-$3,750. Owners of this fine home consisting of six large rooms finished in quarter-sawed oak downstairs with the latest of plumbing and heating and only built a few years is being offered for less than what the house alone cost. This property is surely a bargain if one considers the future value of the land. Look over the surroundings and you will readily see why this property will be worth a great deal of money in the future, on account of the trackage so near to it. Owner will take $1,750 cash and the balance in monthly payments. House will be vacant in a days and ready to move into HASTINGS & HEYDEN.

Acreage was estimated at $,100,000 less than last year, but this exhibit was offset by reckonings that notwithstanding the smaller acreage the yield would reach 3,169,000,on bushels, a new high record total, On the other hand the government weekly report showed that frost damage in northern Ohio and Indiana lowlands was more serious than had been believed. Gossip that comparatively few cars would be furnished for the purpose of moving grains other than wheat served also to stimulate buyers, de-spite transient weakness resulting from a food administration ruling emphasizing that
