

OSTEOPATHS CAN NOT ADMINISTER DRUGS, SAYS REED

Attorney General Rules They Cannot Prescribe Without Supervision of Licensed Physician.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
Lincoln, June 24.—(Special.)—An osteopath cannot lawfully prescribe or administer drugs of any kind or character, according to Attorney General Reed, who in answer to a letter of inquiry by Dr. J. J. Hompes, secretary of the advisory board to the state board of health, gives the following opinion:

"The American School of Osteopathy at Kirksville, Mo., is the parent college of the system of osteopathy in this country, and the statutes of Missouri recognize osteopathy as a system or science of treating human diseases, and declare such system or science not to be the practice of medicine and surgery, within the meaning of the act regulating the practice of medicine and surgery in that state. The law of Nebraska, however, provides that surgery must be included in the course of study in any legally chartered school of osteopathy.

"In the schools of learning teaching medicine in its different branches, an essential part of the instruction is in teaching the nature and effects of medicines, how to compound and administer them, and for what maladies they are to be used. Without a knowledge of medical agencies, no person can be deemed equipped to practice medicine by any medical college; for these things lie at the base of the instruction given in such schools.

"I am of the opinion, therefore, that an osteopath cannot lawfully prescribe or administer drugs of any kind or character, as such acts would constitute the practice of medicine and, under the law of this state, such person would be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof would be subject to a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $300, together with costs of prosecution for each offense. However, surgery being one of the branches osteopaths are required to know, under the law of this state, it would seem that they can practice this branch, but are prohibited from administering drugs; and inasmuch as one cannot safely practice surgery without administering a drug, as the law now stands they are not permitted to perform surgical operations without the personal supervision and assistance of a regularly licensed and practicing physician and surgeon."

Letter From Jusserand Praises Boy Choristers For Splendid Work

REV. WILLIAM J. FINN.

While eighty young boys of the Paulist Choristers were lending their voices for French and Belgian Relief at the Auditorium Monday evening Ambassador Jusserand at Washington was sending a check just received from the Paulist Choristers to the conductor of the choir, he said he was so overcome by the efforts of the small boy choristers that he intended sending the check last received from the choir to the little orphans of France.

PAULIST CHOIR IS WELCOME TO OMAHA

Chicago Boys' Organization Affords Much Musical Pleasure in Concert at the Auditorium.

By HENRIETTA M. REES.

The Paulist Choristers of Chicago, Father William J. Finn, conductor, gave a most interesting concert at the Auditorium last evening for the benefit of France, which has suffered so intensely in the war. It is seldom nowadays that the opportunity is given to hear boy choirs and it is even more seldom that we are privileged to hear one of such proportions and achievements as this organization from Chicago.

This choir is unique in the number of its boy sopranos, and the unusually lovely quality of their tones. There is a spirituality to their high notes which ever impresses anew with the very miracle of it, and a purity of quality which is only found in the voices of young boys.

The choir is well balanced in the various parts, the voices of the tenors and basses contrasting and blending with excellent effect with those of the boys. The program was sung entirely without notes and was one which reflected a great deal of credit upon both the choir and its conductor.

Notable among the choral numbers were the two Russian hymns of the first group, "Cherubic Hymn," by Gratchaninoff, and "Judgment Day," by Archaugelsky, a 10-part motet, "Praise Ye the Lord," by Rachmaninoff, and "The Devil's Awa," by Delamarter. "All Breathing Life," by Bach was another brilliant choral number deserving mention.

Mr. Dunford, basso-cantante, in two solos, displayed a voice of beautiful quality and wide range, which he used to advantage, and Mr. Egan, tenor, won deserved applause and encores in his turn. The greatest interest was displayed in the boy soloists, Master Hallett Dolan, whose angelic tones will linger long in the memory of those who heard him; Master Joseph Walsh, Master Dick Finn and Master William Hallissey, all of whom sang with that same ease and beauty of head tone which made their singing an understandable delight. Father Finn has given much attention to developing the tone quality of his choir, to securing effective attack, and to the production of volume without forcing the voices.

Boys and men alike were dressed in the uniform of France, and seated beneath a huge banner upon which the various flags of the allies were displayed, the choir made an unusual picture, their bright uniforms contrasting vividly with the clerical black of the conductor. Other military touches were found throughout the program, in the encores of the soloists, and in the "Marseillaise" and "The Star Spangled Banner," both of which were sung at attention by the choir.

KING AK YIELDS TRAIN TO UNCLE SAM

Troops on Move and Visitors to Den Come in Regular Convoys; Show Pleases the Crowd

Not every one gets a chance to buy a special train and then surrender it the same day to Uncle Sam. Yet that is the honor under which Henry R. Gering, Ak-Sar-Ben booster, is staging.

