Winner of Wayne Tournament Sets Omaha Player Back in Swift Contests: More to Come.

All remaining dope was given the finishing shove in the Omaha tennis tourney at the Field club when Joe against the company on the charge of Adams, booked to add local honors selling stock in that county and thereto his long string of victories, was by obtaining money under false predefeated by Frank Garey. The victor, winner of the state tourney at Wayne four years ago, took two of the three as the result of that investigation. sets, each of which was bitterly contested.

The match was played late Saturday afternoon and lasted until dusk. solved. Garey took the first set, but not as easily as the 6-3 tally seems to indi-cate. Adams was slightly ruffled at this unexpected treatment and came back strong in the second chapter, forcing Garey to succumb to a 6-4 defeat. The third set was one fo the toughest matches played in a local tourney. The two see-sawed up to seven all when Garey took the lead and annexed the two deciding games,

Garey won his way to the semi-finals last night by defeating Ralph Rainey, manager of the tourney, in two sets of 6-4 each.
