and antiseptic Fashion Dame in her June basket odorless lotion that closes the pores brings. just enough to prevent excessive perspiring. It is priced at 50c. Curodor, a summer toilet powder requisite, priced at 25c, is invaluable for its cooling. soothing qualities, and for its many uses. These may both be obtained at The Franco-American Toilet Requisite Shop, 772 Brandeis Building.

Tucks are first choice in trimming for the light summer frocks.

Eckerman, left Thursday evening for Rudolph Johnson has gone to Nora, Neb., to spend a few weeks with his mother, Mrs. Jane Johnson, and sis-

The West Side Red Cross met at the church on Wednesday of this week instead of Thursday. The Ladies' Aid society will meet on

Miss L. Todd of Kansas City, Mo.,

Thursday next, to quilt all day.

at St. Joseph, Mo.

St. Louis, Mo.

ter, Esther Johnson.

Carlson and mother.

HOW a reputation for serving wholesomely cooked meals will tag one about! If you'll go into the new Pierce Cafe, for instance, you'll see identically the same faces as you saw at "The Flatiron" when Mrs. Pierce had that cafe in charge. It is no wonder, though, when one con-Pray let me assist in the flurry siders how the pleasure of the appetizing meals are enhanced by the cheerful hospitality and attentive service given—it's the "just like homeiness" which makes it so delightfully inviting. Mrs. Pierce always makes it a point to secure the best quality of food, and under her able and personal direction it is carefully prepared and properly cooked, If you want a thoroughly satisfactory luncheon, or dinner, do by all means go to this cafe at 218 South 18th St.,

ON MY visits about town it is such a pleasure to meet with one who has found that joy in business which really makes it worth while. One of my weekly calls is on Mrs. D. A. Hill, the corset specialist at 205 Neville Building. Not only does this lady have a thorough knowledge shop, but knows the particular style for one's type, which will produce a physiologically correct and artistic figure, and in these results lie the party dresses when we were wee who have been fitted to corsets by Mrs. Hill are loud in their praise of her conscientious work.

The high draped girdle is very THE thing of most importance in the conservative war-time trousseau is the tailored suit. As this must "GAD-BAGS." Have you seen serve so many occasions, it is quite them? The very last word in necessary that it be extremely smart them? The very last word in necessary that it be extremely smart Bagdom! I saw an array of gad- and well tailored. To be assured of a garment cut on fashionable lines and 18th Street. They're made of Chi- absolutely perfect fitting, one must nese-woven straw, lined, if you please, choose a tailor who is skilled in his art. Women, who have their tailored with pretty figured chintz and art. Women, who have their tailored trimmed with beads and tassels. Undecorated, these bags are $1.25. With 506 South Sixteenth Street, are unall the fixin's, $2.50. This shop also stinted in their praises of his clever

Plain and fancy velour are very

WHERE did you get them, my VV pretty maid"—"I got them at Loose-hanging back panels are in Napier's, ma'am," she said. And as she walked down the street, I could not but note the smartness of her dainty, white laced boots, with their winter wardrobe, the fourard white ivory welt soles, and threefourths inch Cuban heels, they were intrinsic actual usefulness cannot be so absolutely perfect fitting, and of that first quality of walking boot that fastidious women like. I did admire them so much; that I could not refrain from dropping into this fashioncertain to appeal to women who are able Booterie in the Securities Building, to get further details to tell you about today. Happy, indeed was & to find them moderately priced at $7. The stock number is No. 9704 should you wish to order a pair. Cash mail orders prepaid, subject to refund.

> Parasols are a very important item in a bride's trousseau.

BLUE birds for happiness!-What a delightful thought to be incorporated in a wedding present! The blue birds I speak of are embroidered on lunch cloths and napkins-a 45saw these at the fascinating shop of the Nippon Importing Company, 218 pleasant companions for rainy days, some very dainty china tea sets, too, that if you own one, you'll positively which would surely make any little

Charming mourning hats are made

You'll find jolly smocks for knitting or teas, and calico frocks the young miss to please-smart, little frockiesquite different, O! of the daintiest of old-fashioned calico-o! The buttongette hat seen in a Millinery Shop up-blouse-in-the-back is quite new, to see them you'll want quite a number DELICATE organdy and Georgette frocks may be saved from that figures, or just only dots; dozens and Sincerely.

-Advertisement the first of the week for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Seaman, and the Gray," Mrs. H. S. Miller presented the school in honor of her soldier husband a picture of the na Mrs. Josie Crouch of Merton, Wis., tion's six flags. The school had a for who has been the guest of Miss Ella program also. Roberts and aunt, Mrs. J. Blake in

Mr. M. Stalker of El Paso, Text was the guest Thursday of Mrs. A. M. Pittman and son, Minus.

Mrs. H. Wrieth gave a farewell family dinner on Friday evening in honor of her daughter, Mrs. R. G. Wilson, husband and daughters, Miss Ailene and Jeannette, of Kimberly, Idaho. Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Roy. Dennis entertained at a house party for Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Wilson and daughters prior to their return to was the week-end guest of Miss Marie their western home.

Carlson and mother.

Beals school was highly honored on Wednesday afternoon by having the Mrs. William Vickers and O. Wisler.

Webber, left for her home at Gris-wold, Ia., on Monday.

Mrs. Frank Dunn and children left triotig songs, each receiving a silk Miss Vera Bostick.