BEAUTIFUL in its simplicity was the wedding of Miss Katherine Gould, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Gould, and Captain Robert T. Burns, which took place Saturday evening at All Saints' church. Bishop Arthur L. Williams, assisted by Rev. T. J. Mackay, officiated.

Palms and ferns formed a lovely setting of green at the altar, while the large silver vases were filled with pink roses. Mr. J. H. Simms played for half an hour preceding the ceremony, and as the first strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march sounded through the church, Miss Ruth Anderson entered, a lovely picture in her gown of lavender organdy and picture hat of the same shade—in her hands a shower bouquet of golden-hearted daisies.

The bride was most attractive in her gown of white organdy trimmed with French lace, her veil, a mist of tulle falling to the bottom of her skirt. The delicate pinks of the sweet peas combined with the pure whiteness of the lilies of the valley made her bridal bouquet a thing of loveliness.

Captain Malcolm Baldrige of Camp Dodge attended the bridegroom as best man. The ushers included Mr. Samuel Burns, Mr. Lawrence Brinker and Mr. Louis Clarke.

After the ceremony a few intimate friends of the young couple were entertained at the home of the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Charles T. Kountze. The gardens of the Kountze home was the scene of this nuptial affair, and the intimate friends of Captain and Mrs. Burns extended their good wishes in a delightfully informal way. Just as the moon appeared over the treetops, touching the bridal couple with silver rays, the last goodbyes were said, and the young captain and his bride ran down the garden walk to the waiting motor, as they left late for the east for a bit of a honeymoon. They will be at home at Camp Dodge for the present.

Wedding of Former Omahan

Five little maids, all gowned alike in fluffy dresses of pink and white organdy were the bridal attendants of Miss Louise French, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. French of Des Moines Monday evening when she became the bride of Mr. Edwin J. Hardy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hardy of Chicago, formerly of Omaha.

Four of the little attendants scattered rose leaves in the path of the bride while the fifth carried the wedding ring in a rose. Very demure were the little girls as they walked sedately down the aisle of the First Baptist church in Des Moines to the altar, with its beautiful decoration of palms and ferns intermingled with pink roses.

Mrs. Fred C. Hill of Omaha, sister of the bridegroom, sang preceding the ceremony. Rev. Howland Hanson performed the ceremony.

An informal reception was held at the home of the bride after the wedding when 150 guests attended. After a short wedding trip the young couple will be at home in Chicago.

Pritchard-Sullivan Nuptials.

At St. Michael's church, in Spalding, Neb., Tuesday morning nuptial mass was read for Miss Anna Sullivan of Spalding and Thomas Pritchard of Omaha. The bride, very demurely dressed in white georgette crepe with a tulle veil, was attended by sister, Miss Estella Sullivan, who wore flesh colored georgette, with hat to match. Both carried roses and lilies. Little Miss Pauline Cronin was ring bearer. The groom was attended by his brother, Stanley Pritchard. Father Galvin officiated.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride to about 100 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Pritchard have gone to Colorado on a wedding trip, and after August 1 will make their home at 2422 Saratoga street.

The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Fritchard, Agnes and Stanley Pritchard, Gertrude Sullivan and Hannah Cronin, all of Omaha, and Miss Helen Smith of Sioux City, Ia.

Society Girl, Enthusiastic War Worker: Announces Betrothal

Of unusual social interest is the betrothal of Miss Amy Gilmore to Mr. Robert Switzer, formally announced Friday by Dr. and Mrs. Robert Gilmore.

Since the days when the bride-to-be attended Brownell Hall and later National Park seminary in Washington, she has been considered one of Omaha's most charming daughters.

Her entire time for the last year has been devoted to patriotic work. Not content with the responsibility of vice chairman of the Nebraska Red Cross warehouse and the position of captain of the Friday unit at the Fort Omaha canteen, she has completed many unique scrap books, with jokes, verses and cartoons to regale the convalescent soldiers in military hospitals, and, after that, found time for considerable patriotic knitting.

Her marriage to Mr. Switzer will unite two prominent pioneer families. Mr. Switzer, who is an alumnus of the University of Nebraska, academic and law departments, has been active in Liberty and War Savings stamp campaigns. He is a member of Phi Kappa Psi fraternity and has been mentioned for the democratic nomination for congress.

No definite date has been set for the wedding, but plans are being made for the near future.

Song of Substitutes

"Sing a song of stimpence
On the pantry shelves
Are forty thousand substitutes
Into which we delve
To find one that isn't gummy, black and coarse and gritty,
But the 'bix' are worth it,
And we're glad to sacrifice.
The bread is sure a standby
In more ways than one;
The cake is not much better,
But is twice as good as none
The pie I'm glad to say
In truth excel the cake
But are far from the kind
That 'mother used to make.'"

We're asked to can the corn and beans
And can all we can get
And we must watch the golden fruit
And eat that too, you bet;
But how we're going to sweeten it
On half a pound per week
Mr. Hoover hasn't told us
Will he please rise up and speak.

We're going to can just everything
If we sweeten it or not,
We're going to can the Kaiser
We have him in the pot;
This is just a bit of pleasantry
That came into my head
But we sure will kiss Old Glory
When we can have white bread.

HOW TO JUDGE A W-MAN BY HER HAIR

There is real common sense in just noticing whether the hair is well kept to judge of a woman's neatness, or good taste. If you are one of the few who try to make the most of your hair, remember that it is not advisable to wash the hair with any cleanser made for all purposes, but always use some good shampoo. You can enjoy the very best by getting some Canthrox from your drug-gist, dissolve a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water. This makes a full cup of shampoo liquid, enough so it is easy to apply it to all the hair instead of just the top of the head. Dandruff, excess oil, and dirt are dissolved and entirely disappear. Your hair will be so fluffy that it will look much heavier than it is. Its luster and softness will also delight you, while the stimulated scalp gains the health which insures hair growth.—Adv.

From all the chapters of Nebraska, 372 boxes, constituting two carloads of surgical dressings and knitting were shipped to the American Red Cross in Paris, during the past week.