Gering hired a special train for Ak-Sar-Ben from the Burlington to transport the large delegation from Plattsmouth to the Ak-Sar-Ben den Monday night. But Monday morning steps Uncle Sam and announces that King Ak-Sar-Ben XXIV might be a perfectly good enough monarch in his own little realm, but when it came to the movement of United States troops, the king might find it more convenient to make other arrangements for the transportation of his guests, etc., and so on.

And so the king, in the person of Henry R. Gering, graciously consented. The present week is the heaviest for months in the movement of troops, government officials conveyed to Gering.

So it happened that the Plattsmouth delegation to Plattsmouth and Nebraska City night at the den Monday evening was not quite so large as expected. But at that and in spite of the rain, a large and enthusiastic crowd of initiates from Plattsmouth and Nebraska City arrived at the Burlington station Monday evening at 8:30. They were immediately taken to the den in special street cars under the guidance of F. W. Fitch's reception committee.

At the den a special adaptation of the show to suit the guests and with good-natured gibes at prominent citizens of the two towns to the south was put on. A half-hour wrestling match between two Omaha amateurs gave a pleasing variety to the evening's entertainment.

This same wrestling match proved to be one of the biggest hits of the evening. C. E. Seely of the Young Men's Christian association and Joe Tell were the principals, with H. H. Cannon acting as referee.

Speeches were delivered just before the raising of the curtain on the "Burning of Berlin," by S. P. Cressap of Nebraska City, J. L. Marshall of Douglas, Neb., and H. E. Schneider, mayor of Plattsmouth. Charles Black, as usual, was master of ceremonies.

The patriotic tableau at the end of the evening's performance sent a thrill through the audience. Walter Adams represents "Columbia," R. T. Henderson, "Britannia," A. W. Wahlstrom, France and Arnold Wahlstrom, Italy.

A delegation from Kennard, Neb., and visiting delegates to the state convention of the Nebraska Mink Shooters' meet, will be the guests at next Monday evening's show.

Samson's members now number 1,838 as a result of another membership drive conducted Monday afternoon. The hustling committee met at a luncheon and a campaign meeting at the Hotel Castle Monday noon. W. D. Hosford, chairman of the membership committee, outlined the plan of campaign. "Dad Weaver distributed the cigars and pep.

The hustling team, composed of John Hogan, Albert F. Rasp and Joseph L. Duffy, holds first honors for securing members. Up to Monday noon this team had 225 members to its credit, 12 more than its nearest competitor.

MRS. ETHEL CLARK GAINS 30 POUNDS TROUBLES ENDED

Hardly Had Enough Energy To Move Around Before Taking Tanlac, She Says.

"Tanlac has put me in shape to where I have gained thirty pounds and now I'm feeling just as well as I ever did in my life," said Mrs. Ethel L. Clark, while in a Sherman & McConnell drug store, recently. Mrs. Clark has lived in Omaha for fifteen years and conducts a lunch and confectionery store at 4569 Cuming street.

"I have suffered so much from nervousness and stomach trouble during the past nine months," Mrs. Clark continued, "that I lost twenty-six pounds in weight and hardly had strength to move around. I lost my appetite completely and the gas on my stomach made me so miserable I couldn't enjoy eating anything. What little sleep I got seemed to do me no good and I felt more tired and worn-out in the mornings than when I lay down at night. My condition distressed me no little, as I was getting to where it was difficult for me to carry on my business and provide a living for myself and children.

"I had heard lots about Tanlac and decided the only way for me to find out whether it was any good or not was to try it. So I tried it and the results have been astonishing. My appetite came back after the first few days and soon I found I was getting back my lost weight and strength. Gas stopped forming on my stomach and eating soon got to be a pleasure again. I sleep like a child every night now and get up in the mornings feeling fine and full of energy. I can work all day without feeling any the worse from it and, do you know, I have not only gotten back the twenty-six pounds which I had lost, but I have actually gained four pounds besides, making a total gain since I began on Tanlac of thirty pounds. Now this is what Tanlac has done for me and I cheerfully recommend it to everybody."

Tanlac is sold in Omaha by Sherman & McConnell Drug Co., corner Sixteenth and Dodge streets; Sixteenth and Harney; Owl Drug company, Sixteenth and Farnam streets; Harvard Pharmacy, Twenty-fourth and Farnam street; northeast corner Nineteenth and Farnam streets, and West End Pharmacy, corner Forty-ninth and Dodge streets, under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative.—Adv.

In most cases these are the danger signals to warn you that the kidneys are not promptly doing their work of throwing off the poisons that are always forming in the body. To neglect these natural warnings is a crime against yourself. If you have these symptoms you can find prompt relief in GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. For more than 200 years this has been the recognized remedy for kidney and bladder ailments.
