

REALTORS TELL OF CONVENTION AT MOUND CITY

F. A. Shotwell Repeats Five-Minute Speech Delivered in Competition at National Meeting at St. Louis.

Delegates who attended the annual convention of the national real estate board at St. Louis last week, addressed the regular meeting of the Omaha Real Estate board Wednesday, giving their experiences, and imparting to those who remained at home some of the new ideas and impressions they had received at the gathering.

C. F. Harrison, Mr. Shotwell and C. G. Carlberg were among the speakers and the synopsis of the meeting, which they presented, was a word picture of the proceedings of the body. Many valuable suggestions were made as a result of conferences with visiting delegates from all over the country and new methods were discussed.

F. A. Shotwell was called upon to repeat his five minute speech which he delivered at the competitive contest at St. Louis and he responded so eloquently that it was the consensus of those present he should have been awarded the prize, which went to a member of the Los Angeles Real Estate board.

Mr. Shotwell had strong competition as some of the most eloquent speakers in the country had been drafted to put their cities on the map in words of glowing eloquence.

New Three-Story Building For Security State Bank

The growth of business of the Security State bank on the South Side has been such as to necessitate new quarters.

The bank has let the contract for the erection of a new home, 25x75 in dimensions, at 4313 South Twenty-fourth street.

It will be three stories in height, and the clerical force will work in offices situated on balconies above the main banking floor. The interior of the building will be in the shape of a well, insuring perfect lighting and ventilation.

Work on the new structure will begin right away and the new edifice, exclusive of the lot, will cost over $20,000 when completed.
