Berlin Foreshadows Another Bombardment Of Rheims Cathedral

Berlin, June 27.—"The enemy's ob-servers have again been seen on the Rheims cathedral," says the German official statement tonight.

Announcement by the German high command that enemy observers have been seen on Rheims cathedral is usually the preliminary to a bombardment of that edifice. The French authorities have denied that the cathedral was ever used for observation purposes.

There is little left of the edifice but the west front and the pillars.
