THE BEE PUBLISHING COMPANY, PROPRIETOR.

DAILY (MORNING) - EVENING - SUNDAY

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS conates frees, or which The size is a member, is excitatively to the use for publication of all news dispatches credited not otherwise credited in this paper, and also the local ows d herein. All rights of outdication of our special dispatches ne stee Building.

Abs—2218 N. St.

New York—286 Fifth Ave.

New York—286 Fifth Ave.

St. Louis—New B'k of Commerce

Attie Building.

Washington—1311 G St.

JUNE CIRCULATION

Daily 69,021-Sunday 59,572

Subscribers leaving the city should have The Bee mailed to them. Address changed as often as requested.

Over the top!

On to Berlin? All right; let's go!

Still, it did not need an air flight to cinch "Uncle Mose" Kinkaid's grip on his constituency.

Don't let anyone believe that there is no more work for the State Council of Defense in Ne-

Some office seekers think they are fooling someone when they camouflage behind petitions saking them to go on the ballot.

Consolidation of telegraph offices is also in prospect. The government can do a lot of things it would not let the private companies do.

Judged by its jabs at the city commissioners, the loss of that city official advertising has evidently soured the sweet disposition of our hyphenated contemporary.

Mr. McAdoo ought to find little in the way of routing freight over roads with lightest grades, That is what the railroad men were doing in all cases where the regulations did not interfere.

"Met's" platform gives no consideration to the hyphenates and kaiser-coddlers. That makes sure he will get no aid or comfort from the hyphenated newspaper over which "Met" once presided as chief editor.

President Wilson is quoted as telling the democratic congressman from this district that he hopes to see him re-elected. He doubtless tells that to every democratic congressman, but who has heard of him saying it to a republican congressman? "Politics is adjourned."

A nation that invented poison gas, flame throwers, trench clubs, and other similar implements and methods; that drops bombs on base nospitals, school houses, sleeping hamlets, sinks passenger ships without warning; desecrates thurches, defiles private homes, and has commited all manner of unspeakable villainies and acts of cussedness, does well to shrink from the sawed-off shotgun. It may help the kaiser a little if he keeps in mind that that weapon was designed to deal with evil-doers who had put themselves outside the pale of the law of God and man, and that it is just fulfilling its mission when used against the Hun.

War Bread and a Hungry World.

Opinion that our devotion to war bread will undergo abatement with the present harvest must be modified, if we do our whole duty to the hungry world. Reports from harvest fields, not only in America, but in India, France, England and elsewhere among wheat-raising countries, are most encouraging, so far as the total yield is concerned. Against this must be set an unusual and. Countries accustomed to feeding themselves are no longer able to do so. Other countries find their short production cut off to such extent that they must turn to America for supplies. From all European neutral nations comes a request that we contribute to their lessened food supplies; from back of the lines we get only word of present famine, certain to be increased as the season advances.

All of this means that Americans must continue their savings and maybe go on even shorter rations. Pre-war diet no longer weights down the table of the people, but none has suffered because of the restrictions so gently imposed. While our war bread does not measure up to the dainty once enjoyed, it looks mighty good compared to that on which millions of unfortunates in Europe are subsisting.

Difficulty will be encountered in the way of sending food to the starving in central and eastern Europe, but some means will be found to relieve them. Americans cannot rest in sight of plenty with the full knowledge that millions are dying of hunger. Our war bread will taste good so long as it is flavored with the thought that we are sharing with the needy of the world.

EVERYONE HIS OWN PLATFORM MAKER

One of the practical results of the direct primary as practiced in Nebraska is to make everyone who offers himself for the suffrages of the people his own platform maker.

Whether this is a good thing or a bad thing depends upon the point of view. The candidate, on starting out for the nomination, outlines the propositions for which he wishes to stand in some kind of a letter or address made to fit his particular record and qualifications. We still have party platforms, framed and promulgated by party conventions, but they are not formulated in this state until the time for the candidates to make their filings has expired and, therefore, not until after the personal platforms have been put out. The party as an organization is expected to be responsible for the fulfillment of its platform promises, and yet, the party platform and the candidates' platforms nearly always conflict or overlap. As a consequence one or the other must later be either disregarded or disclaimed.

