Nebraska Lands OURTEEN miles north of Crawford, 480 acres. Fully 400 acres are farmable and most of this cuts good hay. The other 80 acres drops down on Lone Tree creek and is heavily grassed, but a little rough. This is an excellent small ranch proposition or a most avealing. a most excellent farm proposition, or a farm and ranch combined. The soil is a heavy Pierre clay soil excellent for wheat and alfalfa or in fact any small grain crop, but a little heavy for cultivated crops. This place is fenced and has a small barn for four head of horses, but no other improvements. $14 per acre, with one-third to one-half cash will handle this. Right joining this on the west I have 240 acres with fully 220 acres farmable. The other 20 drops down on the Lone Tree creek. This place is also fenced and has well and windmill but no other improve-ments. This is also heavily grassed and cuts good upland hay. $15 per acre on terms of one-half cush takes this. Arah L.
