

SOUTH SIDE

A. STASKIEBICZ IS TO CELEBRATE HIS FIRST MASS

Procession to Form at South Side Rectory and Escort New Priest to St. Francis Altar.

Father Aloysius Staskiewicz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Staskiewicz, forty-second and L streets, was ordained as priest May 25, and will celebrate his first mass at St. Francis church, thirty-third and L streets, Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

A procession will form at the rectory and escort Father Staskiewicz to the altar of the church, where he will be assisted in the celebration of high mass by Father Gluba, rector of St. Francis parish, who will act as arch priest; Father Kalamaja, deacon, and Rev. Alex Grzyccowski, sub-deacon. Fellow seminarians will act as masters of ceremonies.

Following the services in the church, four altars will be erected in the open air, and a procession, which will include all of the societies of the church, will proceed from one altar to another, receiving at each altar the benediction of the church. Following the services a luncheon in honor of Father Staskiewicz will be given at the home of his parents.

At 3 o'clock a program by the school children of the parish will be given at the church, at the close of which Father Staskiewicz will receive presents from the church societies.

Father Staskiewicz is a graduate of St. Francis school. He continued his studies at the Franciscan college, Tan-tanopolis, Ill., and took a course at Pulaski seminary, Pulaski, Wis.

Red Cross Salvage Branch To Open South Side Office

The South Side branch of the salvage department of the Red Cross will open permanent headquarters at Eagle hall, Twenty-third and N streets, Thursday, June 6. Anyone wishing to make a donation may call South 237, and an expressman will call. The McKee Transfer company, the Reed Transfer company, and the Looney Express company will donate their services.

Mrs. Frank Furness is chairman, Mrs. Frank Ames, vice chairman, and Mrs. Roy Dennis, secretary and treasurer. Assistants will be Mesdames William Rott, F. Youngblood, John F. Moran, Fred Bowley, Sam Wells and Miss Dorothy Adkins.

South Side Board Notifies Draft Eligibles to Register

All South Side men within the jurisdiction of local exemption board No. 2, who have become 21 years of age since June 5, 1917, or who will have reached that age on and including June 5, 1918, are notified to appear for registration for the selective draft at the South Side city hall between the hours of 7 a. m. and 9 p. m., June 5. There will be no other registration day, and no excuses will be recognized by the board. Should illness prevent a registrant from coming to the city hall, a registration blank will be sent to the home.

South Side Brevities

A delegation of South Side live stock men will leave June 11 to attend the annual meeting of the Nebraska Live Stock Growers' association at Alliance, and the annual stockmen's meeting at Wheatland, Wyo. The party will return June 15.

A load of 40 tons, donated by farmers in the vicinity of Gibbons, Neb., was sold on the South Side market Saturday, the proceeds going to the home chapter of the Red Cross. The shipment weighed 7,600 pounds, and was sold to a local packer for $14.40 per 100 pounds, netting $1,135.84.

Beginning Monday, June 3, the South Side public library will be open from 10 a. m. to 8 p. m., except on Saturday, when it will remain open until 3:30 p. m. These are the usual hours for the summer months. The Red Cross work room will be open as usual for the night classes during the week beginning June 3, and workers are requested to use the side entrance.

Card of Thanks—We wish to thank our kind neighbors and friends for kindness shown and beautiful floral offerings, through illness and death of our dear sister and aunt.

Mrs. Nellie Redmond and family, Mr. Joseph Madson and family, Mr. Thos. Foley and Mary Foley.

Dinner at Fontenelle

In Compliment to Dimery

J. C. McNish was host to 32 Omaha business men at a complimentary banquet in honor of Martin W. Dimery at the Fontenelle hotel Saturday night. Mr. Dimery, who for several years has been secretary of the First Trust company of Omaha, leaves in a few days for Wyoming, where he will make his future home.

Mr. Dimery will have charge of the Wyoming banking affairs of the Industrial Security Corporation, of which Mr. McNish is president. He will be president and a director of the Farmers State bank at Riverton and have direct charge of four other banks in surrounding cities.

George W. Thummel, Ed W. Martin, Edward F. Leary and Byron Clark spoke briefly on behalf of the Omaha business men following the banquet, wishing Mr. Dimery success in his new field.