The personal platform, therefore, not only destroys party responsibility but stimulates a throwing of hooks with every kind of variegated bait promising to catch a few stray votes. Instead of being a declaration of principles, the tendency is to a patch-quilt composition, too long to command even casual reading and brushed aside without even being preserved for future ref-

There is a chance, especially this year, for party platform makers to reform their ways and hit the target. If they give us the same old perfunctory stuff, no one will take any notice of it.

Has Foch Determined to Advance?

After standing for three days, in the parlance of the prize ring, "toe to toe and trading wallops" with the Germans, the Franco-American forces launched a forward movement and gained much ground between the Aisne and the Marne. Prior to this, and during the three days of stubborn fighting in which the fifth German thrust was baffiled, the British had vigorously assaulted and carried many important local positions. On the showing Washington rests a belief that General Foch has determined to assume the offensive. Success for the Allies on either front of the great salient the Germans have thrust forward since March will force a retirement, and might produce a rout. The pincer movement essayed by the crown prince, whereby he hoped to envelope the defenders of the Rheims salient seems to be definitely checked, while the counter assault of the allied armies on the opposite side of the great loop, if carried on with persistence, must relieve any pressure on the danger spot. More time will be needed to fix the character of the operations now under way, but the forward movement of our forces will be the most welcome news that could come from France next to the announcement of victory.

Strike That Approaches Treason.

The strike of the boilermakers in the ship yards at Oakland nearly amounts to treason. The men complain that their employers have not paid the wages agreed upon when the government effected a settlement and set the standard of pay. This may or may not have foundation of substance, but it is not a vital cause, sufficient to justify cessation of work on ships at this time. Common sense should tell these men that the American government is back of that wage agreement, and that they will receive every cent due them. With this arrangement, they well can afford to be at work all the time, trusting Uncle Sam to pay his workmen. To strike under the circumstances is to express distrust of the federal government and to hamper it in its prosecution of the war. Soldiers who default in face of the enemy are shot; these striking boilermakers may not receive such punishment, but their crime is equal to that of a deserting soldier.

"Hostility" to the President.

Just as two years ago the democrats raised the cry that republican success meant war for the United States, so now they are sending up a shout that the election of republicans to congress means hostility to the president. This deliberate attempt to deceive the voters again is quite in line with the record of the party. Mr. Wilson has had his chief and most serviceable support in congress from republicans. His principal and most effective opposition in connection with the war has come from democrats. Sublime effrontery is required to even hint that the republican party lacks the patriotism of the democrats. No one who is familiar with the history of the United States would be duped by such an insinuation, and the democrats are only insulting their own party members by resorting to it. Election of republicans to congress means that the war will be more vigorously prosecuted, and that the president will have more efficient support in his plans for victory in the field. It also means that the home affairs of the nation will be placed again in safe hands, and that thimble-rigging back of the scenes will be over. The present cowardly attempt of the democrats to camouflage their own record by hinting that republicans are disloyal is characteristic of the party whose success depends on its ability to deceive the voters.

Don't be alarmed. Nebraska has never had a political crop failure in all of its history.

War in Our Educational System Dean West of Princeton Defines the Meaning of the Conflict

recognized as an ardent supporter of the rian proposal errs in forgetting some hard classics in education, in a speech delivered facts. For if this is practically all our youth at the general meeting of the National Edu- are to have, then most of them are concation association in Pittsburgh, asserted demned in advance to a form of industrial that in our education, as in the war, an "im-slavery, because they would thus be trained mortal conflict" was being fought to a finish. to be little more than animate tools for spe-It is the aim of the kaiser's educators to ab- cial tasks, and would be largely cut off from breviate education by nationalizing it. Dean their just chance to rise. This view overlooks West added, while France is fighting for the the fact they are more than animate tools. perpetuating of classical culture as the basis They are human beings, our brothers and of learning.

