Methinks her face looks familiar, you will say, for no doubt you had luncheon with her the day before at the club, but her silk afternoon frock and droopy hat have been changed for serviceable khaki and a tiny aviator's cap rests lightly on her Marceled hair. For she is a member of the motor corps, if you please, serving her country with her knowledge of machines and her willingness to Presbyterian church, takes place this work early/ and late aiding those in

With the announcement that Omaha Red Cross would have a motor corps of its own, everyone is eagerly watching to see who will rally to the forces of the Red Cross cause and who will elect to serve under the Service league banner.

These motor corps are not local organizations alone, for they have been recognized by the army medical de-partment, and will be under the jurisdiction of the surgeon general. The call for recruits from the Omaha chapter of the Red Cross is very natural, as the American Red Cross motor corps of Washington has been called upon for co-operation in the work of the war department emer-gency division, for civilian employes day. and other emergency work.

Colonel Theodore; Omaha Bids You Welcome

People may disapprove at times of the Colonel's actions and utterances, but no one can question his Courage, Loyalty or Americanism. As long as people are interested in Who's Who or What's What, they will be glad to read about, listen to and honor THEODORE ROOSEVELT. OUR CITY WILL HONOR IT-SELF IN HONORING THIS GREAT CITIZEN.

We read much these days on Conservation—Essentials—Nonessentials-Economy and Wise War Time Expenditure. What is essential for the comfort and happiness of one, is wholly unnecessary to the welfare and happiness of the other. Simon Stylites was pleased to perch himself on top of a pillar and spend his days and nights there. Old Diogenes preferred to live in a cask and wear an old gunnysack for raiment. Neither of them HAD TO DO THESE THINGS, so it is fair to assume they followed their inclinations and desires.

> Prodigal Purchasing should be denounced by every true American. Wise Expenditure should be just as widely commended.

This Ad is not for the purpose of leading you into temptation, but to furnish a guidepost to wise economies at

THOMAS KILPATRICK & CO. ON SATURDAY

BARGAINS ARE NOT BARGAINS MERELY BECAUSE OF LOW PRICE QUOTATIONS-THERE MUST BE INTRINSIC VALUE, or THERE CAN BE NO BARGAIN. Our Suit Buyer purchased recently a lot of Fine Silk Suits, Taffetas, Poplins, Peau de Cygne, Etc., the very acme of fashion and just in the nick of time when wanted. Bought on basis of about 1/2 the real price value. Saturday's selling will be on about the same basis.

FIRST COLLECTION should sell at about $85.00 each. Choice will be offered for$47.50 each.

All high priced Wool Suits will be included at this price.

SECOND COLLECTION will be priced at $34.50, and it is our firm conviction that no such value has been seen'this season. Not only is the value exceptional, but in addition to the variety of Silk Suits you will find some choice Serges, Prunellas, Coverts, Etc. And oh, what a feast of beauty will be found in the immense gathering of Summer Dresses of Cotton as well as Silk, Daintiest of Organdies, Popular Voiles, Gingham Aristocrats, Finest of Foulards, Genuine Pussy Willow and the Price Range is as wide as the variety$5.95 to $57.50

All that is necessary to reach a Man, is AN APPEAL TO REASON. We made a Madras Shirt Buy that was simply a find. When you can in this year of Disgrace and in the month of June get hold of a shirt with soft, turn-back cuffs, made of summer Madras, popular patterns at $1.95, the reason for buying is furnished. THEY GO ON SALE SATURDAY.

HOT WEATHER UNDERWEAR

If you asked our advice we would feel compelled to tell you that we could not now come near to duplicating the purchase price, and that it is very unlikely that you will be able to come anywhere near Saturday's selling price for many a long day. WE ARE NOT GOING TO URGE YOU TO BUY.

WASH GOODS SECTION

You cannot be au fait without a Wash Skirt. We show by the yard Beach Cloth, Poplin, Gabardine, in white, plain colors and plaids. One long table heaped high with skirt lengths-makes easy picking—$1.25 to $2.50 each.

Dress Voiles, neat or elaborate designs—while present stock lasts price will be 35c-40 inches wide.

We confess it is tempting sometimes, when we see how easy it seems to be for some to get fancy prices, to add a little here and there to the prices. But JUST SO LONG as we have old qualities of Hosiery and Underwear for Women and Children owned at what are now old prices—to-wit, those of months ago—JUST SO LONG we will sell in THE KILPATRICK WAY. And JUST SO LONG it will not be necessary for us to do much advertising—for the Goods practically sell themselves. After High Noon each Saturday customers are frequently two and three deep, and still we cannot get people to trade in the mornings.

Special Sale of China in the Basement Saturday-Bread and Butter Size Plates, floral decorations, at 35¢ each formerly sold at 65c and 75c. Time was when we told with pride where this ware was made, the mere mention of name now affects sale. Bought when we were at peace with them and they with us. You would not think there would be feeling against an impersonal piece of China like a plate. Those who don't feel that way will recognize a great bargain.

And the famous La Jerz, $2.50.

So long since it rained—that is, before the present daily or nightly deluge-that Umbrellas on the street awakened almost as much curiosity as the first one did in London town in the long ago. There are still uses for the Rain Shedder. Saturday we sell a big lot, some with Sterling Silver handles, for $1.49 each. Just as useful to stave off Old Sol's rays. "A VERY TIMELY SALE," observer said a day or so since.

STILL PLAYING DUCKS AND DRAKES WITH PRICES OF TOILET PREPARATIONS

As long as the open season lasts we are going to stay right with them, and we won't attempt to palm off something else, either. You'll get just what we advertise, just as long as the supply lasts, and if, perchance, the other fellow advertises something else at a fool price, rest assured we will make just as foolish a price if we have the article. Put that in your pipe and smoke it MR. CUT PRICER, and we are seriously considering making the cutting permanent—Hind's Honey and Almond Cream, 34¢. Wright's Silver Cream, 17¢. In the far away Madeira Islands, before the war, the manufacturers had on hand large stocks of Linens, and when the Dogs of War slipped their leash, Mr. Worldly Wise Man bought more. "Ha! ha! said he, "now Mr. Merchant, I have thee on the hip, I'll be a profiteer!" But his well laid plans went agley. Practically every market in all this world was closed to him except America. And so he came with his wares over here. And here he found himself up against the inexorable law of supply and demand as a price fixer. Demand being limited, down went his prices-and so, a short time ago, we made the most marvelous purchase of Madeira Linens ever made by us-SALE ON SATURDAY. Price Guide

COBB AND HIS CANDY

What Mary Elizabeth did for Syracuse, Cobb has done for Omaha, and he has done it in the sweetest way. A lady visitor at our house a night or so ago, handed us a letter to read from a boy "Over There." It was a right cheerful letter—he was equally at home with Tommie and Poilu. He thanked her for a box of Cobb's; he said Johnny Crapaud may be as good a candymaker as he is a fighter, and that's going some; but he has nothing on Cobb when it comes to candy. Hurrah! for Omaha, dear old Omaha, and Hurrah! for Cobb!. By the way, British army officers report that the canteens at the front have experienced five times more demand for candy than was expected. You needn't be ashamed to send your boy a box of Cobbs. Many specials for Saturday. Telephone Douglas 51. "Cobb's."
