New York, June 21.—The war work councils of the Young Men's Christian association and the Young Women's Christian association decided today to inaugurate a nation-wide co-operative campaign for $115,000,000, to be used in the prosecution of their respective war activities.

State Much Interested

In War Savings Movement The War Savings society movement is gaining momentum daily and the people are rapidly becoming converted to the plan. The reports from the state are greatly encouraging those who are in charge of the work and angur well for the success of the drive culminating June 28, indications are that Nebraska's quota of 10,000 societies will be more than reached on that day. After the purpose of the plan is understood no great difficulty is experienced in enlisting people to as support.

CADDOCK WINS LEWIS MATCH ON POINT DECISION

Referee Declares He Is Better Man. 105 to 35. After Two and Half Hours' Contest at Des Moines.

By F. S. HUNTER.

Des Moines, June 21.—(Special Telegram.)—Earl Caddock retained aid to some suffering Little one as his title of wrestling champion of the surely as though you delivered the world by defeating Ed ("Strangler") Lewis here tonight when Referee Ed W. Smith gave him a decision at the Mary Lyman ..... 5.00 science of the champion gave him the decision. He clearly outpointed his heavier and stronger opponent.

The decision was obvious almost from the start, as Lewis never had a chance. Four times Caddock threatened Lewis with mortal danger. Early in the bout by an eye deceiving shift he clamped his celebrated head scissors on Lewis and the Strangler barely wiggled free before his shoul-ders touched the mat. Breaks Toe Holds.

Twice Caddock obtained a deadly toe hold upon Lewis. Both times the Strangler writhed in pain as Earl applied the pressure, but each time, by a mighty effort Lewis gained his

Then again, while both wrestlers were on their feet, Caddock got a double wrist lock, and that, too, threatened destruction to Lewis until the Strangler's wonderful strength broke it.

Not once did Lewis threaten and only once did he clamp his famous head hold. Then Caddock worked free with seeming ease.

The head hold as far as tonight's match was concerned was just what Omaha fans have always believed itmere camouflage. The match was fast and furious and inclined to be rough. Lewis, contrary to expectations, was willing to mix it and some rough-andtumble romps were staged. Also the Strangler had a tendency to rough Caddock. The champion wasted no time in retaliating each time the Strangler got frisky. The result was some rough but nifty