Dean West's address follows, in part:

"There are voices of confusion telling us that everything is changing, saying that that we are an independent nation living in little, if anything, of what we have held as the twentieth century, and should therefore true can be depended on for the future, have a purely American national education and bidding us clutch at this or that panacea without reference to the past. I know no as the only thing to cure our ills. The past, loyal American who wants anything else they say, has little to teach us; for we are than that our national history should be well Americans of the twentieth century and studied by every boy and girl in the land, should promptly cut loose from bygone and that English shall be the only language times, methods and ideas and set up a brand- used in our elementary schools. Is this all new national culture of our own. In their there is in the proposal? Then we can all rejection of what they call tradition, they accept it with enthusiasm. But it needs defiare forgetting something; they are forget- nition. For we have the right to ask whether ting that the value of anything does not de- it is meant that all elementary studies are to pend on whether it is old or new, but on be exclusively national. Our own language whether it is false or true.

They are, in fact, telling us to lose our memories and to forget what we shall forget at light of this world-war its deep-lying causes tor decades and generations past, and on heritage of freedom. back to the origins, cannot understand why happening again, nor even what it is that is address of December 17, 1890: now happening. For he who does not reeverything and to forget nothing.

peated effort, wisely guided effort, not alone make German the basis." by exertion of the teacher, but on the part an alert, disciplined, irresistible army of man education for the last 30 years. knowledge.

"What is the way to win? This is the question that must be answered rightly if we 1915, by the minister of public instruction of are to keep faith with our country. There is the French republic: just one way. It is to make the proved truths of experience the one basis for our for our acceptance. It is the test of common to French thought the greater part of the sense. It is also the one scientific test, for great ideas for which we are now fighting." science, as Huxley put it, is nothing else are being made.

mind has generally been beaten.

should be required to take any study which is not 'interesting' to him, because if he does not like it he will get little good from it. It is hard to take this seriously. What in the world is to be done, on this basis with those who find all studies, and especially all study uninteresting? This beguiling half-truth breaks on the hard rock of facts.

"3. Some are telling us that vocational

The Advertiser's Thrift

Make your advertising today do twice what it did yesterday. It can.

Advertising is the matchless messenger

Smileage, all bear willing witness to the lieved. wonder work of advertising.

educator, the sure inspirer.

to the means of spreading it. Scrutinize your cost."

tising do double duty, working for their backwards instead of advancing. country selling Liberty bonds and savings stamps, as it sells for themselves. Think how salesman.

Don't stop advertising. War time is no time to stop anything, except wasted time. Look into its new and special uses for your-

It will save time for you and your men in whatever you are doing. Association of Advertising Agents.

Dean Andrew F. West of Princeton, long living early. We grant it. But this utilitasisters, with minds and hearts as well as "4. One more theory needs notice. It is and history for the sake of our national "They are proposing to run American edu- unity? Yes, in plenty, and then also the elecation, not on a record, but on a prospectus. ments of universal knowledge-as much as we can get. "Above the elementary education the theour peril, namely, that the past has our ory utterly fails and fails because its advomain lesson to teach us and that the man cates forgot or ignored the hard facts of who does not see behind the lurid, blinking history. We are part of the family of nations, and heir to a great part of the world's

This nationalistic theory has a powerful this war happened, nor how to prevent its ally. Here are his words from the famous

"'Whoever has been through the gymnamember what has gone before has little sium and has gone behind the scenes knows means of judging what is happening now or where the trouble is. The trouble is, first ot forecasting what will come after. It is no of all, that we lack a truly national basis. time to forget. It is the time to remember We must take German as the foundation of the gymnasium, we must educate national "Our struggle in the schools, as it should young Germans and not young Greeks and be in our homes, is against ignorance, the Romans. We must depart from the basis old, ancient, inveterate ignorance with which which has stood for centuries, the old monevery generation is born into this world, the astic education of the Middle Ages, in which gnorance which must be first overcome and Latin was the standard, and a little Greek then enlightened by effort, hard effort, re- This is no longer the standard; we must

"This is the kaiser's own statement, the of the student as well, that our young re- basis of his educational policy, the theory cruits may be trained, trained, trained into which has been at work wrecking the Ger-

It is well we should also hear a statement on the other side, made September 10.

