

RED CLOUD MAN FILES PETITIONS FOR METCALFE

Eighteen Documents Placed in Charge of Secretary of State Asking That Omahan Run.

From a Staff Correspondent. Lincoln, Neb., July 16.—(Special.)—Petitions from 18 counties with about 2,700 names thereon asking that the name of Richard L. Metcalfe of Omaha, be placed on the primary ballot as a candidate for the democratic nomination for the United States senate, were filed with the secretary of state this afternoon by Bernard McNeny, of Webster county. No acceptance accompanied the petitions, but it is believed that Mr. Metcalfe will accept.

Mr. McNeny stated that this would give the democrats a chance to nominate a 100 per cent candidate if they wanted one.

R. B. Howell and R. L. Metcalfe are in political brown studies. Their brows are furrowed, indicating deep thought.

Mr. Howell's state of mind is somewhat chaotic over the question of whether he should throw his new Panama hat into the political ring once more. The thought of dropping the substance for the shadow, as related in the fable, acts as a deterring factor. The best bet offered is that he will not get into the gubernatorial contest.

"Met" avers that he is an uncertain factor in the democratic senatorial gymkhana. He is busy getting the measurements of "Bill" Price, Willis Reed, J. H. Morehead and Edgar Howard, the present entrants with whom he would have to run if he should file.

Local filings are not causing any excitement at the election commissioner's office. F. D. Wead and W. J. Coad, members of the Metropolitan water board, have filed for nominations. C. G. Carlberg, realtor, filed for the republican nomination.

All filings for state representative thus far have been republicans, eleven aspirants having appeared as follows: James Allan, John A. Lovgren, John Larsen, R. L. Bailey, Victor D. Reynolds, George A. Sargent, Chris Lyck, J. M. McDowell, H. C. Timme, George C. Porter and Nels Lungren.

A. H. Bigelow, Charles W. Sears and W. J. Broatch, republicans, and Charles Anderson, James H. Craddock and Jens Nielsen, democrats, have filed for state senatorial nominations.

Frank W. Bandle has filed for register of deeds, which position he formerly held.

James C. Dahlman is still being urged to make the race for sheriff.

KINKAID PUTS THROUGH BILL TO SURVEY LAND

Uncle Mose Satisfies Objectors That Legislation is Needed, Especially in Big Sixth District.

Washington Bureau of The Omaha Bee, 1311 G Street. Washington, July 16.—(Special Telegram.)—"Uncle Mose" Kinkaid's bill authorizing the resurvey or re-tracement of lands heretofore returned as surveyed public lands of the United States under certain conditions, passed the house today without a record vote. For a time it looked as if there were serious objections to the bill, judging from the temper of the members who asked questions upon certain features of the bill, but Judge Kinkaid, who is an old hand in getting legislation through the house, met all comers in a masterful manner, satisfying the objectors that the legislation not only was urgent, but needful, to clear up many titles, particularly in the big Sixth district.

Semi-Rest Period. Congress today began a semi-rest period for tired legislators, permitting the solons to go home if they so desire, to look after their political fences, but they must be back and ready to resume business, August 19. Saturday, the senate decided to inaugurate the three-day recess plan and the house fell into the spirit of the scheme after side-tracking the agricultural appropriation bill and passing a number of bills on the "unanimous consent" calendar.

Hitchcock on Vacation. Senator Hitchcock, accompanied by Mrs. Hitchcock and Mrs. Hitchcock's sister, Mrs. William Stores Bowen, wife of Colonel Bowen, now on the western front, will leave for his summer home in Swampscott, Mass., tomorrow by automobile, going north via Gettysburg, Lancaster and the smaller cities in New York and New England.

Senator Norris will go to Nebraska, but when he has not decided, probably sometime next week.

Congressman Lobeck will leave for Omaha tomorrow evening. Mr. Lobeck stated today that Representative Scott Ferris, chairman of the democratic congressional committee and W. G. Jamison, of the national committee would be in Omaha Friday for a conference with democratic politicians. Ferris and Jamison are booked for speeches at the Iowa democratic convention to be held in Des Moines Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

Representative Sloan, being a member of the ways and means committee, will remain in Washington for a few days with a view of aiding the committee in drafting the next income tax bill, which it is expected will be ready to report to the house on August 19. Mrs. Sloan and daughter will remain in Washington while the congressman is making a hurried tour of the state.

Congressman Shallenberger, accompanied by Mrs. Shallenberger and daughter, will go home some time next week, in ample time to attend the democratic state convention at Hastings.

Judge Kinkaid has several important departmental matters to look after before he goes back to meet the home folks previous to the August primaries, but in all probability the last of the week will see him on his way to the "big sixth."

Officers of the Omaha Street railway were advised today that the war labor board would hear their side of the controversy between the employes and the company at Kansas City Wednesday of this week.

The Character Assassin

Any sneak can tear down a Character— It takes a Man to build one.

About the most depicable form of untruth is the slanderous "half truth," which makes plausible the falsehood which dare not be uttered direct.

A blow in the dark, like a knife in the back, invariably proclaims the sneak and coward.

Slander, abuse and blackmail are fitting weapons for jealousy and incompetence, but have no terrors for him who "hath his quarrel just."

I have been the object of many attacks in my many years of professional life, but despite the misguided efforts of those who would paint me in colors of the darkest hue, I have managed to retain my self-respect, the respect of my friends and the confidence and the esteem of my patients.

I do not think my bitterest enemy will claim that I am other than a Competent Dental Surgeon. Being careful to see that my patients and creditors always get what is their just due, you may rest assured that I shall be equally careful to see that my detractors shall "get all that is coming to them."

To those who may read between the lines and understand me, I merely desire to say, "He laughs best who laughs last."

To those fair-minded, square-dealing people of Omaha and vicinity who have been numbered among my friends and patients from the first, I desire to say: "Be of good cheer." This office is here TO STAY. Omaha is going to have BETTER DENTISTRY, OMAHA IS GOING TO HAVE HONEST PRICES, and no amount of blackmail is going to swerve me from my purpose.

A wise General does not publish his plans to an unscrupulous enemy, though he feels confident of ultimate vindication and victory.
