Marine Tells His Nurse Paris, June 10.—"We certainly got a few of them before they got us," said American marines and infantrymen wounded in the Bouresches-Veuilly fight, now in Paris hospitals, where the nurses marvel

AK-SAR-BEN GOAT GREETS COWBOYS FROM SOUTH SIDE

South Omaha Stockmen Are Shown a "Hot Time" at the Den by Dad Weaver and His Troopers.

One of the hottest nights in the history of Ak-Sar-Ben cut down the attendance to South Omaha night at the den show to about one-half of that of the opening night a week ago. The guests of the evening, the South Side stockmen, were alarmed by news of a fire at the stockyards, which kept many from attending. It proved of small consequence.

The crowd of the faithful who sweltered through the evening were rewarded by a performance much improved over that of a week ag. Show Runs Smoothly.

From the opening speech of Grand Mufti E. C. Paige to the final carefully staged patriotic tableau, the pride of Gus Renze's heart, all parts of the show went as smoothly as clockwork The opening burlesque, called the "Camp at Rum Bay," the hilarious circus, the great spectacular melo-drama, the "Burning of Berlin," and the last grand display, alternately amused and thrilled the audience.

The chorus under the direction of Bernard Johnston worked in excellent harmony. Johnston is asking for more singers for his chorus, as he stands to lose a good share of the present chorus through the draft. Singers are requested to call him at his residence after 6 o'clock in the evening at Walnut 3611.

Robert Buckingham, son of Everett Buckingham of the board of governors, is cast for a larger part in the show soon. Young Buckingham has been playing the part of the Inspector General in the "Camp at Rum Bay."

Membership Larger This Year. Samson now has 1,747 members, announced Everett Buckingham at the close of the evening's festivities. This number is considerably above Bruce McCulloch, for 28 years identified with editorial work at the