"'The classical culture should remain the object of our ardent study, even if it were efforts and the one test of all theories offered only for the reason that it has transmitted

"It is great to be a true American; it is than 'highly trained common sense' applied greater to be a true man or woman here or to scientific questions. Let us try by this anywhere. 'That all men everywhere may test some of the plausible assertions that be free was Lincoln's prayer. Can we not lay aside all prejudice and then read our "I. One is that there should be no formal lesson in the fiery light around us? That discipline' in studies. If this means that lesson is that no freedom is won or held there should be no strict and regular train- without struggle and without self-denial. ing of the human mind, as the words natu- That lesson is that mental and moral freedom rally imply, the test is easily made. If it is not won or held by any human being in any means something else, we have no need to land without whole-minded training in the consider it. All we need to do is to remember fundamentals of knowledge, be they pleasant the record of facts. This record tells us or unpleasant at first, whole-souled obedience that in the world's contests the undisciplined to duty, 'interesting' or uninteresting, and whole-hearted devotion to the truth won and "2. Another assertion is that no student held by hard effort, not for money, place or

His Story Must Be True

What prisoners taken in war say to their captors must always be heard with the utmost caution, for invariably such men have and technical education is the one thing need-less reason to tell the truth than to please ful because everyone should be taught to or to deceive. By making statements which earn his living. So he should. And nine- they know or think will please those into tenths of our youth must begin to earn their whose hands they have fallen, captives can whose hands they have fallen, captives can hope to get kinder treatment, while if they be made of sterner stuff they can try to help their own side by taking the risks incidental KEEP BUSY! Yourself and your adver- to telling lies sure to be found out later.

Prisoners of war, however, do sometimes speak the truth, and occasionally they make revelations of such value that they are nothing less than treacherous betrayals, at least of war times. It speeds your message on from the standpoint of their recent comrades. wings fast as thought, and cries it in a Again and again the allies have learned in breath from the house-tops and steeples of this way of German plans and so were able to prepare for meeting them. A notable case Whenever the government must get quick of this was just before the great drive against word to our people, and an answer as quick, Chemin des Darres, but in that instance, unit enlists advertising. The Liberty loans, the fortunately, the proposed operation was car-Red Cross campaigns, the Young Men's ried out successfully, in spite of the timely Christian association, Knights of Columbus, warning. Perhaps the warning was not be-

Now another German prisoner-one whom For it is the great time saver, and time General Pershing evidently believes, else to do all we must do is the task of the times. would he not put the man's story on one Time thrift is war thrift. And advertis- of the communications the general so careing is time thrift. It is the thrifty way to get fully prepares for publication on this side of your message to your country. It is the quick the water-has been making a disclosure. What the German said was that his regi-Be thrifty with your advertising. Don't ment, after suffering heavy losses, had restint it. Make the most of it. First be sure fused to obey an order to go forward again of your message, then put the efficiency test and to take the designated objective "at any As, in their judgment, the cost would space. Usefulness has the right of way over have been the extermination of the remainder of the regiment, and would be paid without Some advertisers are making their adver- achieving the aim set befor thm, they went

If such a thing as that has happened before in the German army, it has not been you can make your advertising a two-mouthed reported from any front, and its occurrence now seems to indicate that German discipline and morale are weakening. We have heard many times before that they were, but Advertising has uses it never had before, subsequent events have not borne out the assertions, and they had come to be held more than dubious, except by those of us who believe what we want to believe, rather than the lessons of fact and experience. This Use advertising to be time thrifty and story, coming as it does, is different from war thrifty.-William H. Rankin, American all its predecessors as regards credibility.-New York Times.

The Only Thing to Do. George Washington Jones, late of

The American artillery officer in charge of the battery crossed over to the road.
"Scared?" he demanded.

"Well," George said, "Ah was slightly agitated at fust. Ah suttinly was. But keep right on. Dat's the only way to win this wah-fiah dem runs."-Stars and Stripes, France.

"Good morning," said the lodger. "I hope you've had a good night's est," said the landlady. "No," said the mild-mannered little

"No, not exactly." said the gentle "But would you mind very Omaha, July 17 .- To the Editor of The Bee: I am a member of Plumb ers' local union No. 16, and feel very much interested in the announcement made through your paper that Albert W. Jefferis is a candidate for the republican nomination for congress from this district. For as long a time as I can remember he has been known as a Nebraska booster, and whenever the Commercial club has sent a trade boosters' excursion into the adjoining states to bring home business, the volunteer that always goes along to make the big talks for Nebraska is our own "Big Jeff. Whenever anything big is being done by the Commercial club or the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben we always find Jefferis in the forefront. This however, is not my principal reason for writing this letter at this time, but rather because Jefferis has always been absolutely fair to organized labor, and I feel sure that this is one time when "capital and labor" wil find no difficulty in agreeing that Jefferis ought to be nominated and elected to represent the Second district in congress.

