STORM BLOCKS ROURKE CLASH IN THE SECOND

Score Stands 4 to 3 in Favor of Jackson's Tribe, When Darkness and Rain Interfere.

The Rourkes started out to win another ball game yesterday. But the weather man took a hand in the sec-end stanza with the result that the efforts of our boys were a total loss.
Patrick Mason, utility player extraordinary, was the chief mourner. Pat had just made a three-base blow with two men on the sacks. Now the three sacker doesn't count.
It all happened this way.

The Rourkes started to pound Hinkley in the first inning. Bashang started the festivities with a walk. He took second on Jackson's out. Han-sord also went out, but Callahan walked. Then Patrick poled his triple to center. It was a pippin of a blow

After this, Holderman was hit by a and Mason came home on Tony De-fate's safety to left. Four runs. Manske Gets Wild.

The Sioux began to threaten in the econd when Manske became wild. nter, the first man up, singled. en Manske walked Smith, Stewart wild pitch which scored another oux and Rohrer's sacrifice fly still Hanford started the year like demon. He banged the pill at a .350 clip and starred in the field. Then a slump overtook him and he seemingly could not recover. His batting slumped to below .250 and he couldn't regain his stride.

This, coupled with the fact that Hanford is an expensive man and these are days of retrenchment, led to his release. Harry Donica, third sacker, will
