

POLISH MISSION PAYS RESPECTS TO THE GOVERNOR

Four Officers Seeking Recruits, Escorted to Capital by F. J. Kutak of Omaha and Miss Hrbkova.

From a Staff Correspondent. Lincoln, June 29.—(Special).—Four Polish lieutenants, escorted by F. J. Kutak of Omaha and Miss Sara Hrbkova of Lincoln, called on the governor today to pay their respects and also to obtain his approval for the work which they expect to do in this state toward arousing a sentiment among their countrymen for enlistment in an independent organization which will go to France, to assist in winning the war for the allies.

But one of the men could speak English, although all could understand it somewhat. Miss Hrbkova acted as interpreter. The men formerly were soldiers in the Austrian army, but deserted and went to Russia. As soon as they could they went to France and have been serving in the French army. All have been wounded and while recovering will aid in the work of enlisting their countrymen in America. Omaha will be headquarters in this section, while Chicago will be headquarters for the middle west.

Parole Violator Goes To Prison at Beatrice

Beatrice, Neb., June 29.—(Special).—"Boscoe" May, who violated his parole at Wymore by getting intoxicated and becoming disorderly, was sentenced to twenty days in the county jail by Judge Woolsey. Announcement was received of the marriage of Miss Minnie Dierks of this city and L. W. L. Crosson of the 133d infantry, at Deming, N. M., Tuesday. Lieutenant Crosson's home is at Hastings and he formerly operated the Lyric theater. Emil Schultz, editor of Die Nebraska Post, will discontinue the publication of this week's issue. He was given until July 1 to print the paper in English, but he claims that it would be unsuccessful. Mr. Schultz has been at the head of the publication here twenty-one years.

Nebraska Soldiers Can Not Be Grouped in Time To Vote in the Primary

From a Staff Correspondent. Lincoln, June 29.—(Special).—American soldiers in France will not be able to vote in the Nebraska primary for the reason that the War department will not be able to gather the names of the Nebraska men in time. There are over 3,000,000 names in the lists, and as they are not arranged by state and only alphabetically, it will be a long task to secure a complete list. Gov. Neville has returned from Washington and says that the War department heartily coincides with the plan as laid down by the governor. Adjutant General McCain said he had already issued an order for grouping the names of the soldiers by states. This will not be available until September 1, at least.

100 Hebron Home Guards Busy Helping Out Farmers

Hebron, Neb., June 29.—(Special).—One hundred strong, the Hebron home guards are each afternoon helping the Thayer county farmers handle the wheat crop. The organization is composed of business and professional men who work every afternoon from the close of business until dark. Under Captain Harvey Hess the guardsmen go in squads of 25. A squad will travel in cars until it finds a farmer who is overcrowded with work. They stop the cars and within a few hours after they go to work the farmer finds that his wheat is all neatly shocked.

Four of 72 Draft Men Fail To Appear at Falls City

Falls City, Neb., June 29.—(Special).—Four in the list of 72 drafted men did not appear to accompany the others to Camp Funston and Fort Riley. Three have not been heard from and are Peter Mahan, Linton, N. D., Emmett Woodworth of Humboldt who left three weeks ago for the harvest field in Weatherford, Okla.; Thomas J. Ahern at Washington, James Gotees of Casper, Wyo., was heard from in a hospital in Omaha. Two men were selected to take their places as they had two extra ones on first list. The two new ones are to go on July 1, and they are Frank Young of Verdon and Marinus E. King.

York County Wheat Yield Only 10 to 20 Bushels

York, Neb., June 29.—(Special).—Wheat harvest has begun in York county. While there is more acreage in the county than ever known, the yield will be from 10 to 20 bushels of fall wheat, Spring wheat is not worth cutting. Oats are almost a complete failure in the county. Corn never was as far advanced as at this time of year and with favorable weather there will be the largest crop ever known in York county.

Annual Tractor Meet Goes to Salina; Held In Fremont Four Times

Fremont, Neb., June 29.—(Special Telegram).—The annual tractor meet this year will be held at Salina, Kan., July 29 to August 3, according to information that has reached Fremont club officials. Fremont invited the tractor men to come back again this summer, but during the winter a resolution was passed to the effect that the meet would not be held for any town that had had the show before. The first meet was held at Fremont and for four years the iron horse manufacturers had returned here. A number of Nebraska towns bid for the show this year. An increase in water rates amounting to about 30 per cent became effective with the passage of an ordinance at an adjourned session of the city council. A rate of 18 cents a hundred cubic feet up to 10,000 will become effective July 1.

CANCELS LICENSE OF PASTOR FOR GERMAN SERMON

Rev. Paul Waldschmidt of Howells Fails to Convince Judge Button of His Patriotism.

Schuyler, Neb., June 29.—(Special Telegram).—On May 20 last Judge Frederick W. Button licensed Rev. Paul Waldschmidt, a German Lutheran minister, to preach at Howells, but admonished him to preach in the English language only. Rev. Waldschmidt did not obey the court's orders and preached his sermon in German and the local Council of Defense received complaints concerning the same and upon investigation the charges were shown to be well founded. Senator John R. Henry, chairman of the local Council of Defense, had the pastor summoned to appear before Judge Button today.

Rev. Waldschmidt pleaded guilty to the charge, and upon promises being made that it would not be repeated, the court was about to excuse the minister with a sort of reprimand and a caution as to the future, but Judge Button asked the minister a further question as to what he thought would happen to an American preacher in Germany if he preached a sermon in English after the government had warned him not to. Rev. Waldschmidt answered that he thought the German government would take into consideration the circumstances and deal with the erring minister in a humane and considerate manner. Judge Button promptly told the minister that his reply well told that he was 100 per cent pro-German and revoked his license. Judge Button stated that he will not tolerate anything that smacks of disloyalty in word or sentiment, a stand which all people in this judicial district strongly endorse and applaud.

Leigh Home Guards Break Up Nonpartisan Meeting

Leigh, Neb., June 29.—(Special Telegram).—A meeting of the farmers south of Leigh, who have recently organized an auxiliary of the Nonpartisan league, was broken up last evening when members of the home guards went out and intercepted the meeting. The league members have been holding regular meetings of late. When members of the home guards entered the school house where the meeting was being conducted the members departed from the building. All of the men present with the exception of one were Germans. The names of those present were taken by the guards.

Nebraska News Notes

The use of the German language in Thayer county schools and churches will be discussed and decided upon Monday afternoon when the German Lutheran ministers of the county will meet with the county council of defense at Hebron.