FRANK J. LYNCH.

Looking Into Hitchcock's Record.

Omaha, July 17 .- To the Editor of The Bee: The World-Herald prints under the heading, "Why This Petty Politics?" a letter from Ed F. Morearty, taking The Bee to task for its 'unwarranted attacks" on Senator Hitchcock. Mr. Morearty states that he has never voted for the senator, which seems strange, as he goes on to prove that Mr. Hitchcock has always been right-he was right about the Panama canal, about the federal reserve act, about an embargo on arms and ammunition, etc. Was he also right, Mr. Morearty, in his op position to preparedness and later in his support of what the democrats proudly styled "reasonable prepared-ness"—a condition which was recently described by General Perching as a state of naked unpreparedness; Was he also right when, during the armed neutrality debate, he quoted a pacifist poem, the gist of which was that the allies and Germany were all tarred with the same brush, that the war had no justice or right on either side and that any nation that became mixed up in it was acting foolishly Was he also right in stating a day or two before we entered the war that he would never vote for war, and then in suddenly cha ging his mind and voting for the war?

Mr. Morearty says that the "ablest statesmen in this nation" approved the senator's plans for an embargo on arms and ammunition. That is not The test authorities on international law in the country, including Secretary Lansing, opposed 'he embargo; furthermore, they stated that an embargo would be an unneutral act and would get us into serious trouble with the allies-a thing that would have delighted many of the gentlemen with German names who were backing the senator's action. The democratic administration was opposed to the embargo, while the German government's secret agents in this country were actively supporting the measure But perhaps when Mr. Morearty speaks of "the ablest statesmen in this nation" he is referring to W. J. Bryan and Henry Ford. This talk about the republicans

'playing petty politics' is a joke. Our friends in the other camp have gotten hold of about everything in sight and they intend to hold onto what they have and add to the pile; hence the continual whining about the repubplaying politics. They argue that because we are at war the re-publicans ought to lie down and permit the democrats to pick their pock-Meantime the democrats are doing all they can to increase their siender majorities in the house and sen-They have even asked Henry Ford to run for the senate as a democrat, but poor Henry cannot make up his mind whether he is a democrat or not. He says that he remembers distinctly casting his first vote for president for Mr. Blaine, or perhaps for Mr. Garfield, he is not quite sure which; anyhow, he is sure the man he voted for was a democrat. Maybe it was Jeff Davis. Our government is the only one among the allies that has not a coalition cabinet. Ours is a straight partisan cabinet, and will remain so till the cows come home; yet the democrats are terribly grieved over the "partisan attitude of the republicans." politics! The people Petty Omaha decided some time ago that Jim Dahlman was not a proper man for public office. Now we hear that Senator Hitchcock is trying to get him a government job with a $7,000 salary attached to it, as a reward-for what? We heard that kind of stories constantly; but when you see a democratic senator working to se cure a government job for a republican the job is always the kind that pays $1 a year. Mr. Morearty should not have brought up the subject of Senator Hitchcock's pre-war record. National Security league recently decided that public men's pre-war records ought not to be dug into, and the World-Herald heartly supports this view. A REPUBLICAN.

SAID IN FUN. "That lady is very expert."

"Huh?"
"Keeps knitting and talking."

"And never drops a stitch or the thread of her conversation."—Detroit Free Press. "He married her for her money."

'How do you know?' "Logical deduction, I've seen her."-Browning's Magazine.

