

ONE CENT WILL BE ADDED TO RETAIL PRICE OF BREAD

Federal Food Body Authorizes Maximum Charge to Consumer; 10 Cents for Pound Loaf.

If you buy bread you will pay more for it Monday. The advance is due to the fact that early this week the food administration permitted the bakers to raise their wholesale prices. The federal price committee has taken the matter up and authorized maximum prices, the "cash and carry" and the "credit and delivery" being the same.

Here are the maximum prices that the retailer is authorized to charge: Two-ounce single loaf, 10c. Four-ounce single loaf, 15c. Eight-ounce single loaf, 20c. Twelve-ounce single loaf, 25c. Two-pound loaf, 40c. Three-pound loaf, 60c. Four-pound loaf, 80c. Five-pound loaf, 100c. Six-pound loaf, 120c. Seven-pound loaf, 140c. Eight-pound loaf, 160c. Nine-pound loaf, 180c. Ten-pound loaf, 200c. Eleven-pound loaf, 220c. Twelve-pound loaf, 240c. Thirteen-pound loaf, 260c. Fourteen-pound loaf, 280c. Fifteen-pound loaf, 300c. Sixteen-pound loaf, 320c. Seventeen-pound loaf, 340c. Eighteen-pound loaf, 360c. Nineteen-pound loaf, 380c. Twenty-pound loaf, 400c.

Prior to the increase the twelve-ounce loaf sold at 7 cents and the pound at 9 cents. The Omaha bakers, through P. F. Peterson, chairman of their organization, announces that all of the local bread manufacturers will cut from their sales lists all retailers who fail to conform to the new maximum sales schedule. There is nothing to prohibit retailers from selling at lower prices if they desire.

Drive of Autoists to Secure Names For Petition Falls Down

The drive in Omaha and the state to secure 50,000 signatures to a petition asking the people to vote on a constitutional amendment to place a single tax on automobiles failed to secure that number of signatures, Assistant Commissioner Ellis of the Chamber of Commerce believes.

The signed petitions are now in the hands of the secretary of state. The law requires a very cumbersome procedure in a movement of this kind. On the back of each petition all the names appearing on its face must be written together with the statement, signed and duly witnessed, that these persons signed the petition. Those in charge of the movement believe that it is still possible to have the question submitted at the fall election. When the signatures are added up the legal question will be taken up to see whether the signatures are sufficiently numerous under the law.

National War Savings Day Accomplished Its Purpose

The Nebraska war savings plan, which was universally adopted throughout the United States in the campaign which culminated on June 28, designated by the president as "National War Savings Day" has resulted in a great impetus to the war savings movement.

Guy C. Kiddoo, who returned to Omaha Monday from Washington, and who was one of a committee of three in charge of the national campaign, of which committee Ward M. Burgess was chairman, reports that there is great activity in the eastern states along war savings lines as a result of the June campaign.

A telegram from Harry E. Benedict, executive secretary of the national committee, to Mr. Kiddoo, advises that preliminary reports from 36 states indicate that 24 have over-subscribed their war savings quotas. The campaign in Nebraska, which was primarily for the organization of war savings societies, resulted in the formation of approximately 10,000 societies. The quota of societies for the state fixed by the national committee was only 4,300 societies.

Volunteers to Have Their Picnic Here Next Tuesday

When Major F. A. McCormick, of the Volunteers of America, opened the door on the morning of the Fourth, he found a pathetic little group huddled in the doorway. "What time is the picnic?" they asked.

Several women with their little children had come prepared for the big annual outing, which is to be held July 9, thinking it was to be on the Fourth. "I felt sorry to have to send them back home," said the major; "they were so disappointed."

Preparations for the picnic are well under way. N. J. Weston, physical director of the Young Men's Christian association, has agreed to direct the games, and piles of good things to eat have been donated, though there will be plenty of opportunity to use more, as the children anyway come to the picnic ready to make up for the lean days that precede it.

