-The offening for today at the Apollo is the superfeature film, "The Whip," one of the largest companies and the greatest assortment of stage properties of recant times having been sathered together in this production. The plot of the story deals with the life of a famous racing king and his driver. In spite of the fact that its size and splendor of production over-shadows the merit of the play itself there is reality a very vivid and interesting love drama involved which has been well acted and well carried out. and well carried out.

Alhambra-Bessle Barriscale in "Blindfolded," will appear here for the last times today. The play is a powerful drama which depicts the upbringing of a little girl to be an expert safe robber and crook. Miss Barriscale does some fine acting as she depicts the character awakening of the girl when she discovers that there are other and better codes of morals than the one which she has learned from the "Ear" and dramatic scenes are portrayed as she into the paths of right,