"How do you manage to live within your "Nothing to it," replied the rich man

Cold Drinks Bad for Your Stomach

How to Avoid the Digestive Miseries, That Hot Weather Brings

Cold drinks in hot weather are bad enough for any stomach but doubly so, n Lot. dangerous when the stomach is ou of fix and you suffer :m indigestion acidity food-repe_ting heartburn sour stomach, and that aw.u. puffed-up. biorted conditi.n after eating in ract al stomacn and bowe miseries are greati- aggra ated in ho weather. You can t be too carctul Sunstroke can be traced in many cas.s to poor dig stion. Everyone should watch their stomach in hot weather. Keep it sweet and co i. Here i an easy and piersant way t correct stomach ills. A compound has been discovered which surely takes up the harmful uic sand gases from the stommach, a aving it sweet, clean, coos and comfortable. You won't know you have a stomach if you take one or two light and pain-free you wil. tee There is not a harmfu, thing in EATONIC tablets. They taste fine! Just like eating candy. Druggists will tell you that EAFONIC users say they neve dreamed anything could give such quick and wonderful results: you can insure yourself a good. cool, sweet storiach, you can eat what you like,

EATONIC tablets after your meal se and Iwa s have the appetite to eat it. L.TCNIC is absolutely guaranteed. Get a box from your druggist today. Use it to get rid or and prevent the stomach and bower troubles that are bound to come in hot weather. If EARONIC tails, return to your drug-pist and get your fifty cents back. If you cannot obtain EATONIC where you .ive drop a card to Eatonic Remedy Co. Chicago, Ill. They will mail

The Bee's Soll

College Boy-Dad, I think I'll tackle the stock market game as soon as I get my sheepskin. The Old Man—(dryly)—Well, I believe that's the proper apparel for young men in Wall Street.—Boston Transcript.

"Shall I wise her up?" "Heavensi no-I'm afraid now I'll do something to affect my amateur status."-

WHY MUNCHAUSEN QUIT.

Munchausen was a lively guy.

He spun romances by the bale. fe could not match the modern lie; His once fine yarns seem tame and stale.

We did not drown defenseless men And women on hospital ships. They scuttled their own boats and then Munchausen was a lively guy He spun romances by the bale. Ie could not match the modern lie;

His once fine yarns seem tame and stale. "No ship remains of all the might That once had swept Atlantic's coast. We dropped a charge of Schrecklichkeit Munchausen was a lively chap.

"I'll tell the truth," he said at last.
"I quit. I'm out. I doff my cap
To Berlin now. I'm clean outclassed."

-New York World.

Artistic Frames for Class

Memories of your high school and college days will linger long.

Don't cast it aside. Have it framed-now while it's new and clean. Some day you'll treasure it as one of your dearest belongings.

A wide assortment of neat, inexpensive frames to choose from. Guaranteed workmanship at reasonable prices.

"Pictures framed with loving care."

1513-15 Douglas St.

HEALTH Don't Live in Fear of

H EART trouble follows injury or strain to the backbone at points between the come out of alignment to the point of interfering with the nerves supplying the heart, This weakness is the forerunner of nearly all forms of heart trouble. Spinal adjustments obtainable in this of-causing your illness? To find out call for free spinal analysis today.

Established as a CHIROPRACTOR Since 192

I Baird Bidg. N.W. Cor. 17 to Douglas Sta.

OFFICE HOURS

9-12 A.H. 2-5 PPE OFFICEOUSLAS 8461 9-IZ A'H: 2-5 PIPE EXCEPT SUNDAY

One Year Ago Today in the War. Maj. Gen. Sibert made his first inction of American training camp

New German chancellor declared for Pan-German policy of ruthless submarine warfare. German Reichstag adopted a peace resolution proposed by the socialists, radicals and Catholic party.

The Day We Celebrate. Israel Gluck, investments and real state, born 1843. Gen. John P. Wisser, U. S. A. etired, born in St. Louis, 66 years

Rt. Rev. John J. Hennessy, Catholic bishop of Wichita, born in County Cork, Ireland, 71 years ago. Julian William Lack, Chicago jurist and reformer, born in San Francisco, 52 years ago.

Dr. Charles H. Mayo of the Mayo surgical clinic, born at Rochester, Minn., 53 years ago.

This Day in History.

1814—Samuel Colt, inventor of the revolver, born at Hartford, Conn. Died there anuary 10, 1862.

1864—General Grant asked the president to call for societies in teinforce the armies.