Special Service for Men of Class One in Draft

A new "nation's want column," asking for special workmen to report before July 17, has been received by local draft boards.

The men are to be chosen from Class I registrants, and will be inducted for special service in industrial work in which they are experienced.

The council asks for the following: Auto repairmen, axemen, blacksmiths, boatmen, bridge carpenters, cabinet makers, caulkers, concrete foremen, concrete workers, construction foremen, cooks, draftsmen, electricians, gas engine men, stationary engineers, farriers, horseshoers, lithographers, machinists, buglers, photographers, plumbers, powder men, quartermen, riggers, saddlers, shoemakers, surveyors, tailors, teamsters, telephone operators, timbermen, topographers.

Refuses to Pay Funeral Expenses of His Child

Refusal to pay for the funeral expenses of the burial of his one-day-old child, beating and choking his wife and ordering her out of the house with the threat, "I will knock your brains out if you don't," is the list of offenses charged against Robert Fry by his wife, Molly Fry. Mrs. Fry petitions the district court for a divorce from her husband and adequate support. Fry is a laborer at the Cadamy Packing company. The couple were married in September, 1908, at Boonville, Miss.

Funeral of Ranchman Killed in Auto Smash To Be Here Saturday

S. F. McConnell, 49 years old, a ranchman at Stapleton, Neb., was killed in an automobile accident near there Wednesday. He is survived by his widow, formerly Ethel Honey of Omaha. The funeral will be held at the home of Roy L. Honey, 5524 North Twenty-fourth street, a brother of Mrs. McConnell, at 4 o'clock Saturday. Interment will be in the Forest Lawn cemetery.

Rain is General Over Greater Part of State

According to the report to the railroads, the rain of Thursday was general over the whole of the east half of Nebraska, extending well over into Iowa. The precipitation ranged from one-fourth to one and one-half inches, the heaviest being down in the southeastern corner of the state.

Today, say railroad officials, there are scattered showers over the western and northwestern sections of the state. Everywhere east of the mountains the weather is cooler.

PIGS BANISHED FROM RESIDENCE SECTION OF CITY

Health Commissioner Will Allow Sheep to Gambol on Lawns, But Draws Line on Porker.

Health Commissioner Manning states that "pigs may be pigs," but he has directed his inspectors to notify citizens that on and after July 20 pigs will not be allowed within the residence districts.

This will have the effect of countermanding an order issued by the health department last spring, that pigs would be allowed in residence sections as a food conservation measure. "We have had so many complaints against this practice that we have decided to abate what we deem is a nuisance," Dr. Manning explained.

Stein Swatting Fete at Krug Park Saturday For Red Cross Benefit

Want to take a crack at one of the cherished institutions of kaiserdom? If so you can gratify yourself to the full at Krug park Saturday night. Under the auspices of the ladies of the Red Cross salvage branch a stein swatting fest will be held at the park on that evening and 200 or more steins, some of them embellished with the effigy or profile of the Beast of Berlin, will be put up for bombardment.

Patriotic persons of Omaha will be permitted to do a little hand grenade practice on the steins at 10 cents per shot. It will be a pleasure to break some of the steins, especially those which have inscriptions on them to the effect that "Deutschland is uber alles," and others glorifying Germany's militarism.

The health commissioner was assisted by City Commissioner Ringer. Those who have been raising pigs in residence districts will be given 15 days in which to dispose of the stock. This order will not apply to feeding sheep on lawns.

Sheriff Thinks Satema Makes His Own Booze

Two complaints for the illegal sale of intoxicating liquor and one complaint for illegal possession of liquor have been filed by the county attorney against Sam Satema, 1416 William street. Satema lives in the basement in the rear of the address on William street. He was arrested by Sheriff Clark and by Charles F. Walker, deputy sheriff, after Walker had bought a pint of whisky from Satema. The sheriff and Walker were led to Satema's home by men whom they had arrested with liquor. It is suspected that Satema has been manufacturing his own liquor.

