

15 STOLEN CARS FOUND AND GANG UNDER ARREST

Omaha Police Make Biggest Single Haul on Record, With Prospect of Recovering Ten More Machines.

Four men are under arrest and several other arrests will be made within 24 hours in what police say is the biggest raid on automobile thieves ever made in Nebraska. Fifteen automobiles have been recovered and detectives expect to locate at least 10 more. The stolen cars were located in the vicinity of West Point.

How Gang Was Discovered.

A. J. Tread, a traveling salesman, informed the automobile detectives that he was offered a car at a very low price in West Point and asked if it was a stolen car before purchasing. The Omaha detectives immediately asked Sheriff Sexton of Cuming county to arrest the men in possession of the car. Completing the investigation with the assistance of the sheriff they discovered several more machines.

An S. O. S. call was made to squad and Detective Rich of the auto squad and Charles Pipkin, an automobile insurance adjuster, joined in the search. Two days and one night were spent by the detectives and sheriff in locating the cars. All

Harrison Gets Gay on Visit To St. Louis and is Pinched

You can't tell how men will act when away from home. C. F. Harrison, one of Omaha's leading realtors, and a prospective warden of the Congregational church, came within an ace of being haled before police court, while attending the national convention of real estate men in Anheuser-Buschville last week.

At home he is one of the most staid of men, and one whom no one would accuse of possessing joy-riding propensities.

At St. Louis he had as a host one of the prominent real estate dealers of that thriving little burg. The St. Louis man possessed a car that was some boat in looks and performance.

weré stolen off the streets of Omaha. Lee Overbee, 1213 South Sixteenth street, was arrested as leader of the gang. Police allege that he takes the stolen cars to West Point, where they are turned over to a garage for sale to farmers as second hand cars.

Machines Await Owners.

A partial list of the stolen cars includes the machines of the Swoboda bakery, Haynes, stolen June 25; J. W. Handy, R. R. 5, South Omaha, Oakland, stolen June 21; J. H. Fitzgerald, Florence, Ford, stolen June 13; A. T. Amluxen, 1502 Spruce street, Ford, stolen June 26; Roy Sarchet, Algona, Ia., Ford, stolen June 22; Arthur Gottsch, Washington, Neb., Ford, stolen June 26; and A. O. Smith, 1338 South Twenty-fourth street, Ford.

The yard at the police station is filled with the stolen machines awaiting identification of the owners.

He was proud of his go-cart and Brother Harrison was treated to a ride around the periphery of the village in the 18-karat scooter. It is alleged that he used some persuasion on his host in making the latter give the machine a real tryout and while they were going at the rate of 'steem miles and something per minute a traffic cop arrested the bunch.

Abe Warwick Released Showing $3,500 Gems His Personal Property

When Abe Warwick, colored, hastened to Council Bluffs late Friday night following a quarrel with his wife whom he wedded less than two weeks ago, he carried more than $3,500 worth of diamonds and jewelry. He traveled from Omaha in a taxicab, and when the wife learned of his flight she asked the Bluffs police to arrest him, alleging that the valuables belonged to her. Saturday morning she came to Council Bluffs and told her story at police headquarters. She said her name was Ethel Lane, and made no mention of her marriage.

Warwick told the police the gems were his personal property and that he had only permitted his new wife to wear some of the jewels. The woman returned to the station an hour or two after the arrest and confirmed his story. He was released and the gems returned to him. His wife accompanied him on the return to Omaha. She is in training to become a professional nurse.

LODGE ROOM NEWS OF GREATER OMAHA

Omaha Lodges of Workmen Laying Plans for Picnic to Be Held at Manawa Next Month.

The annual picnic of the Omaha lodges of the Ancient Order of United Workmen, Iowa jurisdiction, will be held July 20th at Lake Manawa, under the auspices of the central committee.

Omaha lodge No. 8 and Patten No. 173 have dedicated their new altar drapes, and Union Pacific No. 17, Gate City No. 198 and North Omaha No. 9 lodges have all entertained with cards, dancing and refreshments at their last meetings.

Council Bluffs lodge No. 270 entertained the supreme foreman, at which time they initiated a large class, having the Omaha members as guests and this proved to be a treat to the Omaha visitors, who have been unable themselves to initiate for the last year, owing to the restraining order. The several committees of the lodges are working in conjunction with the central committee on the matter of celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of the order. The grand lodges of the jurisdictions have all made plans for the sending of representatives to the national celebration at Philadelphia in October.

American lodge No. 99 announces that it will meet on the first and third Thursdays of each month, instead of Wednesdays, as heretofore.

Tribe of Ben Hur. Mecca Court No. 13, Tribe of Ben Hur, will give a dancing party in the Hanscom park pavilion July 4. There will be a picnic dinner at 6 o'clock. Spanish war veterans, wives and friends will hold an old-fashioned basket picnic and reunion July 4, at Fontenelle park, where the veterans have been invited to raise the flag and to fire the flag salutes. Every veteran should attend.
