Burgess-Nash Hold Picnic At Krug Park Tuesday

Tuesday evening at 5 o'clock Burgess-Nash employees and their friends will descend upon Krug park for a rousing good time, the event being their annual summer picnic which is being held this year in the form of an old-fashioned basket lunch picnic.

Chartered cars will leave Burgess-Nash store at 5:15 and go direct to the park after which the fun will be "gulled" off as well as many other amusing events.

A great deal of enthusiasm is being evidenced among the employees of the store and the picnic will be without doubt one of the largest and most enjoyable picnics held at the park this season.

Looking Ahead.

A young man began to pay court to a beautiful girl and eventually the time came when he felt constrained to ask her parents permission to lead the fair one to the altar. With this in view he sought the stern parent in his study.

AMUSEMENTS.
