SOCIETY SPRINKLED WITH THE PATRIOTIC FAVORS AND FLAVORS

EVERYONE spent a delightful afternoon at the Country club Wednesday, when the D. A. R. gave the first card party of the season. It was a lovely sparkling afternoon and when we tell you that 21 tables were set for the game you can guess just what a success it was, financially and every other way. The committees are most enthusiastic and this week the affair will be given at Happy Hollow club. Some of the patriotic guests did not desert their knitting even for the allurements of a game of bridge, for we noticed a number on the porch wielding their long amber needles.

Officer's Hop.
Another officer's hop is to be given at Fort Omaha Saturday evening. The silver-barred chaps are keen about these parties and they really are very nice. The girls all wear their loveliest frocks and the music is divine. There are always unique favors for the guests, the last dance each girl proudly carried away a silver hatpin decorated with the insignia of the officer who was her escort.

Cheated.
We are to be cheated out of a very pretty military wedding, for Miss Ruth Arnstein skipped away and she will be wed today in Des Moines. We can picture just how attractive this dark-eyed girl will be in her bridal gown and we have visions of a lovely trousseau, for Miss Arnstein always has the very New Yorkiest things. Mrs. Theresa Arnstein, the bride's mother, has been in Des Moines for some time and she will probably remain for the remainder of the summer.

Havoc in School Room.
Dan Cupid has worked havoc in the school rooms this year, for the pretty teachers seem to have been studying from the lexicon of love and now when the halls are silent and the playground deserted our school ma'ams are slipping into white satin gowns and veils and under the national colors they take their marriage vows. A school romance of this sort will culminate Monday evening when Miss Elin Youngberg will become the bride of Mr. Irving Garwood. The ceremony will take place at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. A. E. Seabloom, and Rev. O. D. Baltzy will officiate.

Miss Chase Sees Movie Made.
Miss Helena M. Chase, after visiting with a schoolmate, Miss Polly Pratt, at Concord, Mass., attended the Northfield conference and then joined Mrs. Chase at Woodstock, in the Catskills, where they will spend the summer.

Miss Pratt's full name is Louisa Alcott Pratt, and she is a grand-niece of the famous author of "Little Women," and lives in the historic Alcott home at Concord. It happened while Miss Chase was visiting there that the house was taken possession of, for a couple of days, by one of the big film corporations, who proceeded to photograph both exterior and interior with one of their best companies in a production of "Little Women," which is to be presented to the public next fall. The costumes of the period of which Miss Alcott wrote were used, of course, and it was great fun to watch the actors go through their parts and work out the silent drama.

Howes-Carpenter.
One of the prettiest of the early summer weddings will take place Wednesday evening, when Miss Lillian Jessie Carpenter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Carpenter, will become the bride of Mr. John B. Howes. The ceremony will take place at the Good Shepherd church and will be followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents.

Miss Irene Baker will be maid-of-honor and Miss Hazel Carpenter and Miss Charlotte Elder will be bridesmaids. The little girl, who will scatter rose leaves in the bride's path will be Miss Dorothy Shay. Mr. William Galloway will attend the bridegroom.

Picnic at Elmwood.
The Kohoots Fogelkey club entertained at a picnic dinner at Elmwood park Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Gertrude Morrill of St. Paul, Minn. Those present were:

Misses—Gertrude Morrill, Rose Dixon, Mary Marsh, Jane Shaffer, Emma Saunders, Edna Saunders, L. Armstrong, L. A. Piper, A. W. Kaszinski, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Morrill.

Pretty Bride of Army Officer

Young Matron to Serve Country at the Capital.

A little surprise bride is Mrs. Hugh Henderson Drake, nee Miss Gretchen Langdon, of the last week, for the wedding plans of this pretty girl were kept a profound secret, in fact, the knot was tied before anyone could wink! Trinity Cathedral was the scene of the wedding and guests there were none, for you see it was all kept so dark. Dr. and Mrs. Glenn H. Fritz, close friends of Lieutenant and Mrs. Drake, were the only attendants. Mrs. Drake wore a smart little frock of white organdy and a picture hat, while her bouquet was of tiny white roses with an old-fashioned frill. Mrs. Fritz also wore white, her gown being of net and her wide girdle of pale blue, just matching her hat of georgette crepe, trimmed in French flowers.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Drake will make their home in Manhattan, Kan., for the present, as the young officer is stationed at Camp Funston. When her husband is ordered overseas Mrs. Drake expects to serve her country in Washington, D. C.