Officer Wants Car Licensed Before He Takes Any Chances

Kelly Peterson, 17 years old, 4626 Bedford avenue, was fined $1 and costs in police court Friday morning on a charge of operating an automobile without a license.

The officer who arrested Peterson testified that the automobile was too much for the boy to handle, as he nearly ran over him before he took him into custody, but he wouldn't have minded that if there had been a license on the machine.

Will of H. D. Estabrook, Former Omaha Lawyer, is Filed Here for Probate

The will of Henry D. Estabrook, former Omaha attorney who was a candidate for the Republican nomination for president in 1915, and who died recently, has been filed in the Douglas county court for probate. Most of Mr. Estabrook's property is in New York, where he has a home at Tarrytown-on-the-Hudson, but since he owns personal and real property in Omaha, the will has been filed here also for auxiliary proceedings.

The amount of Mr. Estabrook's property is not stated. He left everything to his wife, Mrs. Clara Campbell Estabrook. The will asks that Edward Porter Peck of this city be named administrator.

Besides his wife, Mr. Estabrook was survived by his daughter, Mrs. Blanche Deuel Roebeling of Trenton, N. J.

Baker Goes East
Chicago, July 5.—Newton D. Baker, secretary of war, left for Washington today after a busy Fourth of July hereabouts.

Viscount Ishii Pays Tribute To America's Part in War

New Bedford, Mass., July 4.—Here where American-Japanese friendship began nearly three quarters of a century ago, Viscount Ishii, the Japanese ambassador, today reiterated his nation's whole-hearted devotion to the cause of liberty and paid tribute to America's part in the war.

The ambassador presented to the neighboring township of Fair Haven a Japanese sword of the fourteenth century as a mark of appreciation of kindness shown by the township people in 1850 to a Japanese sailor who lived here eight years after being brought in by a whaler to New Bedford. This boy, Manjiro Nakahama, went back to Japan with a story of his experiences and of American ways that paved the way for Commodore Perry, whom he served as interpreter.

Second Encampment for Boy Scouts Will Start Monday

Boy Scouts will return from the first encampment at Lake Quinnebaug Saturday night. The second encampment will begin on Monday, the boys leaving that morning for a 10 days' outing.

Never In All the History of the World Such a July As This!

Historians and the men and women of the future will view this period thru which we are passing, with amazement. 'Twill seem as if all the world of today was mad. Horrors upon horrors! Which stagger humanity. No sphere of human endeavor has escaped. No man or woman whose life is unaffected—and

No Business But Has Felt and Is Feeling the Curse of War.

Linens Are Linens

Nowadays. That is true in more ways than one in this store. They are scarcer and scarcer, indeed, so difficult to get that the prices have mounted so high as to be practically prohibitive. Many substitutes are offered because of these conditions, and quite naively sometimes "Damasks" are quoted as if of linen, when, as a matter of fact, but little flax is in the goods. Not so here. When you buy Linen you get Linen, and when part Linen we tell you. When no Linen we tell you also. Near the Linen counter on Saturday will sell regular $1.00 grade Mercerized Damask (cotton), for 79¢.

Will sell regular $1.50 grade Mercerized Damask (cotton), for $1.19.

If you think of giving a little function, a Picnic, a Luncheon at the club or the more formal and pretentious Dinner—and you would add zest to it—have just the proper finish—top it off, as it were—CALL ON COBB, or rather THE COBBS. These names, Mr. and Mrs. Cobb, are, of course, household words in Omaha—indeed, in well ordered homes practically the country over the name is famous. In every camp the name is familiar. THE CANDY LONGED FOR. Cobb specializes on hot weather candies and carefully observes orders and conservation rules. Telephone in the morning if you cannot come in person. Douglas 51, say Cobb please—it pays to be polite to the operator.
