GOLF CHAMPIONS RAISE $125,000 FOR RED CROSS

New Entries Received for Tournament at Happy Hollow July 16; Fifth Place Omaha Goal.

A telegram received from Charles P. Thompson, president of the Western Golfing association, states that the four champions who are scheduled to play at the Nebraska state golf tournament at Happy Hollow July 16, for the benefit of the Red Cross, have already made more than $125,000 in exhibition games.

Lake Shore club at Chicago leads the list with a total of $30,100. French Lick, Ind., second, contributed $16,300; the Sunset Hills club of St. Paul, $15,600; Colorado Springs, $12,500.

$15,600; Colorado Springs, $12,500. The next in the list is another Chicago club with a total of $5,000. The first four clubs are composed of extremely wealthy men and it is not probable that Omaha will equal the amounts raised by them. The aim now is to pass Colorado Springs.

Kansas City raised $2,400.

"Nebraska can easily step into fifth place among these cities," declare the bmaha promoters of the tournament. The four golfing champions, Chick Evans, Warren Wood, Jock Hutchi-son and Walter Hagen, have contrib-uted more money to the Red Cross from exhibition games than any of the other players, who are working for he same purpose. A number of new entries to the ournament have been received. Herpert Gooch, president of the Lincoln finishes and fast time featured the han 50 Lincoln players will enter Miss and they hope to get the number
