CONCHA SNARES FULTON-DEMPSEY DERBY RACE IN MATCH PLEASING CLOSING EVENT TO BOXING FANS

Eight-Year-Old Mare Captures Mile Gallop After Stiff Contest With Paw and Alwick.

Prospect of 20-Round Decision Battle Makes Ring Followers Dream of Good Old Days.

Concha. an 8-year-old mare, carried off the big coin in the Ak-Sar-Ben derby, which was the feature of last night's jumping races at the Benson track, and set a new record of 1:431-5 for the mile. The new record for the Benson track is now about one second more than the state record. The bill of six running races made a glorious finish to America's first twilight race meeting. Our Queen, owned by Dr. Ross of Sioux City, made a sensational finish in the five furlong race for horses that had not placed first or second during the meet. Although the mare was at a disadvantage at the start, she quickly showed her class and finished several yards before the furiously lashing jockies and their steeds.

Cub Easy Winner. The Cub, chestnut stallion, was an easy winner in the five furlong weight for age event, in which Marcus was the second best contender for the purse. A sudden spurt away from the other two horses put Marcus in second position.

Paw and Alwick gave Concha a stiff race while Louis Paul, the fourth starter, broke just before the home sprint.

Fans Get Peevish.

Serious trouble from angry fans was threatened when Halderman, who started the four-furlong event, gave close race that followed, however, gave the fans a chance to forget it. to arise in an event of this kind. Ko-Ko-Hi and Ivan Mist, both owned by L. G. Pierce of Shenandoah, Ia.,

enticed 90 per cent of the iron men. Unconcern lived up to her name in the six-furlong event by running easily the first half of the race, forging ahead to third place, and then dashing across the finish the winner of the last race. Kimberly, a favorite on the odds, was left at the post.

C. C. Hall, secretary of the Omaha Driving club, which put on the meet announced that the club will come out about even on the financial end. Many of the horses will go to Lincoln for

By RINGSIDER. Chicago, June 15 .- And it has finally come to pass that they have been matched-the giant Fred Fulton and the Pacific coast walloper Jack Dempsey. Ever since the Fulton-Willard bout fell through the fans have been clamoring for the next best bet -a bout between Fulton and Dempsey. Now their desires should be satisfied. The two gladiators of the ring have been matched for a scrap at Danbury, Conn., July 4.

And the beauty of this scheduled fight is that it is to go twenty rounds. Now this means practically a finish fight, for when Fred and Jack get to working their pile drivers something ought to happen before the twenty rounds are over. In a scrap of that length one or the other ought to be able to land a haymaker. And if he does? well, it appears that the fight should end right there, with the recipient of the haymaker stretched out on the canvas, observing beautiful sunsets. If neither lands a knockout it will look like a loafing party.

If both are still on their feet at the end of twenty rounds a decision will be given by the referee. This should relieve the contest of possible taint. That the bout should go big seems assured. Joe Mulvhill, promoter, looks like a live wire. He has had a the order to stop and changed it. The lot of experience in the show line and knows all the angles that are likel-

At Fair Grounds.

According to present plans, the battle will be decided at the fair grounds within walking distance of the town of Danbury. The Danbury fair for years has been known throughout New England as the greatest fair held anywhere.

The town is situated ideally for this purpose. It has dozens of "feeders" within a short distance and all of them are good live fight towns that should turn out handsomely for a contest of this nature.

It is believed the fact that Dempsey and Fulton have signed for the Fourth in Danbury disposes of the proposed meeting there or in the vicinity between Benny Leonard, lightweight champion, and "Irish" Patsy Cline, one of the leading contenders for the title.

Walsh Raps Banties.

A great roar has gone up from Thomas Walsh that bantamweights of today are nothing but featherweights.

The banties are an interesting lot, especially in the east and the middle west, and as Walsh has a couple of them in his stable he is in a pretty fair position to judge.

Tommy has Joe Burman and Pal Moore. They are corking good boys who can make the weight limit of the class-116 pounds-easily. But, and here is the rub, none of the other banties can make the weight, and Walsh naturally puts up his protest. There is no question that Tommy is ight in the general size-up of his two men. Moore is a classy fighter and at the same time one of the ring's greatest freaks. Burman is not only a classy chap of high skill and speed, but is also one of the greatest punchers the division ever knew.

Walsh showed the seeming injustice of the weight problem at the Burman-Schneider bout the other night.

No Even Breaks.

"I didn't get anything like an even oreak in the weights," said Walsh. 'I had to take this bout at 119 at 3 o'clock, which let Schneider in the ing as a full-sized featherweight." This bout at Peoria is a sample of what Burman and Moore, legitimate bantams, have been up against for the last two years. Not in that length of time has either of them been able to find a man who would box him at 116 pounds. For example, Young Chaney, the Baltimore star, came in at 120 some time ago, and when Dick Loadman boxed Moore he wouldn't do lower than that figure. Matt Hinkle staged ertised two of his three 10-round vie Miller shouldn't be classed as a bantam, for he admits he is a featherweight, but the remainder of them, following figures on the scales: Joe Lynch, 120 at 3; Benny Valger, 122 at 3: Willie Devore, 123 at 4. All of them are in Johnny Kilbane's class.
