By Associated Press. Washington, July 6.—Austrian losses in the recent unsuccessful offensive against Italy and during the Italian counter offensive are estimated at 250,000, including at least 50,000 killed, in an official dispatch today from Rome, based upon testimony of numerous prisoners.

Wilson Names Peace Terms For Allies Is Word of Lloyd George

With the American Army On the British Front, July 6.—Until Germany accepts the conditions laid down by President Wilson, it cannot have peace and it can have peace tomorrow if it accepts them. David Lloyd George the British premier, gave this message to the American troops training on the British front after he had seen them at review today.

Mr. Lloyd George said: "President Wilson yesterday made it clear what we are fighting for. If the Kaiser and his advisers will accept the conditions voiced by the president, they can have peace with America, peace with France, peace with Great Britain, tomorrow."

May Die For Giving Intelligence to An Enemy of Country

Justice Brandeis May Go As Envoy to Russia

Justice Brandeis of the supreme court, who is being mentioned as the probable choice of President Wilson to act as his representative to Russia. Colonel House, who has also been mentioned for the post, has been the president's usual envoy abroad, but Justice Brandeis has been his confidential adviser at home, and it is argued that the justice, by virtue of his international reputation as a radical, would be more acceptable to the Russian revolutionists of all classes than Colonel House.

122 Teuton Planes Shot Down In Week By British Pilots. London, July 6.—The official weekly summary of aerial operations issued tonight by the air ministry follows: "On the British western front, since the last weekly summary was issued, 122 German machines were downed and 73 driven down out of control, against 52 British machines reported as missing. During the same period 14 separate towns were raided and bombed. The airfield at Boulay was raided six times; the railway triangle at Metz-Sablon, four; Mannheim, four; Saerbrucken and Thionville, three; Treves and Frescat, two, and seven other towns, once each, including Karlsruhe, where a large explosion was caused in a metal works. "Naval airmen in the course of the week vigorously bombed docks, submarine bases and naval works in the neighborhood of Zebrugge, Ostend and Bruges. "On July 4 11 German machines were destroyed and 10 driven down out of control. One hostile balloon was shot down in flames, four of our machines that were engaged in the battle area are missing. "All our machines engaged on other parts of the front returned safely. Thirty-three and a half tons of bombs were dropped during the day of the Fourth and the night of July 4 and 5."