1915—One of greatest battles in world's history, involving 6,000,000 men and 900-mile battle line, begun in Russian Poland. ent to call for 300,000 men to

Just 30 Years Ago Today Fowler Bros, purchased their packing house at South Omaha from the stock yards company for a consideration of $65,000. The Page soap works commenced

The city council adopted the recom mendation of its attorney to accept compromise offers from the railways for its claims in the construction of the Sixteenth and the Eleventh street viaducts. Richard M. Grimes and his brother Arthur have left for a visit to New York, stopping at Lake Minnetonka

Paxton & Vierling are building a beautiful office building in connection This fact and the present prices of newspaper readers have noticed this No, with their works, which is to cost farm lands ought to be advertised far big little item of news hidden among lodger. 1918—Germans launched new coun-ter offensive in Longueval sector.

State Press Comment Plattsmouth Journal: But just wait, some of you war brides, until the glamor of the war is over, and you chills on realizing the strength of the see your husbands in civilian clothes, American draft.

with derby hats and wrinkly shirts and unpressed trousers. Norfolk News: "What's the Amerfcan equivalent for the word 'kam- fight than submarine murder? erad,' which the Germans shout when they want to surrender?" someone arriving in Paris from Bucharest says asks. There isn't any American the Germans have left but one cow equivalent. There isn't any use for for every tenth farm in Roumania, one in our army. Gering Courier: To a shebang which isn't located exactly right to get it, we arise to remark it looks like such organizations as the water users, farm bureau, etc., would buy their printing where they expect to get their publicity. That goes for some other folks, too.

Falls City Journal: The elevators are about full of wheat and the threshing has only started. The farmers see no way of gaining anything by holding the grain unless they save it back for seed and sell it for $3 per bushel, but then everybody can't sell for seed: some of it has to be ground into flour. Greeley Citizen: Greeley county certainly is in bloom at this time.

Nowhere are more promising crops north and you will not find as good crops as right here in Greeley county.

Go east, west, south or

Editorial Shrapnel New York World: Berlin, now

city of influenza, presumably took its Wall Street Journal: Are there no

the Kiel canal who want a cleaner

New York World: An American

which is Germany's way of distributing the milk of human kindness.

New York Herald:: In the course of the "work or fight" campaign against idlers it develops that physi-for that distase should be eight hours' hard labor well worked in. Brooklyn Eagle: At Krupps the telling speech of Schwab will be eagerly read by the directors of the kais er's works. This war is the case of Krupps against Schwab. The launching of 100 ships, 470,000 tons dead-weight, in one day ought to teach the German people what fools they have been to follow the lead of a mad ruler.

cians recognize that mortal hatred of work is due to disease. The remedy

Louisville Courier-Journal: Treasury department has extended to France an additional credit of $100,-000,000, bringing that country's total indebtedness to the United States to $1,765,000,000 and the total of the ask me to have the poor little thing allies to $6,081,590,000. How many killed." $5,000. It will be ready in a few and wide. All Greeley county needs the reports of our dispatch of a million men to France?

Twice Told Tales

Atlanta, was making his first trip frontward on a supply wagon,-with not much farther to go-when, from men of the German navy tied up in the side of the road, a camouflaged American battery broke forth thunderously, sending a few 300-pound tokens over the line to Fritz. The arriving in Paris from Bucharest says ground trembled from the salvo, but not any more than George, as he > Needed Tuning. The landlady bustled up to her new lodger as he came down to breakfast me fine morning.

> "Good morning," she wheezed.

"Your cat kept me awake." man. "Oh," said the landlady, tossing her "I suppose you are going to head.

much having it tuned?"-Boston Tran-

"I presented my cars and yacht to the government, the army is looking after my son, and my daughter is earning her keep with the Red Cross."—Life.

"Old chap, what does the widow think "S-shh-She thinks I am an amateur at ovemaking.

Plorida Times-Union.

The Yankee troops are all a myth: Torpedoes and artillery.

Died with a lie upon their lips."

Into the Yankees' foolish boast."

· Pictures

In the years to come your classmates will scatter to the four corners of the earth and all that will be left to bring back the scenes of your schooldays will be the picture of the class taken at graduation time.

A. Hospe Co.

Heart Trouble

shoulders. When the joints of the backbone so disordered bethere is weakness.

fice remove the nerve pressure. and nature freed of interference restores normal heart strength. What spinal condition is

DR.JOSEPH C.LAWRENCE