WICHITA BEATS OMAHA IN FIRST GAME OF SERIES

Kansans Bunch Hits on Kopp and Rourkes Take Small End of Score of Four to

Two.

Wichita, Kan., June 8 .- (Special Telegram.)-By bunching hits off Kopp in the fourth and seventh innings and with Wolfe's homer in the fifth frame, Wichita took the first game of the series from Omaha here today by the score of 4 to 2. Kopp pitched good ball for the visitors, but the local batting machine found him for eight bingles. Kopp was the star performer at bat for the invaders, getting four hits out of the same number of times at bat.

In the last of the third Manager Jackson was put off the field for crab-bing. Jackson did not agree with one of Umpire Myers' decisions and ar-gued himself out of the game and off Omaha took the lead in the initial frame by scoring one counter. Bashang led off for the visitors with a single to second. He went to second on Marr's error and scored when Donica singled to left field.

The invaders got their second and last run of the game in the sixth frame. Donica got first on an error Hansford walked and Donica took third on Carey's error. Defate forced Hansford at second and Donica scored on the play. The Wiches bunched three hits off Kopp in the fourth and ran in two scores. Berger started the frame with a single to left, After two men were out Carey stole second and scored on Corey's single to center. Coy also stole second and scored when Washburn singled. WICHITA. AB. SISLER TO CLIMB THRONE MINUTE COBB DESCENDS

Georgia Peach, Now Thirty-Two Years Old, Due to Slide Soon; Brown Star Ready.

By JACK VEIOCK.

New York, June 8 .- Ty Cobb is going on 32 years of age. Some of these fine days Ty will relinquish his throne as the peer of base ball players, for Old Pop Time gets all of 'em sooner or later.

And when the Georgia Peach cease to reign as the peer of all majo league players, both in the field and at the box office, who is going to step in and fill his shoes?

The answer depends largely upo where you ask the question, but

As a pitcher he in the fourth being due to an error, would be available about twice a week and the Browns would lose much of his valuable hitting. So far this season Sisler is showing to better advantage than ever before. It isn't that the batting or base run-

Smoky Joe Wood certainly deserves the success he is having as an outfielder for the Cleveland Indians. When Joe's arm went back on him he refused to draw his salary from the as no player has surprised it in many a year. He has worked hard to learn the fine points of outfielding and hit-ting and he is being well repaid now for the sacrifice he made.

Giants Said to Consider

The story that the New York Giants, after 11 years at Marlin, might select Hot Springs as their training camp next spring, is now followed by a new one. This is that if the war ends before next spring McGraw will take his team to California, possibly making an exhibition tour with the Chicago White Sox.

Game Each to Dodgers and Pirates. Brooklyn, June 8.—Brooklyn and Pitts-burgh divided a double-header here today the Pirates taking the first by a score of 7 to 1 and the Superbas winning the second, 2 to 1, in 12 innings. Costly errors behind Cheney gave the visitors a large lead in the opening game, while Miller of Pittsbuegh was effective throughout.

while Miller of Pittsbuegh was effective throughout.

Cadore and Hamon had a pitches' battle in the second game until the Brooklyn pitcher was taken out in the eighth for a pinch hitter. Grimes and Combs continued the good work. Brooklyn scored in the ninth, when Meyers' single sent home the tying run, and again in the twelfth, when, with Sanders pitching, Meyers singled and advanced to third on two outs and scored on Miller's infield hit. Carey scored for Pittsburgh in the fourth, when he doubled and scored from second while Stengel was being thrown out at first. Score:
