It is persistently rumored in baseball circles that this is Hugh Jennings' last year as manager of the Detroit Tigers. Jennings has failed utterly and Detroit fans are clamoring for a successor. There is another report in circulation that when the time comes to supplant Jennings the management of the Tigers will be offered to Tyrus Raymond Cobb.

OHIO SHOWS HOW TO GET COIN FROM FINE BOXING GOES

Great Battlers of Country Help Cleveland Realize $15,000 for Uncle Sam's Army Camps.

By RINGSIDER. Chicago, July 20.—While the big fight these days is the one on the other side, still, every now and again, a real worth-while affair is pulled over here.

Some of the fighting men, among them a world's champion, declined even to permit the athletic club to pay expenses, throwing that much into the general pot for the soldiers.

The fighters included Benny McCoy, New York, who was beaten by Joe Burman of Chicago; Johnny Kilbane, of Cleveland, who outpointed Larry Hansen of Denmark; Benny Valger of France, who outpointed Elmer Doane of Buffalo; Matt Brock of Cleveland, who was beaten by Johnny Dundee of New York—all in the bantamweight class; Rocky Kansas of Buffalo, who was backed by Cal Delaney of Cleveland; Willie Jackson of New York, who won from Young Christie of Buffalo; Barney Adair of New York, who gave up before Charley White of Chicago; Vincent Pekonv of Cleveland, who obtained a draw from John Griffiths of Akron, O.

Johnny Still "There." Johnny Kilbane, world's champion, in no shape for what he had agreed to do and worrying deeply over his camp troubles, indicated completely that he is still master of the gloves.

Fahey is Canned. Frank Fahey, who pitched and out-fielded for the Athletics a few times, has been given his unconditional release by Connie Mack.

Boxer Writes Song. What with this "work or fight" order going the rounds, and no one but Crowder knowing just where it will end or when, is it any wonder "fighting men" and fighting instructors are looking for some "essential work" to dabble at as an avocation? Not so, at least that is the opinion of Ferd Dyer, boxing instructor to Uncle Sam's rookies at Camp Grant, Rockford, Ill.
