OMAHA DEFEATS OKLAHOMA CITY BY SCORE OF 4-2

Neither Graham Nor Bentley Are Able to Check Nebraskaans, Who Permit But Four Hits.

Oklahoma City, Okla., June 5.—(Special Telegram).—The Omaha club proved its fighting spirit by bunching hits in the third inning and overcoming the "Sluggers" two-run lead, sewing the game up. The final score was 4 to 2. Hale was wild throughout, but managed to settle down in the pinches, allowing but four hits in the hard-fought duel. Walks were responsible for Oklahoma's two runs in the first inning. Three walks, a single and a sacrifice tell the story of how Oklahoma scored. In the third and fourth innings Hale allowed an Oklahoman a free walk in each and in the eighth inning he got himself into a hard hole by walking two others, but good support and a strikeout saved him. Graham pitched a steady game, but was not effective, allowing seven clean hits in as many innings. Both Graham and Hale managed to get four batters via the strikeout route. Graham allowed but one walk during the day and this was the first man up, who died at second when his three following teammates bit the dust in succession.

ZIBBIE DUE FOR LICKING OF LIFE, STECHER AVERS

Dodge Phenom Slightly Peevish at Tongue Babblings of Son of Poland and His Manager.

Joe Stecher is aroused. The fire of anger lights his usually mild, hazel eyes. Righteous wrath consumes his peaceful soul. In a word, Joseph is peevish. Wladek Zbysko, mighty son of Poland and prize pippin of the Jack Curley wrestling stable, is the inspiration of the wrath of Joseph. The babblings of Wladek's garrulous tongue are responsible. Wladek has been saying things about Joey. By word of mouth, the telegraph and the United States mail he has threatened to submit Joey to all kinds of physical torture June 12 when the two clash on the mat at the Omaha Auditorium. He has even intimated that he intends to tear the Dodge lad limb from limb. This charging of Zbysko's is not particularly soothing to the Stecher. Joey declares it is no way to talk about an opponent. It is real unprofessional as well as ungentlemanly. And Joey is peevish. He is so peevish that he is retaliating with a verbal onslaught of his own. Joey says that all the physical torture executed at the Auditorium June 12 will be executed by Joe Stecher. Zibby Due for Licking. "Zbysko is in for the licking of his life," Stecher writes to Omaha. "When we wrestle a two-hour draw in New York, Zbysko ran away from me. But that time he shall not run away. I intend to tear in and finish him as quickly as possible. "Zbysko says he will win the $1,500 bonus Car Marfisi offers for two falls. That bonus money will stay in Nebraska. It will only move from Omaha to Dodge. I am going to beat Zbysko two straight falls—and within that two hour and 30 minute time limit, too. A match with Caddock depends upon the outcome of this match. Everybody knows how anxious I am to meet Caddock again, so this is one match I intend to win conclusively." Seats for the match, Promoter Carl Marfisi reports, are selling rapidly. The advance sale has already reached $2,500, Marfisi declares, with prospects that it will reach $5,000 by Saturday. Seats are selling at this time much more rapidly than they were before the original match was called off. The box office at the Auditorium now is open from 9 in the morning to 9 at night. Seats also are sold at the leading hotels.

Three Omaha Men Named to Represent Tennis Body Here

Arthur Scribner, Jake Isaacson and R. R. Rainey of Omaha have been appointed to represent the United States National Lawn Tennis association in its campaign to direct the activity of the tennis public along constructive lines during 1918. The annual meeting decided to devote its efforts this season toward stimulating the junior and municipal tennis and toward maintaining club and association memberships as effective working forces for the development of the game. It was felt that such activity was the only way to meet the conditions imposed by the war. After the annual meeting the association secured as many suggestions as possible as to the men best fitted to work out this program locally. Mr. Scribner will have charge of junior tennis, Mr. Isaacson of municipal tennis and Mr. Rainey will be responsible for membership problems. These special representatives are appointed in the belief that they will have the co-operation of all the tennis interests in each community.

FIREMAN ON UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD TELLS EXPERIENCE

A tired, overworked stomach and kidneys, often produced by too much hastily eaten food, can cause innumerable ailments, among them being dyspepsia, nervous break downs, blood troubles and even rheumatism. People so affected, and there are thousands of them, are lousy and nervous and feel tired. They are worn out after a little exertion and are moody and depressed. They also are apt to suffer from sleeplessness and, as a general rule, lose rapidly in weight. These are symptoms of overworked vital organs, which need cleansing and toning up. The value of Tanlac in the treatment of this condition is evidenced by the testimony of many thousands from all over the country who have been benefited by it. Walter H. Christian, a well-known fireman on the Union Pacific railroad, living at 2316 Sahler street, Omaha, called at a Sherman & McConnell drug store recently and said: "My wife and I, as well as myself, are all taking Tanlac with the best of results. My appetite was very poor most of the time, I lost considerably in weight and often had dizzy spells. My blood seemed to be run down and impoverished, as for sometime I had been bothered with abscesses and had to be operated on as many as six different times for this trouble. I also suffered from painful, disordered kidneys, my back hurt me terribly and I was in such a run-down, weakened condition that I hardly knew what to do. "It finally made up my mind from what others said about Tanlac to try it. Well, my appetite picked up with the first bottle and then my pain and misery gradually disappeared. I have regained the eight pounds I had lost now and with the return of my strength the dizzy spells went away. I eat like a horse now and am hungry all the time. I am almost well already and believe another bottle or so of Tanlac will put me in tip top shape. All at my house think Tanlac is excellent medicine and take pleasure in recommending it to others." Tanlac is sold in Omaha by Sherman & McConnell Drug Co., corner Sixteenth and Dodge streets; Sixteenth and Harney; Owl Drug company, Sixteenth and Farnam streets; Harvard Pharmacy, Twenty-fourth and Farnam streets; northeast corner Nineteenth and Farnam streets, and West End Pharmacy, corner Forty-ninth and Dodge streets, under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative.—Advertisement.