Visiting Girl Has Busy Week With Omaha Friends

Marian Pierce

Miss Gertrude Cobry underwent the second operation within a week at the Wise Memorial hospital Saturday morning, when her tonsils were removed. The Saturday previous she was operated upon for appendicitis. Her condition is reported as satisfactory.

Thought for the Day

ENEMIES.
Don't you suppose, When they oppose, A lesson may be learned? The Good Book states That while one hates The kingdom cannot be earned. When enemies oppose The soul in you grows— If you love instead of hate The experience dear Makes the way clear To enter the heavenly gate.

Red Cross

Union Auxiliary No. 184 Red Cross Auxiliary will meet every Tuesday from 9 to 4 in the Labor Temple and every Tuesday evening from 7:30 to 9:30.

Mrs. H. H. Baldrige, state censor, Nebraska inspection warehouse, this city, sent a few days ago to headquarters her final and complete figures covering activities of that organization for the month of June, during which period over 1,000,000 pieces of finished products made by the Red Cross women of this state were unpacked, censored, repacked and shipped.

Since the inspection warehouse was established December 18, 1917, the warehouse has received, unpacked, censored, repacked and shipped to France and cantonment camps in this country 5,011,851 pieces, the most of it the patriotic labor of the women of this state.

Miss Mae Ball, reserve Red Cross nurse, has been called from her work as head of a Casper, Wyo., hospital into the service. She leaves Monday for army duty at Camp McClelland, Aniston, Ala.

Miss Ball was one of the first class to graduate at the general hospital, now the Lord Lister, in this city. She has been in Casper for the past four years. When in Omaha she makes her home with her brother, C. N. Ball, 2616 Dodge street.

For Fort Omaha Boys.
The benefit sale, at the opening of the soda fountain at Sherman & McConnell's drug store recently netted $1,027.34 for the fund being raised to buy band instruments for Fort Omaha soldiers.

Further donations have been made by Mrs. George Joslyn and Mrs. Milton Barlow, who each gave $25, Jerry Howard, $30, and Sophus Noble, $50. A store room has been secured for articles to be donated to the annual white elephant sale.

PERUNA TO EVERY LAND THE WORLD OVER

The goodness of Peruna reaches out to every land and to all people. Thousands have already testified to the merits of the remedy as a health-builder and protector and thousands more are today experiencing its healing influence.

"There is Nothing Better Than PERUNA"

So says Mrs. Nora Barnes of 1204 Maple Ave., Los Angeles, California. Read her letter:

"I have taken Peruna for several years and find it to be a fine medicine to take at any season of the year. I cannot speak too highly of Peruna for it has done a vast amount of good for me. As a tonic, there is nothing better."

For forty-five years Peruna has been the standby in the American family for catarrh, both acute and chronic, coughs, colds, effects of grip, constipation, stomach and bowel disorders and all other complaints arising from a catarrhal condition of the mucous linings. It is a good remedy to have on hand for emergencies or to take constantly. Severe sickness may be frequently prevented by this practice.

JUNE BRIDE

MRS. E. O. AMES.

The marriage of Miss Margaret Graham of New York to Mr. E. O. Ames of this city took place in New York at the North Presbyterian church June 24. Mr. Ames is a prominent business man of Omaha and the young couple will make their home here.

Mrs. Ames is a most attractive young woman and has a charming lyric soprano voice. Mrs. Ames is a pupil of David Bispham and has done a great deal of concert work. She donated her services to the Armenian relief and the concert given at the Greek theater at Berkeley, Cal., brought a goodly sum to this worthy cause. Mrs. Ames' home was formerly Portland, Ore., coming to New York about 10 years ago to pursue her musical studies. This talented bride expects to sing in Omaha in the near future for the benefit of war relief work.
