Strand—"The Firefly of France," played by Wallace Reid and Ann Little, tells a thrilling story of a young American wife is on his way to France to join the Ambulance corps and becomes entangled with German spice, while he is made to suspect that a young woman traveling to France is the spy agent of the kaiser. The woman is really on he way to the front lines to find certain papers which have become lost while in charge of an aviator known as "The Firefly." The finding of these papers and the desperate battle put up by the American to protect them and the girl from the bands of the German spy group who propose to run through the French lines into-Germany. At the moment of the challenge by the French sentry and the Americans cry that they are spies, a sell explodes and when the youthful hero awakes he is in a hespital under the care of the sirl of the story.
